BORDER COUNTY NOTES

MISSISSIPPI COUNTY, MO.
(Charleston Enterprise-Courier)

The business interests of Charleston showed their appreciation for the splendid work of the Charleston High School football team with a banquet at the Russell hotel Tuesday night.

Denial of assertions made in an article published in the St. Louis Star Friday, in which it was said that the partners of Mississippi county were let out to the lowest bidders, was made by Judge John L. Vaughn, presiding justice, yesterday.

A change in railroad service at Bird's Point, whereby joint transfer facilities heretofore maintained by the Missouri Pacific and Cotton Belt will be abandoned, was announced yesterday, to become effective January 1. After that date passengers and express between Bird's Point and Cairo on the Cotton Belt will be handled by the steamer Three States, while the present transfer service, owned by the Missouri Pacific, will be used by them exclusively.

J. P. Morgan, formerly principal of the Bertrand public school, and Mrs. Emma Barnett, his sister, plead guilty to a charge of abortion before Almon Ing, special judge, at Jackson, Monday. The case, which originated in the Mississippi Circuit Court, went to Cape Girardeau on a change of venue. On recommendation of J. C. McDowell, prosecuting attorney, Morgan was fined $250 and his sister $100.

C. H. Stauffil, chairman of the Democratic city committee, has been appointed councilman from the Fourth ward by Mayor C. L. Joslyn, to fill a vacancy created some weeks ago by the resignation of E. C. Eldracker.

LAKE COUNTY, TENN.
(Lake County Gazette)

Last Thursday night thieves entered Naifeh Bros' store and stole about $300 worth of merchandise. Entrance was gained through a back window. No clue to the robbers has been found.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Campbell spent last Thursday and Friday in Hickman with friends.

On November 26 Rev. M. V. Wood of Ridgely united in marriage Miss Delle Daniels of this city and Mr. Robert Grooms of Wynnburg. The bride is a teacher of the Kentucky Bend school and the groom is a farmer.

A wedding that came as a surprise to their many friends was that of Miss Linnie Osborne to Mr. Charlie Shaw, which occurred Sunday at 12:30 o'clock at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. H. W.

HICKMAN COUNTY, KY.
(Hickman County Gazette)

Mr. Robert Jewell and Miss Nell Moss were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moss, the Rev. G. W. Evans officiating.

A contract was signed this week by Clinton Light & Power Co. with the Fulton power plant which will give Clinton an all day and all night current at a reasonable cost.

Last week Superintendent Scholes of the Hickman county schools received information that a still was being operated on his farm on Bayou de Chien, near Mobley's camp ground, and he immediately secured a search warrant and in company with John Raby, deputy sheriff, started in quest of the aforesaid mule factory and with complete success. The still, of about 25-gallon capacity, was found in a closet in the residence on the farm and two barrels of mash in process of fermentation were located in the barn. Joe Batts, who lived on the farm, was arrested, as was McKeel Gotham, a farm hand, who Batts declared was the owner and operator of the outfit. Both executed bonds for trial in the county court.

OBION COUNTY, TENN.
(Union City Commercial)

Dr. Harrison H. Shoulders of Nashville was married Tuesday evening to Miss Virginia Swiggert of Union City. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist church by Rev. J. M. Pickens. Dr. Shoulders is a practicing physician of Nashville and the bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Swiggert.

Mr. Aubrey Davidson and Miss Mary Lou Bruce were united in marriage at the Baptist church parsonage on College street by the pastor, Rev. D. F. Martin, Thursday evening, the 30th ult. The bride is a native of Obion county, north of Union City, and the groom is a resident of Fulton.

Sid Caldwell, the Main street barber, had the youngest customer in his shop last week probably ever making his appearance in a barber chair in Union City. The young man was just 4 weeks of age. Getting dolled up, one would say.

Marriage licenses: Moore Joyner and Alline Noah, Owen Nevil and Berta Glasgow, Walker Madding and Esther White, Virgil Kagle and Carrie De Hart, Hub Cole and Thelma Carter, Harrison H. Shoulders and Virginia Swiggert.

Miss Ocie Posey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Posey, died after an illness of several weeks of brain fever, at the home of her parents on Saturday night.

W. H. Harris of the Central Broom Co. of this city informs us that last week he paid $300 per ton for home grown broomcorn. George Brasfield of Hickman sold Mr. Harris two tons of corn for $600 cash. Now, Mr. Farmer, do you think it will pay you to raise broomcorn?

NOTICE.
Mrs. Skinner has turned over her agency for flowers to me and I will appreciate any orders.
Mrs. John Choate.

When in need of flowers for any occasion, call 147, Mrs. John Choate.
