SMITH & AMBERG

The Awakening.

The goldenrod, all drenched in sun,
Drips yellow with the morning's dew;
The brown-eyed Susans prostrate
Upon their stems—a nodding crew;
The bowl of night is emptied out,
And rose nectar rims the glass—
The wine of morning, Phoebus kissed,
That spills its glory through the pass!

And I, a minstrel by the way,
Attune my heart to vagrant breeze,
The murmur of the waterfall,
The rustle of the autumn trees;
The brook that purrs a silver note
By like her voice in merry mood,
In striking keys that all the world
May sing a carol, liquid brewed!

And as the song bursts forth in joy,
The plover adds his piping note;
A meadowlark, upon a reed,
Is floating music from his throat.
Ah, as the breeze dies away,
There billows in, the blackbird's lute—
An interlude of ecstasy
To charm the mountain, gray and mute!

And when the echo blends with mist
And dies within the western sky,
From off the ribboned-river's breast,
Is heard the fisher's raucous cry—
The note of discord, tocan hurled,
That wakes the world to thoughts of day.

To strategies in the mowing mart,
To vultures and their bleeding prey!

And as the sun mounts up the east,
The dew distills its glowing gems,
The dust of travel clouds the gold
And grimes the daisies' diadems!
The whistle blows to call the slaves
Who never know the peace and good
Of burning frankincense and myrrh
Within the temples of the wood!

Ah, now the morning blushes out
And Sol, the money king, is here
To wave his blasting wand of greed
Above the sordid and the sere!

An Easter Wedding.

Sunday afternoon at 3:15, at the Methodist parsonage, in Union City, Miss Mary Sue Waters became the wife of J. Edgar Naylor, Rev. W. C. Sellars officiating.

The wedding came as a great surprise to the friends of both the contracting parties. No one suspected their intentions when they boarded the train Sunday afternoon, accompanied by C. L. Adams and wife, until a telephone message brought the news.

The bride and groom are both popular young people of this city. Miss Naylor is the charming daughter of Rev. J. W. Waters, pastor of the First Methodist church, and is a social favorite. Mr. Naylor is a son of the late Eugene Naylor—one of the oldest and best families in the county—and a successful business man of this city. He is the junior member of the firm of Millet & Naylor, also proprietor of J. E. Naylor & Co.'s book and novelty store.

The happy pair returned to Hickman on the 8:30 train Sunday evening, and are now at home in Hickman, where they are receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50 cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour rising, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

Canning Factory Fails.

The Huntingdon canning factory is advertised to be sold. It seems that the Bank of Huntingdon holds a mortgage against the property and the sale will be a foreclosure of that mortgage. The sale will be on Saturday, April 17.

Carl Smith and wife spent Sunday with relatives in Fulton.

Buchanan's Neice, Actress.

H. Buchanan and wife returned from Cincinnati, Saturday, where they have been visiting the former's neice Fannie Ward, one of the foremost actresses of today. Speaking of her Cincinnati engagements, the Post of that city say: "In the southwestern part of Kentucky, on the banks of the Mississippi lies the little town of Hickman. It is not a big place now, and was considerably smaller two decades ago, but it then contained a little inhabitant who would eventually become a favorite of the metropolis of the world. Within 10 years after Fannie Buchanan had left the Kentucky town she was playing under the stage name of Fannie Ward before the present king of England. Miss Ward is appearing this week in the new comedy 'The New Lady Bantock.' The proximity of Cincinnati to her 'Old Kentucky Home' has given an opportunity to repay in a small part the kindness of her uncle and aunt, at whose house in Hickman she spent the early years of her life. They arrived in Cincinnati Monday morning and joined their neice whom they had not seen since she was 15 years old. Monday evening they occupied a box and viewed the performance of their neice. (Mr. Buchanan informs us that his neice was not reared in Hickman but in St. Louis. She is married and her home is in England. She receives a salary of $1,000 a month and expenses.)

Mail Order Houses Busy.

Just about now the mail order houses of our large cities, with an eye for the spring trade of the smaller cities or towns and of the farmer, are sending out bulky and illusive catalogues by the thousand. Experience proves that, taking all things into account, to buy of such houses costs more and brings less satisfaction than to buy of the home merchants. Money sent out of Hickman to these houses for what can be bought equally as well at home is just so much check to the growth and prosperity of the home town, and of the farmers and others who find in town a ready market for their eggs, butter and other produce.

Burned To Death.

Mrs. Sallie Hall, aged 80, died Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, at Union City, as the result of burns received Saturday. Mrs. Milliken, her daughter, was in the yard, and attracted by screams, ran into the house and found Mrs. Hall with her clothing on fire and her limbs burned almost to a crisp.

Each Took A Piece.

The dispute over the remains of two men who died in the powder mill explosion at Wallace, Idaho, last week has been settled by placing portions of the remains in two caskets. Each widow takes one. Mrs. Pineo sent her casket to Seattle for burial and Mrs. Skalberg sent one to Los Angeles.

Miss Lockie Bell left Thursday for Fulton after a two weeks' pleasant visit to Mrs. Edgar Naylor. After a few days' visit in Fulton, she will return to her home in Houston, Texas.

Smallpox in Bottom.

Dr. C. W. Carlin informs us that there are about 30 cases of smallpox in the bottom, six miles below Hickman.

Most of the patients are negroes, and the disease is of the mild variety, no deaths having occurred from it up to this date.

The cases have been rigidly quarantined, and all necessary steps taken to prevent its spreading.

If you have never been vaccinated, take the physician's advice, and do so at once.—"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

$25,000 Fire at Mayfield.

Sunday morning about 4 o'clock four large tobacco warehouses were destroyed by fire at Mayfield. The houses were owned by Lewis & Gordon, Sherrill & Burnett, and the American Snuff Company. The origin of the fire was incendiary. These firms are independent, and have been buying a great deal of loose tobacco. The loss will reach about $25,000. There was about 300,000 pounds of tobacco lost. The fire was not discovered until under full head-way. Night riders are suspected.

Cypress Shingles $1 a thousand. —Yates & Kirk Shingle Co.

The age of the chestnut never makes any difference in the laugh of a man who has come to ask a favor of the story teller.

The man who can make good excuses can hold a job temporarily, but it takes a man who can deliver the goods to become a fixture.

Unsettled Weather.

The editor of a country paper received the following query: "Can you tell me what the weather will be next month?" In reply he wrote: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription." The inquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the word "unsettled." He went in the next day and squared his account.
