Money-Saving Device Not Yet Patented

There's no patent way of saving money. It can only be done by spending less than earned. Buy where your dollars buy most. Adopt cash dealing. Apply thrift. Once you get the saving habit you'll keep it up—that's all. It's not always hard work that gets you ahead—it's how hard you save.

ANOTHER RECORD POSTAL BANK DAY

Saturday's Deposits Totalled $21,383—Postoffice Open Today.

With a net gain in deposits of $21,383 for the day, Saturday's business at the local postal savings bank was the biggest in the history of the office. Today's deposits bid fair to press those of Saturday closely, although the fact that it is a holiday may have a tendency to retard deposits somewhat. At the close of business Saturday night, there was a total on deposit of approximately $1,261,000 in the local office. At the present rate of gain, February is likely to prove the banner month in the matter of postal deposits in Butte. Heavy withdrawals the early part of the month have tended to cut the gain down, but with three more days of wage payments by the mining companies there is reason to believe that the February gain will exceed that of any other month.

All departments of the Butte post office were open today and there was no cessation of work incident to the holiday. A carload of catalogues, numbering nearly 12,000, from an eastern mail order house has been distributed through the Butte office during the past two days. Another carload, numbering as many more, catalogues, is expected from this firm within the next few days. Word has been received that a New York mail order house will ship about 60,000 catalogues to Butte for distribution through the local office some time next month. These will all have to be sorted, since they are destined for points throughout Montana and a part of Idaho. This work consumed several weeks last fall when a similar shipment was received from this firm.

PROMINENT MEN SPEAK AT LINCOLN MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY CELEBRATION

This is the statue to Abraham Lincoln, erected in the courthouse square at Hodgenville, Ky., where a great Lincoln memorial has been erected.

Cumberland Gap, Tenn., Feb. 12.—S. S. McClure, New York publisher, speaking today at the closing of the Lincoln birthday anniversary celebration at Lincoln Memorial university, declared that the outcome of the European war depended upon the success of Germany's new submarine campaign and on the course of Russia.

"If the U-boat is a success Germany would win the war," he declared, "but Germany is beginning to doubt the practicability of the undersea craft. Another possibility is that Russia will make a separate peace. In case the U-boat is a failure and Russia adheres to the allies, Germany is lost."

Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, who spoke during the ceremonies, discussed Lincoln in a new light. Mr. Shaw, explaining that every man who attempts some revolutionary policy claims some similarity between himself and Lincoln, devoted his address to pointing out "what Lincoln did not believe, touch or do."

"He was not an abolitionist," said Mr. Shaw. "He never belonged to or affiliated with the abolition party. The platform on which Mr. Lincoln was elected was not an abolition platform. Mr. Lincoln set his face strongly against the spread of slavery and his party promised that all free soil should remain free. Thus far, but no farther," was his position.

The Emancipation.

"It is undoubtedly true that Mr. Lincoln hoped for and expected ultimate abolition of slavery; for he expressed the opinion that the nation could not continue part slave and part free. But, if he ever so much as in-contemplate an appeal to the president on the subject of our internal affairs, whether it seems to imply a purpose to dictate, or to mediate or to advise, or even to solicit or persuade, you will answer that you are forbidden to debate, to hear, or in any way to receive, entertain, or transmit any communication of the kind."

"It requires somewhat more than a deep interest in a man as man, somewhat more than an abiding love of country, somewhat more than settled convictions, to establish a similitude with Abraham Lincoln."

CAPITAL OBSERVES THE LINCOLN ANNIVERSARY

Washington, Feb. 12.—The capital today joined in the nation-wide celebration of Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary. Appropriate exercises were held in congress, the public schools and at patriotic gatherings.

A feature of the celebration was that arranged for tonight by various patriotic societies at which former Speaker Cannon is to speak on "Reminiscences of Lincoln." He is said to be the only man now in congress who had an intimate acquaintance with Lincoln.

IN KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 12.—Kentucky, for the first time in its history, will legally celebrate the birthday of Abraham Lincoln today.

AT SPRINGFIELD.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 12.—The anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln was celebrated in his former home here today.
