

DEER LODGE NEWS CITY OF TENTS

It Was Thronged With Visitors Sunday.

OFFICERS ARE IN SEARCH

Of a Man Near Avon Who is Believed to Be Insane--Guests of the City--Cattle Brands.

Deer Lodge, July 31, 1899.

The city of tents on Cottonwood, which has been christened "Camp Nat," was thronged with visitors Sunday. It was a merry party, and the ladies of the camp insisted on keeping some of their gentlemen guests cool by poking ice down their backs just as they were about to enjoy a little afternoon sleep. Others fared worse under the many tricks played by the ladies--at any rate here is a list of those who took dinner at the camp, and many remained over night, returning to town early this morning: Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smurr and children; Mrs. M. J. Beaumont and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trask and family; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conley; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McTague; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Corbett, Butte; Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Bielenberg; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Aylesworth and Miss Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shoubert and their little niece; Mr. Mel Lowry and family; Mrs. Mrs. Reitz, H. H. Zonor, Masters Gilbert Barrette and Paul Coleman.

Larry J. Daly, at Mrs. Zack Lightfoot's; Mr. Douthy and Mrs. Coppenhaver and families at Mrs. M. McMullan's; Mr. and Mrs. Burke and Charley Andrews, at the McBurney house; children of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davenport; at Mr. and Mrs. Kantner's; children of Mr. and Mrs. A. Golin, at Mr. and Mrs. Monard's; Mrs. Hammer, at H. S. Reed's; Mrs. A. S. Christy, in Catlin cottage; Mrs. C. P. Drennen, at the Catlin house. The above is only a partial list and each Sunday brings their kindred and friends to visit here, which makes up quite a Butte delegation. We are glad to have them among us and will try to make their stay as pleasant as possible.

Deputy Sheriff Robinson spent Saturday at Elliston inspecting and taking a record of brands on a shipment of about 50 head of horses, which were purchased in that vicinity by a buyer named E. F. Campbell, who was taking them to St. Paul to market. The new law makes it one of the duties of the sheriff in this state to inspect and record brands on all horses leaving the state, and Mr. Robinson's visit was for that purpose. Mr. Campbell was arrested and fined for violating this law about two months ago in Glenville, so your correspondent has been told.

Among the Butte people who are comfortably located here for the present are: Mrs. Russell Mason, at the Peck residence; Mrs. Charles Passmore, at the Marcum residence; Mrs. Mel Lowry and family, at the Evans home; Mr. and Mrs. A. Pincus, at the Joyce home; Mrs. C. M. Lawson and family and Mrs. Frank Miles and son at the Norton home on the West Side; Mrs. A. B. Clements, mother and two sisters, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baird at Mrs. Kelly's residence; family of Judge Laurandean at the Mertz place, and Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Rickert at Will Reed's.

At a meeting of the Elms' club, held in the hotel club room yesterday incident to the fierce electrical storm which was on, lightning was the subject of discussion, and as usual Bob Harris was declared the most gigantic and romantic liar in Montana. Judge Roberts of Walkerville took an easy second, much to the pleasure of the committee, as they thought the laurels ought to go to him.

"Oh Promise Me!" At some time in her life every woman has chosen her for his life companion. If she is suffering from a torturing, dragging weakness or disease so prevalent with her sex, she has no right to answer "Yes" until her health is restored. If she does, she will be wretched and ill herself and her home will be an unhappy one. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific remedy that cures all weakness, disease, disorder and derangement of the delicate and important feminine organs. It is not a "cure-all," but a medicine devised to correct this one class of disorders and no other. It has accomplished its purpose in tens of thousands of cases, as is shown by tens of thousands of testimonials of the grateful patients themselves. It imparts vigor and vitality to the entire womanly organism, and is the best of all nerve tonics and restoratives. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It transforms weak, nervous, dependent invalids into healthy, happy women.

"I was so weak I could scarcely walk about the house," writes Mrs. Mattie Scruggs, of Allen's Creek, Amherst Co., Va. "I was reduced to a mere skeleton. I was never free from pain in the back and head and could not sleep at night. I bought three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of Pleasant Pellets. After taking these six weeks I felt like a new person; I slept well and gained in flesh. I am doing all my own housework and we have nine in the family." A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them. No other pills are "just as good."

Just the same, the judge is well posted on lightning.

N. J. Bielenberg is among the Deer Lodgers that are looking after interests in Butte today.

Mrs. Mamie B. Mills, for several years a teacher in our public schools, and who was chosen to teach during the coming term, has tendered her resignation to the board of trustees and will leave with her family for Bozeman to reside. Mrs. Mills is an excellent teacher, and her departure from this place causes general regret. The lady will probably conduct a private boarding house in Bozeman, and her two eldest children will enter the college there.

The officers over in Avon are out in the mountains in the vicinity of Blackfoot City looking for a prospector named Charley Thomas, who is supposed by his actions to be crazy. The unfortunate man has been a resident of historic Blackfoot City for about eight years, and is said to be, or have been, a good citizen. The officers think that his capture will be easily made, though many others think differently.

Hon. L. C. Parker and George Steinberg have purchased a gold prospect on Gospel mountain, Champion district, and are now working it with a small force. Colonel Parker says the property is located in the Gold belt and that its showing is worth looking up. Charley Parker left for the property on horseback yesterday and will remain there for several weeks, assisting in development work.

Manager Wood of the Hennessy establishment in Butte, is negotiating with parties here relative to sending his family of six people here to sojourn for a month or six weeks. It is probable that they will find accommodations in the home of Mrs. McLain, and a pleasant place it is.

J. J. O'Leary, Anaconda; C. B. McCall, Minneapolis; Roy Jones, Butte; J. B. Mayo, Chicago; Charles Blum, Duluth; J. A. Armstrong, Garrison; W. G. Williams, Butte; Charles Suiter, Butte, are at the McBurney house.

The heavy wind of last evening blew down one of the handsome large shade trees at the Mitchell residence, now owned by J. C. Shoubert, and its disappearance and shade is greatly missed.

Messrs. Russell Mason and Charles Passmore of Butte were enjoying yesterday in town with their respective families, who are seeing the beauties of this place for several weeks.

George Brander and Allen Kimmerly, prominent residents of Avon, are in Deer Lodge today making purchases.

A. Pincus of Butte spent Sunday in Deer Lodge enjoying the day at his country home.

FAKE CURIOS.

A well-known curio expert states that there are factories in Europe for the manufacture of all kinds of works of art that are likely to attract the collector. Modern articles of china are stamped in with old marks so cleverly that even experts have been deceived. Arms and armor are treated with acids which eat away the metal, thus producing the same effects as the ravages of time. Carved ivories are stained with oils to make them yellow, and are subjected to heat to make them crack. Pieces of furniture have holes drilled to represent the worm holes, and so on, until in time there will be very little in the way of curios which are in themselves really curious. Paris is one of the strongholds of this class of forgers, while in Hungary there is a factory where Dresden china is imitated in a fair manner. There is, however, one safe way, and that is to buy through reputable dealers. Forgeries in all works of art very rarely get into the dealer's hands. As a rule they are sent to auction houses.

Many amateurs have an idea that they may pick up a priceless work of art or a curio for a mere song. That is the chance for the forgers. They know all this and work accordingly, and thus the amateur is deceived. The spurious curio makers have out-of-the-way auction rooms, where amateurs look on with the idea that nobody but themselves know of the rooms in question. The sale takes place and they come away with a gem, so they think, and are perfectly happy until undeceived. There has, curiously enough, in this connection, lately been discovered a disease which eats away bronze and leaves a sign of antiquity. All objects of antiquity fabricated from metallic copper and its important alloy, made by adding tin in certain proportions, are liable to be attacked by this destructive corroding affection. Skilled artists of these forged antiquities are known to inoculate their productions with spots of bronze disease.

TRAVELED ON LIVE FISH.

To ride a distance of 50 yards with millions of live fish for a roadway is an experience decidedly unique, not only for the man who does the riding, but for the animal that carries him. This singular incident recently occurred in the vicinity of Clear Lake, a well known young resident of Lake county traveling over the largest area of stranded fish that were left behind in a dry river bed. Lynn Fraser is the man who made this journey with fins instead of terra firma beneath him, and Jake, his pet donkey, is the animal who ferried him across the way.

It was from necessity, not choice, that Mr. Fraser urged the donkey into a kneedeep mass of piscatorial beauties. He is captain of the City of Lakeport, a trim little launch that steams its way twice daily between Lakeport and Bartlett landing, transporting passengers to and from stages that connect with Hopland and Bartlett Springs. His home is in Big Valley, in a region bearing the sulphurous and inappropriate name of Hell's Bend.

Returning from a hunting trip, Captain Fraser followed a route usually frequented by him, which would take him across Kelsey creek. This creek empties into Clear Lake, near the base of Uncle Sam mountain. Arriving at the creek he found that its waters had unexpectedly receded, leaving a vast mass of fish, that had come up from the lake to spawn, lying on the pebbled bottom of the water. There were trout, carp, bass, pike, perch and blackfish, but the majority of the fish were of the variety known as "hitch," a favorite food of the Indians thereabouts, who trade them at the reservations for beads and calico. They resemble trout and measure 12 to 14 inches in length.

Now, there is no law for the prevention of cruelty to fish. Neither was there any road within three miles by which Captain Fraser could reach his destination, even if he had had the time to take a roundabout course.

But Jake did not fancy the prospect. He balked and snorted, put his ears back and then forward, and evidenced his displeasure in every way known to the donkey kind. So his rider dug down into the animal's flanks, and Jake zigzagged his difficult way through the vast school of fish to the other side.

This is the only instance recorded of a man traveling on live fish.

THE POSITIONS REVERSED.

Detroit Free Press: "I'll never forget it," began the old resident, who had just returned from attendance upon the graduating exercises of his grandson. "You folks here in Detroit, a-fighlin' over your schools, don't know nuthin' about what trouble we used to have in gettin' a little learnin' in them early days way out west. A few winters in a deestrick school was the best we could expect, and it was from one of them schools I graduated. I mean 'graduated' just as I speak it; fer there was a young feller kim out from the east that winter and he stirred us up proper. He was right up ter date, uster read and talk on everything there was in the text books, and 'ranged it so that the scholars that could pass a certain examination at the end of the wipiter was to have diplomas."

"The thing worked so well that school was run right along till June. There was four girls passed and me and the son of the richest man in the county. My folks was poorer than Job's turkey, and when it kim to the commencement I felt cheep-er'n a brass watch, fer the other chap got about half a greenhouse in flowers, a diamond stud and a lot of books with fancy bindin'. I got a necktie my mother made herself, and a big bunch of Johnny jump up from the girl that's now my wife."

"I made my fortune in Californy keepin' 'n store in the flush times beginnin' with '39, and kim here ter Detroit to enjoy it." "And the other man of your class?" "He clerked for me in Californy, and now I call him my private secretary, so he won't think he's livin' on charity."

YELLOWSTONE PARK EXCURSIONS.

If you are contemplating a trip to the Yellowstone park, come and see me for tickets and other information. I represent Thresher's excursions and Lyeon, the veteran camping man of Bozeman, a diamond stud and a lot of books with fancy bindin'. I got a necktie my mother made herself, and a big bunch of Johnny jump up from the girl that's now my wife.
