

SELECTING JURY IN MURDER TRIAL

Case of W. O'Malley, Charged With Killing J. McNamee, in Court.

In the presence of a crowd of spectators which occupied every bit of space allotted to the public, the task of selecting a jury to hear the case of William O'Malley, charged with the murder of John McNamee on the morning of Oct. 23 of last year in the vicinity of Smith's roadhouse, was commenced before Judge Dwyer this morning. The defendant is represented by Attorneys E. M. Lamb and William Meyer, while the state is represented by County Attorney Joseph R. Jackson, Chief Deputy N. A. Roterberg and Deputy E. Pat Kelly. Every man called to the jury box is being examined at length as to his knowledge of the crime, his belief in capital punishment and as to opinions he may have formed by hearing the matter discussed or reading the newspapers. At an early hour this afternoon it did not seem possible that a jury would be secured today.

John McNamee was an alderman of Walkerville and a shiftless at the Badger State mine. McNamee and some friends were out on the flat for an automobile ride, as was O'Malley, who, with a party of friends and relatives, took a ride after attending a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McTaggart. The two crowds met at Smith's place. As they were about to start to the city it is alleged that one of the McNamee party saw a man take an automobile robe from the McNamee car. The latter went to take the robe away from the man and about the same time a fight started between some of the men in the McNamee party and those in the O'Malley party. During the fight it is alleged that O'Malley, picking up something, claimed by some of those present to be the cranking iron, struck McNamee on the head. McNamee fell to the ground. After receiving treatment at the roadhouse, McNamee was brought to the city and placed in St. James' hospital, where he died from the injury received.

If your skin itches and burns, just use Resinol

If you are suffering from eczema, ringworm or similar itching, burning, unsightly skin affection, bathe the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, then gently apply a little Resinol Ointment. You will probably be astonished how instantly the itching stops and healing begins. In most cases the sick skin quickly becomes clear and healthy again, at very little cost.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap also clear away pimples, redness, roughness and dandruff. Sold by all druggists.

M'LAIN CASE GOES TO THE COUNTY

Well-Known Character Assails Chinaman—Was "Muckie" McDonald's Bodyguard.

Judge P. J. Whitty this morning transferred the case against Alex McLain to the county attorney's office. McLain was arrested last night for an alleged attempt to clean out Mal Wah's noodle parlors on West Mercury street. The alleged assault upon the Chinaman is believed to be more serious than at first reported and it is probable that McLain will be tried before a jury.

McLain is one of the best-known characters in Butte. He was arrested during the I. W. W. troubles here in 1914 while acting as Muckie McDonald's bodyguard. He testified against some defendants in the military court and gained his own freedom. That same night he was nearly killed when three men jumped him.

Later McLain was arrested for killing Clifford McGilvary with a blow from his fist. He was exonerated by a coroner's jury.

Several weeks ago McLain was reported as dead. But a few days after the report was circulated he showed up in a North Main street saloon and was arrested for fighting. At that time he was fined $5.

Will Burns and E. D. Perance were arrested last night with McLain for the disturbance in the noodle parlors.

Felix Maki, John Johnson and Matt Takola were each fined $10 for gambling.

John Morgan was fined $5 for disturbance.

Twenty-nine drunks were counted in police court this morning. Most of these were dismissed.

Notice, Knights of Columbus!

Members of Butte council and visitors are requested to meet at 940 S. Wyoming street on Tuesday, March 20, 1917, at 9 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late Brother Thomas A. Walsh.

MEADERVILLE NEWS

Mrs. Thomas Crawford of Dillon is in Meaderville visiting with her sister, Miss Lizzie Roman, and her mother and friends. She expects to remain here a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Favero have moved from North Main street to a new location on Leatherwood street in the McQueen addition.

Harry Gibson, former manager of the Meaderville Coal company, will leave Meaderville tonight for Minnesota, where he expects to complete a deal for the purchase of half a section of land. With his father, who is living in Minnesota, he will manage the farm.

Miss Bernice Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hayes, celebrated her tenth birthday Friday night with a party at her home, 125 Main street. The evening was spent in games and music, after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Hayes, assisted by Mrs. Joe Vetter, Mrs. Bert Brown and Mrs. Charles Redell.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Ferroni of Matte street are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Undergraff have returned to their home at Red Lodge, Mont., after visiting with their son on Lafayette street.

The Independent Sewing society was entertained last week by Mrs. T. J. Hoar of Cottonwood street.

Because most of the members of the Meaderville Gun club were engaged in the mines yesterday the scheduled blue rock match was postponed and there was no shooting at the range. A 100-bird sweepstakes match is now being planned for next Sunday, which is change day in the mines. It will probably be the largest shoot of the season. Members of the club have experienced difficulty in obtaining live pigeons, but it is believed that enough will be on hand Sunday to stage the match.
