

The Place to Buy

Is Where You Can Buy The Best Goods The Cheapest!

The prices made on our entire stock during the BIG SALE will not be changed until the arrival of Fall Goods.

Those who have not taken advantage of the ONLY REAL CUT PRICE SALE Hickman has ever had will still have an opportunity of getting some of our rare bargains.

H. C. AMBERG

LOCAL BREVITIES

For Sale—Cow and calf. 4 2 t. Jas. H. Saunders.

Jess Drew, of Moscow, was in town Monday.

Jas. Maddox, of State Line, was in town Tuesday.

F. G. Robbins, of Mayfield, was in the city Saturday.

Best Flour at Shaw & Bettersworth for $4.80 per bbl. cash.

Miss Marie Brevard is spending the week at Eddiville, Ky.

M. P. Mauphin, of Fulton, was in town Tuesday, on business.

Granulated Sugar 18 lb. for $1.00 cash at Shaw & Bettersworth.

Professor Richardson, of Madrid Bend, was in the city several days this week.

Misses Annie Carter and Mayme McAdoo, of Jordan, was in the city awhile Tuesday.

E. A. Holmes, of Ripley, Tenn., left Sunday after spending several days here with friends.

Earl Shaw, who has been visiting friends in town, leaves Saturday for his home in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. D. B. Wilson, and daughter, Miss Mabel, have returned from a visit in Fulton and Wingo.

Miss Elizabeth Clear, returned to home, at Troy, Tuesday, on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Jessie Lee Reed, of Fulton, has returned home after a pleasant visit in the city with friends.

Miss Ruth Holcombe, has returned after a steamer trip with friends to St. Louis and Memphis.

Miss Nellie Bondurant, the attractive daughter of J. J. C. Bondurant is spending a pleasant week in Union City.

Misses Eleanor and Annie Lou Spencer, of Union City, were in town Friday, enroute to their home from a boat trip to St. Louis.

You can talk about Big Shows, Carnivals, Cyclones and Earthquakes but please don't forget to notice that Shaw & Bettersworth will give you close prices on all goods they handle for cash.

J. C. Collins, of Dyersburg, was in the city Saturday.

Miss Jodie Browder, of Fulton, visited in the city this week.

You will find every thing cheap for cash at Shaw & Bettersworth.

For Sale—good young mule. Apply to, C. L. Rose. 3-3t.

Best Heinz Vinegar strictly pure apple at 25 cts. per gal., for cash at Shaw & Bettersworth.

Mr. Peter Curlin, one of our farmer friends from Route 1 was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Shaw, of Mayfield, have returned home after a pleasant visit with relatives here.

Hal Hayden, of Union City, but formerly located with the N. C. & St. L. Ry. here, was in the city Sunday.

Misses Frank Reid, Laura Brown and Edna Carpenter spent several days this week visiting friends in the country.

Miss Lucile Morris, the attractive visitor of Miss Addie Murrell returned to her home at Union City, Monday evening.

Russ Wiseman, formerly of Hickman, but at present connected with the M. & O. Ry., is in town this week with relatives.

Master Billy Carpenter, son of G. L. Carpenter has returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Trezevant, Tenn.

Author Townsend, formerly of this city, but now in business at East Prairie, Mo., arrived in town Monday, and will remain several days.

Mrs. Oscar Salmon, Miss Mary Oakly, Miss Minty Stoker, Messrs. Grover Salmon, Lessie Stoker, Lee Salmon, Dan Newton and Aubrey Cunningham had a delightful outing at Reelfoot Lake, this week.

FOR SALE: Two carloads of good stock ewes in any size lots. Also fat wethers for barbecuing purposes. Apply at Luther Maddox's place or Maddox & Berry's Stock Farm near Woodland Mills. 4-4t

J. E. Erwin, of Paris, Tenn., spent Sunday in the city.

Claude Whitney, of Union City, visited friends here, Sunday.

Will Flack, of Union City, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Mrs. Bettersworth and children spent last week in Camden, Tenn.

R. L. King and Finis Thompson, of Rutherford, were in the city Saturday.

Miss Della Copland, of Wingo, Ky., is visiting relatives in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Shaw, of Mayfield, are visiting Mrs. Fannie Shaw this week.

Dixie Robinson has had a relapse from his recent illness and is again under the care of the physician.

Miss Lerlyne Browder, of Fulton, took the teacher's examination here last week, and returned to her home Saturday night.

Misses Angie and Gertrude Hayes, who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Maggie Randle, have returned to their home at Jackson.

Men wanted to clear land, $6.00 per acre, land easily cleared. One man cleared two acres in four days. See J. H. Royer or B. F. Shaw.

D. W. Threlkeld, of Woodland Mills, was in town yesterday, and made this office a substantial call. We would like for all of our subscribers to come in and see us.

John Hagan, representative of Wencker-Morris Candy Co., spent several days last week with his mother. He resumed his travels Sunday night.

Miss Stone, sister of Messrs. Lowery and Alex Stone, was a pleasant member of the boat trip party to Memphis. They will return the first of next week.

Mr. Will Carpenter continues to be critically ill at his residence on Clinton and Water Streets. Mr. Carpenter has been ill for something over ten days, and a change for the better is looked for by his expectant friends.

J. H. Kirk was in East Prairie, last week.

W. A. Perry, of Mabel, was in town Saturday.

Joe Mangrum, of Moscow, was in town Friday last.

Vernon Verhines, of Union City, was here last week.

Mrs. Tom Prather, Jr. of State Line, was in the city Wednesday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Johnston, visited at their former home a few days ago.

Ed White, of the Hickman Grocery Company, spent Sunday in Union City.

Misses Clara and Lucy Savage, of Fulton, are visiting their sister Mrs. C. L. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Foltz, of St. Louis, are visiting her mother, Mrs. John Kistner.

Jno. R. Bryant and Leon D. Smith went to St. Louis Tuesday to purchase a funeral car for the Hickman Furniture Co.

John Richards, clerk of the Lee Line steamers located at Caruthersville, has returned to that point, after a pleasant visit with friends here.

It will be noticed by the tax-payers of this county that the taxes are now due for 1906 and not 1905 as was erroneously stated last week.

Marshal G. L. Carpenter states that the city taxes are ready for collection and every city tax payer is requested to come forward and settle.

M. B. Shaw is spending several days this week outing on Number 8 lake. Mr. Shaw is interested in land in that vicinity and will make the trip in the interest of both pleasure and business.

Dr. Jas. Hubbard was the excellent host of a few gentlemen friends, at his residence on Buchanan street, Monday night. Those who partook of the hospitality of Dr. Hubbard, were Messrs. Lowery Stone, Porter Shumate, and Dee Amberg.

J. W. Bland went to New Madrid this week.

Wm. Russell and wife spent Saturday in Mayfield.

Mrs. Ola Herring, of Fulton, was in the city this week.

Mr. Jas. Jackson, of Clinton, was in town Wednesday.

Van Griffith, of Mabel, was in town Monday on business.

Fred Berendes has returned home after an extended stay in St. Louis.

Mr. Milt Shaw, of State Line, spent Wednesday in the city with friends.

Mrs. Lige Oman and sister, Miss Elizabeth Clear, are in Union City, this week.

Miss Cleve Thomas, from Mississippi county spent Saturday in town with friends.

Circuit Clerk Morris spent a few days with his home folks in Crutchfield last week.

Found—The Nashville Steam Laundry, the best in the south. Bring your laundry to me at Smith & Amberg. 3-3t. Frank Smith.

Miss Myrandie Wilson left last week for an extended visit to the Ozark Mountains, St. Louis and other points, accompanied by her cousin, Elmer Parker, of Flat River, Mo.

Erwin Scates, of Union City, but formerly a student at Hickman College, was in Hickman the latter part of last week enroute to Memphis and other southern cities on a summer vacation.

Mr. Dunn, the venerable father of Clay Dunn, whose unfortunate demise a few weeks ago cast a gloom over the entire community, paid the Courier office a very pleasant and appreciated call Wednesday morning.

The Mt. Hermon congregation will continue their annual protracted meeting next Sunday. Preaching day and night for three weeks if the interest justifies. Elder Brigance will do the preaching. A cordial invitation is given to every one.

Piano for Sale—see A. B. Hughes.

E. E. McDaniel, of Troy, was in city last week.

John Meacham is home from a visit in Mississippi.

Buy Sanders has returned from a visit to Columbia, Mo.

E. Seidel, of Eureka Springs, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Jas. Jackson, of Clinton, is in the city this week visiting relatives.

A. O. Caruthers has returned home after a short vacation in Tennessee.

Mrs. L. Oman and sister, Miss Elizabeth Clear, returned Friday from Dawson Springs.

Miss Jessie Lee Reid, of Fulton, was the guest of Judge W. A. Naylor and wife, last week.

E. Striklin, representative of the International Correspondence School was in town Saturday.

P. C. Ward, of Walnut Log, was in town Wednesday, participating in sport with local gun shooters.

County Attorney Tom Smith, of Union City, was in the city Tuesday, attending a special term of the Fulton County Quarterly Court.

After a rain, we are reminded that there are a few street crossings in Hickman that should have the attention of our city fathers.

Men wanted to clear land. $6.00 per acre, land easily cleared. One man cleared two acres in four days. See J. H. Royer or B. F. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luigart, prominent citizens of Nashville, Tenn., arrived in the city Tuesday and will remain some time with their relatives and Mrs. Henry Cowgill.

For Sale—That portion of the W. Webster farm belonging to Mrs. J. Kennedy. This land is in Fulton County, one mile south of Moscow on the M. & O. Ry. For price, address J. W. Kennedy, Oklahoma City, Okla.