

Forced to Quit! Oscar Silver's Men's Store Throws Up Its Hands SILVER IS QUITTING BUSINESS

SALE TAKES PLACE AT 213 N. Main St.
NEXT DOOR TO CONNELL'S

Stock Turned Over to Geo. Munro, the Salvage Broker
WITH POSITIVE ORDERS TO CLOSE OUT DOWN TO THE LAST DOLLAR'S WORTH
Silver Gives Up, Steps Down and Out, Stock, Fixtures and All to Go

SALE TAKES PLACE AT
213 N. Main St.
NEXT DOOR TO CONNELL'S

Turning the stock into money—thirty days to make a clean sweep of everything—as SILVER'S lease expires March 15, and he MUST GET OUT, as the building is to be torn down. A crisis confronts me—the new location I expected to occupy is not ready and I can't do business without a store. So I am forced to quit—close out—let the loss be what it will—a clean sweep demanded by SILVER and guaranteed by MUNRO. But only after the store consented to a veritable holocaust of prices and losses. It's the end—the finish—the windup of OSCAR SILVER'S store. Not a single thing to be reserved.

$25,000 STOCK

Men's Clothing, Hats, Shoes
Gloves and Furnishings
UNDER THE HAMMER

And Ordered Sold 55c On the Dollar

65c and 75c on the dollar; at any price to sell it!

The Store Has Been Closed Ever Since Last Saturday—
Cutting and Slashing Prices.

Rearranging and preparing the stock for quick selling and making arrangements for this great price-wrecking event. A strictly high-class stock of good goods and all going at prices that beggars description and stagger belief. It's a sale in which every article in the store has been reduced. There's big savings on everything—for the entire stock is marked to make this sale a quick, short one, and stop the selling expense.

GEORGE MUNRO—Salvage Broker
Selling Out Oscar Silver's Stock

Munro Starts the Finish

Of Silver's Store with the greatest knock down of prices that ever astounded the men of Butte—It's simply a case of MUST SELL—As for no other reason would Mr. Silver consent to such a wholesale slaughter of prices and values.
