GODFREY SLAIN IN SALOON ROW

James Shea Wields Knife on Man Who Thought He Was a Soldier.

Proprietor of the saloon, called for someone to telephone "205" for the patrol and yelled to the men in the saloon to hold Shea. He picked up the striken man.

The witnesses gave their stories to Deputy County Attorney Frank Riley. All were reluctant to talk. Shea made a statement, although warned by the attorney and his friends to keep still. He denied the affray and claimed someone in the crowd used the knife.

Shea's statement is as follows: "There were about ten to one against me. They all jumped on to me because they thought I was a soldier. They beat me, cut me and I'm lucky to be alive. Look at my coat where they cut me. I didn't even have a knife. Someone in the crowd cut him, I didn't. This man Godfrey came up to me and started the trouble. He thought I was a recruiting officer. Someone tell my wife that I'm in this predicament."

Testimony by witnesses proved that Shea was not cut. Stover, Sullivan and Blaylock all agreed that Shea's coat was torn when he tried to escape after the cutting. There was only one knife and that was the one used by Shea, the witnesses say.

Thought Shea a Soldier.

"I went into the saloon about 9 o'clock this morning," said Jack Stover, who lives at 223 South Main street. I am an ex-soldier and when I saw Shea come in with a uniform on I thought he was also a soldier. I went up and asked "What outfit do you belong to, old man?" He replied that he was independent of any outfit. This made me sore and I went to the other end of the bar and let him alone. Then Godfrey came in. I didn't hear much of the conversation. Godfrey did say, however, "I'm an ex-soldier myself and if you belong to any militia or anything you'll have to show me." That started the argument. The men called each other names and finally came to blows. I believe Godfrey struck first. A colored man separated them and for a time the trouble seemed to be over. Then Shea pulled out his knife and Godfrey saw him. Godfrey started towards Shea after he saw the knife and it appeared that he drew right into the blade. The first cut was in the neck. Then Shea cut again down his back. Then Godfrey yelled, "Somebody take me to the hospital!"

Tom White, the bartender on shift, heard Stover asking Shea what company he belonged to and heard the reply. Stover walked away and left Godfrey and Shea standing at the end of the bar. Then they began to battle. Ike Hayes separated them. They seemed to be peaceable until Shea pulled the knife. Then came the cutting.

Pulled Them Apart.

Ike Hayes of 216 1/2 South Montana street was at work in the front end of the saloon when he heard the noise. "I grabbed them and pulled them apart," said Hayes. "I told the boys to keep them apart because Shea had a knife. I then went back to work. When I turned around they were at it again. Shea's clothes were not cut. There were no ten men against him, only he and Godfrey. Godfrey had nothing at all in his hand and his coat was off. Shea had the knife out before Godfrey started to walk toward him."

Called Each Other Names.

"I was in the saloon and was attracted to the two men when I heard the noise," said Blaylock. "Godfrey seemed to me to be looking for trouble. I heard Godfrey tell Shea that he had been a soldier himself. Then the men started calling each other names. Godfrey pulled off his coat and started toward Shea. Hayes separated the two men and then Shea came with the knife. He first cut Godfrey in the neck and then plunged the knife in his back. Godfrey yelled, 'He's cutting me!' Both men were drunk. After the cutting Shea started out the back door. His coat wasn't cut but from when he tried to break away from us. Stover, Sullivan and myself held him until the police came."

"Big Mike" Sullivan said he didn't know much about the case, as he was in the restaurant next door when the trouble first started.

Picked Godfrey Up.

"I picked Godfrey up and yelled for some one to call 205 for the patrol," said Sullivan. "I then told the men inside to hold Shea until the police arrived. This is the first trouble I've had in my saloon and I've been in business for 18 years."

Officers Casey, Reagan, Prija and Walsh arrested Shea. He made no resistance when the officers arrived. Crowds filled the street in front of the saloon immediately after Godfrey was taken to the hospital. The man's jugular vein was pierced and nearly all of the blood in his body had escaped by the time he reached the hospital. He died as he was being lifted upon the table in the operating room. The sidewalk in front of the saloon was covered with blood. City Physician arrived one minute after the police patrol, but his services were not needed. Coroner Lane took possession of the body and ordered it removed to Sherman & Reed's.

The knife was found in Shea's possession before he was taken to his cell in the city jail. He denied that he owned the knife. Shea's little finger was cut, it is believed, by his own knife.

Godfrey had been in Butte but two months. He came here from Seattle. He was single and 28 years old. During the past several weeks he had been eating his meals at the Maryland cafe. At that place there was no one who knew of his relatives.

Shea Well Known.

Shea is well known in Butte, where he has resided for a number of years. He is married and has a family and has borne a good reputation hitherto in the city. His friends admit that he had been drinking heavily for several days. The uniform which was disbanded in Butte a few years ago. The uniform bears no special significance at the present time and the reason that he wore it was that he was drinking so heavily that he did not know what he was doing. His friends had endeavored to persuade him to leave home several times, but he appeared to have lost his reason temporarily and would not listen to anyone.

An Idaho Militiaman.

Godfrey served in the Second Idaho regiment from July 11, 1916, to Dec. 18, 1916, on the Mexican border. He was born in Necoosa, Mich. When he came to Butte first he secured employment in the Original mine. He quit his job on April 1 and, according to his friends, intended to enlist for service in the trenches. He roomed at 28 West Quartz street. The coroner is trying to locate relatives. An inquest will be held at a date to be decided later. Shea is a brother of Con Shea, a member of the Butte police force.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Swinburne left last night for Los Angeles, where they will make a short visit.

ARREST OF OFFICERS BY SOLDIERS A BAD PRACTICE

Russian General at the Front Says It Threatens Serious Trouble.

Petrograd, April 20 (via London).—General Gurko, commander on the western front, has issued a proclamation to the soldiers declaring that the arrest and dismissal of officers of various ranks by soldiers' councils is an undesirable practice and threatens serious trouble.

General Gurko declares that the right to appoint officers is accorded only to soldiers in Petrograd and Moscow, who are directly responsible for the revolution, and that even the council of soldiers and deputies admits this principle.

possibility of avoiding any derangement of the money market," said an official statement, "and in the financial operations in which the government is about to engage it will be his purpose to adjust receipts and disbursements in such a way that as far as possible money paid in will be promptly returned to the market."

"The secretary sounded the market yesterday with respect to temporary borrowings and was assured that immediate requirements could be met by a sale of certificates bearing a net rate of 2 1/2 per cent, but there would be no doubt about the sale of the largest amount of such debt certificates and that a wide market for the same could be created if they were offered at 3 per cent interest.

To Raise Interest.

"Therefore as soon as the war loan bill becomes a law the secretary proposes to authorize federal reserve banks to receive applications for treasury certificates for indebtedness payable June 30 next and bearing interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum. The first offering of such certificates probably will be $200,000,000.

BUTTE'S PARTICIPATION IN LOAN TO BE LIBERAL

Daly Bank Has Already Subscribed for $100,000 of Certificates.

That Butte's participation in the war loan will be liberal is indicated today by statements made by heads of six of the city's banking institutions. The Daly Bank and Trust company, according to President Charles J. Kelly has already subscribed $100,000 towards the war loan. Heads of the other banks indicated that while there was little doubt but what their institutions would participate, a subscription for any specific amount had not as yet been determined upon. In many instances this is yet to come before the boards of directors. In addition to subscriptions for investment of revenue funds, it is likely that local banks will subscribe for war bonds and certificates for their customers.

FROM SEATTLE.

Seattle, April 20.—A large bond selling firm in Seattle today issued the following statement: "The first of the week we notified our clients and correspondents through the newspapers that we had subscribed for $100,000 war bonds, offering to handle their subscriptions without cost either to them or to the government. Up to this morning we had received from our correspondents among the country bankers alone reservations for more than $600,000 of these bonds.

IN TACOMA.

Tacoma, April 20.—The National Bank of Tacoma subscribed $100,000 to the war loan for which a call was issued yesterday. Other banks promise liberal subscriptions.

WILKINS-DAUB.

William Wilkins and Emma Daub were quietly married at 1 o'clock this afternoon by Rev. M. D. Hudloff at Mr. Hudloff's home. The young people, who are well known in Butte, where they have resided for a number of years, left for a tour of the state this afternoon. They will make their future home at 428 South Idaho street.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

You have swollen feet and hands! Stiff, aching joints! Sharp-shooting, rheumatic pains torture you. You are aching back, pain in the lower abdomen, difficulty when urinating! Look out! These are danger signals! Trouble is with your kidneys. Uric acid poisoning, in one form or another, has set in. It may lead to dropsy or fatal Bright's disease if not checked. Get some GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. They are an old preparation, used all over the world for centuries, combining natural healing oil and herbs, well-known to physicians and used by thousands in their daily practice. The Capsules are not an experimental, makeshift "patent medicine," or "salt," whose effect is only temporary. They are a standard remedy, and act naturally, gently and quickly. But when you go to the drugist, insist in getting the pure, original Haarlem Oil in Capsules. Be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box, and thus protect yourself against counterfeits.

BELIEVE GERMANY STILL IS PLANNING CONQUESTS

Russian Socialist Paper Says Soldiers Must Continue War.

Petrograd, April 20 (via London).—The Zemlia Vola, the organ of the revolutionary socialist, declares that the prosecution of the war is necessary since Germany persists in her plans of conquest. The paper says: "A peace formula without annexation implies necessarily the restoration of the devastated countries of Belgium, Serbia, Montenegro and Rumania and also the application of the principle of a plebiscite to decide the fate of the people in cases where there is a dispute. Germany still continues to seek conquests and to penetrate further into Russian territory. It is therefore necessary to accept the Calvary of war to the end."

"But the defense of the committee and abstention on our part from attempts at annexation in no way mean that the soldiers are to remain in the trenches without attacking. An offensive is necessary to secure a successful end to the war."

Dining Room Hospitality

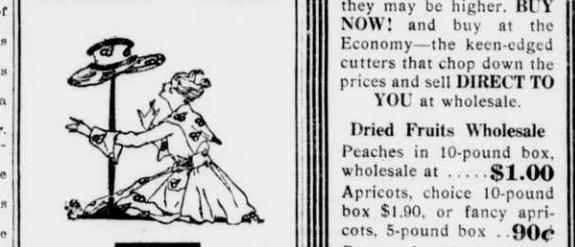

The dining room is really the "heart of the household," for in many families it is only in this room that all the family is gathered at one time. It should, therefore, radiate cheer and good taste. This depends much on the furniture. It need not be expensively furnished, but should please the eye and be a comfort to the body. Our stock will help you in selecting just such furnishings, and your purse, no matter how slender, will be competent to meet the problem. Let us show you how.
