TRAIN ROBBERS.

An Engagement Between Them and a Posse Near Casper, Wyo.

The Bandits Were Hidden Behind Rocks and Only Two Shots Were Fired by the Posse—The Robbers Were Captured Later On.

OMAHA, Neb., June 6.—A special train from Cheyenne, Wyo., says today in its posse which left Casper Sunday in pursuit of three of the United States Pacific train robbers overtook the severe settlement out and were given the back in the fight which followed, the robbers shooting through the air. The posse consisted of Hazen, of Converse county, Lee Devine, foreman of the posse, and seven men of the posse followed the trail of the robbers. The posse rolled north and over the high ridge of Casper, where with field glasses they could see the country behind them for ten miles, and probably saw their pursuers approaching. They had been following the high ridges, but after leaving the high ridge struck down a draw to the head of Tea Pot creek and followed along the creek bottom for six miles. At a high cliff of rocks, the bandits turned abruptly to the left and rode into the rocks. They were seen by the posse following closely, one man trailing them while the others of the posse were on the side. With a suddenness which was unexpected, two shots rang out and Payton's horse went down with a bullet through the heart. The whole posse dismounted and ran in among the rocks under cover. In a few minutes other shots were fired by the robbers, but only two shots were fired in return, as they were completely hidden behind rocks and could not be seen, a few minutes later J. E. Long, of the posse, who had been some distance behind, came up, and the robbers put a ball through his horse lengthwise and rained bullets around him like hail.

CHARGED WITH REBELLION.

The Attack on President Loubet, at the Races Had the Effect of Increasing His Popularity.

PARIS, June 6.—The scenes at Auteuil on Sunday and in the chamber of deputies have only had the effect of increasing the popularity of President Loubet and of strengthening the hands of the government. The promptitude of the premier, M. Dupuy, in carrying out his promise to take measures to insure justice as soon as the court of cassation had pronounced judgment is regarded as proving that he, himself, can show a clean bill and that though he was premier at the time, Gen. Mercier kept him ignorant of the measures adopted against Dreyfus.

Interviews with various high personages who witnessed the incident at Auteuil were published Monday morning testifying to the savagery of the demonstration. It is asserted that, although the price of admission to the paddock was 30 francs, this was full of coachmen, footmen and valets, evidently sent there to create a disturbance.

Countess Tornelli, wife of the Italian ambassador to France, was sitting on M. Loubet's left during the attack, and she asked her whether she intended to stay. She replied: "Certainly, monsieur le president, am I not in the place of honor?"

Capt. Barattier, of the Marchand mission, attracted considerable attention to himself during the affair and was publicly lauded by Duchesse D'Uzes.

Among those arrested, whose names have not hitherto been published are Comte Frossent, Vicomte Combe and Comte Moustiers Merinville.

M. LeMercier, the examining magistrate, Monday night began the interrogation of those under arrest for participating in Sunday's rioting. Ten, including M. De Panisse-passy, have been provisionally released. About 15 will be prosecuted on charge of rebellion, for which the maximum punishment is five years' imprisonment. The charge against Comte Christiani is of assaulting a magistrate while in the exercise of his functions, an offense punishable by imprisonment for from two to five years.

WAS ATTACKED.

President Loubet Assaulted While at the Races at Auteuil Sunday.

Several Persons Were Hurt and Many Arrests Were Made by the Police—Count Christiani Struck Loubet a Blow on the Head.

PARIS, June 6.—President Loubet, accompanied by Premier M. Dupuy, and the chief of the military household, Gen. McBaillon, drove to the Auteuil races Sunday afternoon, closely followed by Madame Loubet in a second landau. As they drove along the avenue Des Champs, Elysees, the crowd bowed respectfully; but, on arriving at Auteuil, they were met by a violent demonstration evidently organized and directed against the president.

There was a storm of hoots, yells and cries of "Panama!" "A bas Loubet!" and "Vive l'Armee!" A few shouts of "Vive Loubet!" were drowned in the clamor.

A strong force of police kept order and arrested many of the disturbers, including a man who tried to force his way to the president's carriage.

During the second race the clamor increased to violence and was plainly directed by a committee of the League of Patriots, collected with their supporters both before and behind the presidential stand, around which a formidable affray proceeded.

During the grand steeplechase many blows were struck and several policemen were injured in their endeavors to prevent an invasion of the presidential stand.

At the crisis of the excitement, while shouts of "Vive l'Armee!" and "Vive l'Armee!" were heard on all sides, Count Christiani pushed toward the president brandishing a stick and directed a blow against him, striking his hat.

The crowd rushed upon Christiani, who only escaped severe handling by being taken under police protection.

President Loubet remained all the while unmoved talking to the premier while officers of his military household were defending him against violence.

Finally, after 30 arrests had been made the prefect of police ordered the republican guards to surround the presidential stand. The principal leaders of the demonstration were M. Sial, anti-semitic and nationalist, deputy for Geers; and M. Formin, anti-semitic and nationalist, deputy for Oran, Algeria.

Police Inspector Grilliere had his head seriously wounded during the rioting. The president has been decorated with the cross of the Legion of honor, in recognition of his devotion to duty.

It seems certain that the demonstration was organized by the Juneece royalists, the Ligue des Patriotes and the Anti-Semites, the rallying sign being a carnation in the button-hole. Count Christiani is a member of the steeplechase society, a very select body and his conduct has produced the greatest indignation.

A CONFERENCE AT MIDNIGHT.

The President and War Officials Have a Meeting Early Monday Morning—Its Nature or Result Not Known.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn and Adjt. Gen. Corbin had a conference with the president after midnight. They had been summoned by the president, it was understood. What the nature or result of the conference was can only be conjectured yet as the parties to it decline to discuss it.

Mr. Meiklejohn and Gen. Corbin were with the president about half an hour, leaving shortly before 1 o'clock Monday morning. The lateness of the meeting attracted more than usual attention, as there has been no recent occasion for late conferences. Upon returning to his hotel Mr. Meiklejohn said, in response to all inquiries, that there was nothing to make public, and that the subject under consideration was not of a serious character.

A COMBINATION IN LUMBER.

Shipbuilding Material on the Pacific Coast Will Be Much Higher Than It Has Been for a Long Time Past.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—The Pacific coast export lumber manufacturers have consummated arrangements which will make the price of shipbuilding material much higher from now on than it has been for a long time past. The combine is composed of all the Pacific lumber mill companies in British Columbia, Washington and Oregon, controlling the entire output of lumber on the coast. Under the new schedule the price of lumber has advanced about $1 per 1,000 feet, and the advance takes place at once.

Distilleries Closing Down.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., June 5.—The Kentucky Distilleries & Warehouse Co. is closing down its distilleries in this county for the season. The W. H. McCreary distillery closed Tuesday and the T. B. Riply and Waterfill & Frazer distilleries will stop next week.

Councilman Hughes Is Acquitted.

VERMILION, Ky., June 5.—After being out 18 hours the jury in the case of Councilman Merritt J. Hughes for killing A. F. Steele Saturday, returned a verdict of acquittal.

TWO VILLAGES CAPTURED.

Col. Truman's Detachment Takes Angono and Binangonan—They Were Evacuated by the Insurgents.

MANILA, June 6.—Monday afternoon Col. Truman's detachment, proceeding along the west side of the peninsula, took Angono and Binangonan. The rebels evacuated these towns Sunday night and fled to the northeast, slipping north of Morong before Gen. Hall's brigade arrived, for the purpose of joining Gen. Hall when he arrived from Antipolo.

Finding that there was no opposition, Col. Truman crossed the peninsula toward Morong. Gen. Hall passed through Teresa, the only town which the inhabitants had not deserted. Many uniforms were found, indicating that the insurgents had suddenly changed themselves into friends for the time being.

Col. Wholly left Morong Monday afternoon, his troops returning to Pasig in case. He had been congratulated by Gen. Lawton for his splendid work. The members of the Washington regiment are completely exhausted. On an average there are 15 men in each company prostrated by the heat. The natives at Binangonan stated that Gen. Pio del Pilar's forces escaped to the mountains in the direction of San Mateo. They are making for Angono.

Before leaving Morong, an outpost of the Washington regiment was attacked by the enemy, and lost one killed and one wounded. That the object of the movement to attack Gen. Pio del Pilar's forces was to prevent the Americans to swing far enough to the east sufficiently soon to get behind the enemy. Gen. Hall will withdraw to Pasig across the northern part of the peninsula.

SULTAN OF SULU WILL RESIST.

Reported That He Has Imported a Large Quantity of Arms With Which to Fight the Americans.

NEW YORK, June 6.—A dispatch to the Journal from Hong Kong says: The sultan of Sulu, who it was supposed, was favorably disposed toward the United States, it now turns out has imported a large quantity of arms from Singapore via Sandakan, with a view to resisting the Americans. These arms he has stored on the island of Sias, and he is raising a force of Sepoys at Singapore.

It is believed that the decision of the sultan to fight the United States is the result of Dray's mission to Singapore in April.

Joseph Henry Grimes has a suit in the supreme court against Aguilado, through his attorneys, Agonillo & Lichano, for $55,000, which he alleges is one-fourth of the profits of the Abbe expedition, to which he is entitled.

PISTOL SHOTS WERE HEARD.

Regulators Assembling Near Griffin, Ga.—Their Object is to Rescue Five of Their Pals Who Are in Jail.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 6.—A special from Griffin says: Pistol shots were heard in all parts of the city directly after midnight and investigation proved that the firing was the signal for the "regulators" to assemble, their object being to rescue their five pals who are in jail, indicted by the grand jury last Friday for the whipping of Negroes. Their trial was set by Judge Reagan for Monday, June 12. The sheriff telephoned to Gov. Candler at Atlanta, asking that he call out the military to protect the jail, and members of the Griffin rifles were hurried to the jail. Intense excitement prevailed. All of the citizens were awakened by the firing, and as the "regulators" claim they have about 500 men in their gang, trouble is looked for.

A POSSE AFTER MURDERERS.

Her Body Shielded the Husband and Her Faithful Heart Received the Bullet Intended for Him.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 6.—Near Blocton, Rufus Herbert, a prominent planter, last Saturday paid two Negro laborers, John Rogrrieve and William Hill, their wages a month in advance. Monday the Negroes called upon him and demanded additional pay. Herbert refused the demand and a quarrel arose. The Negroes brandished pistols and Mrs. Herbert looked from her window nearby and ran to her husband's rescue, placing herself directly in front of him.

Just then the Negroes opened fire on Herbert. The first bullet struck Mrs. Herbert in the heart, killing her instantly. Another lodged in Herbert's left side, wounding him seriously. The murderers fled, but a posse is after them, and a double lynching will probably occur.

Gen. King Discharged.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—By direction of the president, Brig. Gen. Charles King, who has just arrived at San Francisco from service in the Philippines, has been honorably discharged from the volunteer army, to take effect August 2.

Cut His Throat.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—James A. Price, commander of Reynolds Post No. 7, G. A. R., committed suicide Monday by cutting his throat with a razor. Ill health caused the suicide.

THE CUBAN SOLDIER—AFTER ALL ONE CANNOT EAT A GUN.

DEWEY LEAVES HONG KONG.

He Will Leave Hong Kong, on the Olympia, Tuesday Afternoon—His Health Considerably Benefited.

HONG KONG, June 6.—Adm. Dewey left the Peak hotel and returned to the Olympia. Monday morning he paid farewell calls to the governor, Gen. Gascoigne and the commanders of the ships in the harbor. Adm. Dewey's health has been considerably benefited by his residence at the Peak. He has refused all social invitations and has taken a perfect rest. He appears somewhat haggard from the effects of the continual strain he has been under and of the climate.

The Olympia will sail at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, but Adm. Dewey will not give a farewell dinner, nor will he accept one.

It is hoped that the quiet change and the voyage will quite restore him to health by the time he reaches New York. The details of the ports at which he will call are still undecided, but it is probable that stops will be made at Singapore and Colombo. The admiral seems anxious to avoid all display and merely to seek rest. His officers and crew are elated at the prospect of a return home.

Two May Die.

CLEVELAND, O., June 6.—Bert Higgins, aged 19 years, of No. 69 Theresa street, was overcome by the heat. The doctors say he may die. Frank Tobin, 16, also prostrated and is in a serious condition.

New, Uttest Day of the Season.

hottest day of the season. Monday was the city, and of the season in New York prostration was many cases of noon the thermometer registered 97 degrees.

Two more of the horses stampered down a draw to the east and the posse was considerably demoralized.

The robbers took advantage of this to beat a hasty retreat, and as it was too dark to follow them the pursuit ceased until Monday morning, when the trail was taken up at the head of Dugout creek, 40 miles north of Casper. Two of the posse returned to Casper, where reinforcements were mounted on good horses and immediately started out to take the trail.

General Manager Dickinson, Superintendent Harris, Mr. Buckingham of the Union Pacific; Superintendent Daniels and Manager Gentsch, of the Pacific Express, and Special Agent Vizard, of the Union Pacific, are at Casper directing the pursuit.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 6.—A courier has just reached Casper with news of a battle between a Union Pacific posse and the outlaws who dynamited the outlaws' train at Wilcox. The three outlaws were captured without loss of life, and were brought to Casper.

Word From Andree.

CHRISTIANA, June 6.—According to dispatch from Manila the most recent town of Norway, two boys on June 14 last, found on the north coast of Iceland a small cork case, containing a slip of paper, dated July 11, 1897, signed "Andree, Strinberg, and Fraenckel" and bearing the words "All well. Thrown out about longitude 81, latitude unknown." Prof. Andree's brother thinks the case was probably one of the letter buoys with which the Andree expedition was provided.

"Pride Goeth Before a Fall." Some proud people think they are strong, neglect their health, let the blood run down, and stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride. Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints.

SONG OF THE SHIRT WAIST.

It Arises When the Airy, Fairy Favorite of the Ladies Makes Its Appearance.

Hark! the pipes of Pan are pleading—like a sweetheart, interceding—in behalf of lazy fellows nowadays—for the proud and painted tail—and the moans—and the moans—are a bloom again, along life's road ways! Yes, it works a chap's undoing—when he knows that nature's wooing—from the uplands and the lowlands and the mires—When the moonlight glows in splendor—when the nights are soft and tender—and the captivating shirt waist reappears! When the liver-pad is writing—and the hip-pad is tilting—on the breeze bed-dipped bosom of the pool—When the ripe red rose comes pleasing—and the ripe red nose stops sneezing—and the little boys play hooky from the school! It is awful to be lazy—when each dear, old-fashioned daisy—breathes a message from the fragrant yester years—When the fields are sweet with clover—and the still (my heart) moreover—when the airy, fairy shirt waist reappears! When the violet blossoms happy—on the coast of the rappers—When we lounge out the old mosquito bar—When the tipsy holds wassail—in his honey-suckle castle—when the troubadour is tuning his catarrh! When that tired, transcendental feeling—into every heart comes—stealing—sweetly—like a smoky maiden's tears—When the bird chours lift their voices—when, in short, all earth rejoices—and the immortal shirt waist reappears!—N. O. Times Democrat.

Those Absurd Names.

"What ridiculous names they have over there in the Philippines," said the man who had just walked up to the counter and been assured by the clerk that he could have the best room in the hotel. "There's Calumpit, for instance. That name would make a horse laugh. Who ever heard of anything so absurd as to give a town such a postmark as that?" Then he took the pen that the clerk had been holding out toward him and wrote upon the register: J. Crawford, Woonsocket, R. I.—Chicago Evening News.
