The New School Law.

There have been several suits filed already in different counties for the purpose of contesting the Constitutionality of the new school law. We are certain that it fails to guard against colored pupils graduating from the Common school entering the High School that is required to be established in each county. One or more High Schools must be established and the Fiscal Court shall pay for them as the judgment of the County Educational Board directors. Any pupil is eligible to enter who has graduated from the common schools. Where is the negro excluded? That is one reason why we are opposed to the law.

Another reason is that the separation or control of negro and white schools is not made clear and as a result we have a negro on our school board in this county.

If we had said four years ago that the republicans elected in this county would in less than four years have negroes on the school boards of the county, they would have replied, "It is the same old cry of Nigger, Nigger, Nigger." So it is, "Nigger" and wherever possible they put the "negro" in. How do you like the results in this county? Don't be backward but shell her out. How do you like it?—Livingston Banner.

Tickling or dry Coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Accept no other. Sold by all dealers.

The world was never so truth-telling as it is to-day. Nothing like it ever existed in the past. The commercial life of the world compels truth as nothing has, nothing else can, for it is on its credit and truthfulness that the fabric of our great commerce rests. You may rest assured that there never was so much truth in the world as there is to-day, and there never was such a real care for truths as there is to-day.—Rev. M. J. Savage.

More Work; Less Play.
Isn't there a suspicion that at the present time Australia might be said to be "unduly pleasure-loving"? When it is remembered that the time is one of grave anxiety; that the sands run rapidly out to give the signal for a struggle for very existence—there seems reason to suggest, for the national good, a little less horse racing, a little more attention to the serious things of life.—Sydney Bulletin.

Marriage Age is Increased.
It is generally admitted that the marriageable age of women has advanced considerably of recent years. Many a bride has long felt girlhood behind her before she exchanges her vows at the altar, and there seems to be few young men nowadays who care to assume the responsibilities of married life until they are in the financial position usually associated with middle age.

Best Way to Tie Shoe-Laces.
A way to keep shoe-laces tied is to make a bow in the ordinary way, then insert a buttonhook underneath the center of the bow and draw one loop and one end through (underneath), thus turning the bow practically upside down. Or draw one loop through the other and pull the "answering" end, so that the loops are knotted.

The New Morality.
So, it's away with your old morality and your prating about duty, self-restraint, sin and its punishment. "Science" or "evolution," as the case may be, has shown that to be strong is to be virtuous, that to seize is the aim of life and to let go one's hold the supreme transgression.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Woman Took Dare; Posed on Chimney.
Dared to climb a 125-foot chimney in process of construction at Torrington, Conn., Mrs. Guy Nodine mounted to the top and posed there several minutes, enjoying the view. To get there she had to climb rickety ladders all the way.

Life.
Life is a cocktail, made up for the most part of sweet things, and tinged with a dash of bitterness. We must drain it to the dregs to get at the cherry, just as we must live a full and rounded life to know all its pleasures.—Detroit Free Press.

Persian Easy Language to Learn.
Persian is said to be not a very difficult language. The modern Persian is very much like the English in its sensible rejection of the inflections that burden so many of the world's tongues.

Pharaoh's Mummy.
Pharaoh's mummy has been discovered and unfolded, and the eyes of readers of these pages can rest on the very features on which the eyes of Moses looked 3,000 years and more ago.

Quest of the Age.
We have lost our power to become satisfied with the essentials of life. Rich and poor alike, we seek wealth as the greatest promoter to human happiness, the greatest blessing obtainable.—The Queen.

Decline of Nations.
If the big scientist who ascribes the downfall of Greece and Rome to malaria turns out to be correct, what in the world will the commencement orator of the future have to fall back on?

Time Hard to Kill.
"Time," observes the Philosopher of Folly, "has more lives than a cat. I've killed it more than a million times myself, and eternity doesn't seem a bit closer."

Saying of a Sage.
"Enemies is unsatisfactory. When a friend abuses ye, he means it; but when an enemy praises ye, he doesn't mean it."

The Eternal Feminine.
The best women in the world are extravagant in at least two particulars: dry goods and preserves.—Acheson Globe.

Holiness Church.

The KITCHEN CABINET

A COOK FOR REUBEN.

REUBEN, Reuben, I've been thinking. Who would get the meals for thee? If the men were all transported Far beyond the northern sea?"

"Rachel, Rachel, I've been thinking. That, in spite of all thy care, We would get on very nicely, Eating lots of caviare."

"Reuben, who'll prepare the blubber? Who will trim the lamp just right? Get thy moccasins all ready For the long, long Arctic night?"

"We'd take salmon, and we'd dry it, Eat it when in seal oil swimmin', Rachel, verily I'll try it, We could do without ye women."

"Reuben, Reuben, I'd best follow, Men need cooks, wherever they go; And I fear, ye soon would find a Wife among the Eskimo."

Chinese Breakfast Food.
There is growing along the coast of China a soft, sweetish seaweed which serves a variety of purposes, but which the people use chiefly in soup. It has, however, several uses: As a barometer it is valuable, varying in moisture as the temperature changes; as a mat for the table; as draperies—everything—finally winding up in soup which is invariably served for breakfast.

Cherry Salad.
When cherries are in season they are very pretty in salads. Remove the pit, refill the hollow with a piece of nut meat. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise. Or fill an apple cup with mixed cherries and nuts. The apples will preserve their color and freshness if kept in water.

Prunes.
This dish should be regarded as a medicine, and eaten whether we like it or not. Prunes are excellent in cases of indigestion, torpid liver, etc. To induce the family to eat them often fix them in a variety of ways—chopped fine and smothered in whipped cream; in the bread pudding instead of raisins; raw, with nut kernels inside and sprinkled with sugar. All these ways are good and wholesome.

A damp napkin around the sandwiches will not only keep them fresh, but improve them, allowing the filling to flavor the whole. Always keep a clean old napkin or linen cloth handy, and make the sandwiches some time before your guests arrive to save that last-minute hurry.

If you use a pulverized or ground coffee you can get an extra fine one from C. H. Moore at 25c per pound.

Blocked.

Every Household in Hickman, Should Know how to Resist It

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked.

Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from Hickman.

J. R. Weatherly, Cor. Third & Ivy Sts., Hickman, Ky., says: "For some time I was a victim of a most annoying attack of kidney complaint. The kidney secretions were far too frequent in action and I would have to get up, some nights as often as seven times. In the morning on early arising I felt tired and little like doing the day's work. I tried a number of remedies and doctored but no avail. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice and procuring a supply at Helm & Ellison's drug store, began using them. The use of three boxes restored my kidneys to a healthy condition and made my general health much better."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
