PARK FACILITIES GROW 25 PER CENT

Shriners From Imperial Session to Visit Glacier Next June.

The completion of new chalets and additions to hotels will mean a 25 per cent increase in accommodation facilities for tourists to Glacier National park, which opens this season, as usual, on June 15, according to J. T. McGaughey, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the Great Northern, who spent the day in Butte on business from his headquarters in Helena.

"We have bookings for the park this year," said Mr. McGaughey, "which indicate that the travel will far exceed that of former years. One of the largest parties already arranged for is that of eastern Shriners. The Imperial session of the Shriners will be held on June 24 and succeeding days in Minneapolis. The Shriners of the east and far east as well as the south will buy their tickets direct to Glacier National park, stopping off at Minneapolis on their way for the Imperial session. Doubtless they will be joined in the park by many of the Montana Shriners so that the park will experience this year what might be called Shriners week in the park."

40 TO 80 YEARS IN PRISON FOR LITTLE

pled that he had nothing to say. The judge then imposed the sentence.

For a New Trial.
As soon as the sentence was imposed and before the prisoner was moved from the court room, Attorney Sullivan filed a motion of intention to move for a new trial and asked and received 90 days in which to prepare and serve a bill of exceptions. Among the grounds on which a new trial is asked are "that the jury received evidence out of court; that the court misdirected the jury in matters of law and has erred in the decision of questions of law arising during the trial; that the verdict is contrary to the law and the evidence; that new evidence has been discovered material to the defendant."

The Crime.
The crime for which Little was sentenced this morning was committed near the corner of Front street and Utah avenue on the night of July 20 about 9:30 o'clock. He was a constable at the time for South Butte township and had been given papers in an attachment suit out of Justice R. J. Dwyer's court to serve on a Greek popcorn peddler who had a wagon in the locality. Little and the Greek had a quarrel and the constable pulled his gun and struck the Greek over the head. The latter made an outcry and Police Officer Batt McCarthy, who was standing in uniform at the corner of Front street and Utah avenue, responded to the call. The police officer rushed to the assistance of the man who cried for help and, seeing a gun in Little's hand, he asked him for it and afterwards reached with his left hand for the weapon. At this Little, according to the prosecution, stepped back about two steps and fired, the bullet entering McCarthy's body. He died from the wound 36 hours later. There was some evidence introduced at the trial in behalf of the defense that Little told the officer that he was a constable serving an attachment and displayed his star and also the papers.

Little was taken to the state prison this afternoon to begin his sentence.

Shot Another Policeman.
Little shot and severely wounded Alf Henderson, a policeman, last spring, prior to the fatal affair with Batt McCarthy. Little was waiting on the corner of Park and Main streets to serve a paper on a man who was wanted in the justice court. Little was told by Henderson to move from the corner and not to block traffic. Little refused several times and finally Henderson put the small man under his arm and carried him across the street and to jail. Henderson went off shift and went to his home. He left his home an hour later and while he was walking east on West Park street, in front of the Nelson hotel, Little, with a friend, was standing on the corner awaiting him. As Henderson passed, Little opened fire, shooting Henderson four times, the bullets lodging in both arms and both legs. Henderson was in the hospital for weeks but recovered.

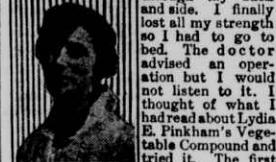

Known as Gunman.
Police who visited Little's cabin in South Butte recently discovered that the ceiling had been shot full of holes. They said that every tack, knothole and other available target had been peppered by Little who evidently took his revolver practice while he was lying in bed. Little came to Butte several years ago from Texas, where he said he was a Texas ranger. He was alleged to have been in several shooting scrapes there and also in the Powder river country, where he worked on cattle ranches before his arrival in Butte. He was married when he came to Butte, but was since divorced by his wife.

Quick With the Draw.
Little became known as a crack gunman soon after taking office as constable in South Butte. He spent much of his spare time when the court was not in session practicing with his six-shooter. One afternoon while Dan Schroeder was using the phone in the office, Little drew a circle about two

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. ERTA DORTON, Ogdensburg, Wis. Physicians undoubtedly would have battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

inches in diameter on the wall. He then stepped back to the door, a distance of about 20 feet, and fired three shots, each landing within the circle and one of them exactly in the center. The bullets passed within about eight inches of Schroeder's head. It was Little's boast that he could pull a gun quicker than any other man in the state and for nearly a year it was his custom on Sunday mornings to go to a range west of Butte and for a couple of hours indulge in target practice.

IRISH DEMANDS ARE AGAIN BROUGHT UP

England is Asked to Carry Out the Principles for Which She is at War.

London, March 7.—(Bulletin.)—Premier Lloyd George said the government was preparing to confer self-government on parts of Ireland clearly demanding it.

London, March 7.—On behalf of the Irish nationalists, T. P. O'Connor, moved in the house of commons a resolution today that the free institutions long promised to Ireland should be conferred on her without further delay. Mr. O'Connor said it was an invitation to the whole house to join in a united and genuine effort to settle the Irish question. It indicated no change in the attitude of the nationalists towards the war policy, in regard to whether there was no opposition in Ireland.

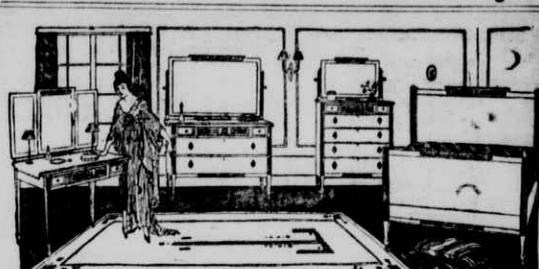

The only criticism of John Redmond, Mr. O'Connor continued, was that he, as well as other leaders of the nationalists, had paid the price of liberty without getting it. The nationalists recognized the difficulty of putting the home rule act into operation during the war. The remarkable thing was that the Irish people accepted the delay.

They trusted to the honor of England, he said, and no one could imagine that the country which was fighting for the principle of small nationalities would be so inconsistent and unjust as to deny that right to Ireland.

row in 1906, developed a speed of 21 1/2 knots on her trial. Her complement is 998 men.

ADMIRAL IN CHARGE OF THE ARMING OF ALL ITALIAN MERCHANTMEN

Rome, March 7 (via Paris).—A decree has been promulgated reorganizing the system for the defense of ships against submarine attack and placing it in charge of an admiral. The new official will, among other duties, undertake the arming of merchant ships and award money prizes to those which sink or disable hostile submarines.

Bedroom Furniture

Matched sets in bedroom furniture are quite the favorite at this time, and to have a bedroom daintily furnished with bed, dresser, chiffonier and the other wanted pieces, in wood to match, is indeed a source of pride and satisfaction to the homemaker.

Now, when the thoughts turn to new home furnishing, just before spring renovating, we call your attention to our very recently received stock of up-to-date bedroom sets.

Circassian walnut, birdseye maple, oak in its many finishes, mahogany and American walnut, in beautiful models, tastefully carved or plain, as the case may be.

American walnut is again in favor, and here you will find full bedroom sets, or odd pieces, in styles that reflect the quaint ideas of long ago along requirements of modern taste.

Odd pieces, such as dressers, dressing tables and chiffoniers in all the above-mentioned woods, are also here in a profusion of different styles.

If you do not live in Butte, write to us for photographs. We will gladly send them to you, together with such other information as you may request. We pay the freight charges on all goods ordered from us.

Our easy terms of payment are a privilege open to all. Come in and ask our clerks or bookkeepers the conditions governing our credit terms. You will find that it is very easy to have your home furnished in a beautiful manner.

ment will be made in the alteration departments to comply with the new law. Other departments in this store are not affected, as eight hours is the rule.
Manager Dan Coleman of Connell's has not as yet decided on just what method will be pursued in meeting requirements of the law.
There will be no changes at the local hospitals where 10 nurses are in training. They work 12-hour shifts with reliefs of two hours. Telephone operators now work eight-hour shifts with 30 minutes relief during the shift.
