TRYING TO GET INTO PEN

Topeka, Kan.—H. C. Horner of Wiburton, Kan., wants to go to the penitentiary. But he doesn't want to commit a crime in order to get there. In a letter to Governor Capper recently he says:

"I voted for you both times. I am going to ask you a favor which will surprise you. I assure you that I desire it with all my heart. If there is any possible way by which I may be admitted to the penitentiary without committing a crime for the purpose, I implore you from the very depth of my heart to admit me. Pardon some one if necessary and let me work out his sentence. There is no secret about this. It may be published to the world. I want to go. Please grant me this favor if you possibly can. I will try to be a model prisoner. And you will win my heartfelt gratitude."

Horner doesn't tell why he is making such an unusual request.
