WOULD-BE ROBBER COMMITS SUICIDE

Enters the Bank and Demands $3,000—Cashier Drops and Begins Firing.

Seattle, June 1.—A stranger who entered the King county state bank in the University district today and demanded $3,000 was fired upon by Assistant Cashier William A. Nordquist. The would-be robber shot and killed himself. He has not been identified.

The man entered the bank and laid on Nordquist's desk a note printed with a rubber stamp and reading as follows: "Do not give any alarm while I am here and you will live. I have two pint bottles of nitroglycerine and just want to die. One signal of alarm and I will blow up the entire block. I want $2,000 in gold or currency. You don't need to hurry. When I am tired of waiting I will make the explosion."

"I carry a loaded gun, too," Nordquist said, and reading as follows: "Do not give any alarm while I am here and you will live. I have two pint bottles of nitroglycerine and just want to die. One signal of alarm and I will blow up the entire block. I want $2,000 in gold or currency. You don't need to hurry. When I am tired of waiting I will make the explosion."

Intend of complying with the man's request Nordquist suddenly ducked behind his desk and, seizing a revolver, began firing through the counter, wounding the would-be robber in the thigh. The robber turned his revolver on himself, pulled the trigger and died almost instantly. An examination of his clothing shows that the goods were bought in Spokane. The body was taken to the county morgue. He was well dressed and about 40 years of age.

IRONMEN BATTLING FOR SECOND GAME

Come From Behind and Tie Score in the Third—Leifer and McCarl Star.

Vancouver. Butte. Leifer, cf. Hoffman, rf. Bennett, 2b. McCarl, 1b. Hamilton, 3b. Hilliard, 1b. R. Brown, ss. Stolke, 1b. Hood, rf. Snyder, lf. Cadman, c. Barham, p. McGinnity, p.

"Ironman" McGinnity took his place on the hillcock this afternoon at Heben park in the second game of the season in an effort to even up the series with Bob Brown's Beavers. The Butte boss found his old wing working fine in the warming-up practice and he decided to hold his youngsters for Saturday's and Sunday's games. There was a good-sized crowd on hand and the field was in better condition than yesterday. Owing to an injury to his hand, Eddie Johnson, Butte's right fielder, was not in the game and Hoffman was placed in right field.

Neither side scored in the first inning. After Leifer had reached first Bennett sent a wicked drive to McCarl, who brought the stands to their feet with a sensational stop, whipping the ball to second and striking Leifer. Bennett stole second on Kaffora's poor throw, but was later caught napping when McGinnity shot the pill to Grant.

In the first half of the second Vancouver put three men over the pan. Stolke and Hood both singled, and then Snyder followed with a drive to short which carpenter missed, filling the bases. "Barber" Cadman followed with another single, scoring Stolke and Hood. Wolfert's single brought in Snyder. Butte went out in order.

In the third frame, with two down, Stolke made a two-bagger to left. Hood followed with a stinging drive to deep center and Stolke raced for home. Leifer scooped up the ball and, with a perfect throw, caught Stolke as he slid into the plate, retiring the side. Leifer's peg was one of the best ever seen at the local park.

Butte sluggers landed on the pill and tied the score in the third. Kaffora opened with a double to left and took third on a wild heave by Barham. McGinnity followed with another double, Kaffora crossing the pan. Joe went to third on Hoffman's out and doubled home on Leifer's single. Leifer stole second and a scampored home when Brown made an error on McCarl's drive.

In the fourth neither side scored, a quick double play, Grant to McCarl, spoiling Vancouver's chances. With two down in the fifth and a man on second McCarl made a sensational stop of a hard drive from Brown's bat and pegged the ball to McGinnity, who covered the bag, retiring the side. Butte went out in order.

Neither side scored in the sixth and both twirlers were working excellently. In the first half of the seventh the Beavers were unable to do any damage. The best Butte could do was to get a man as far as second, and the inning ended with the score still 3 to 3.

Vancouver recovered the lead in the eighth when Hood, Brown's young right fielder, sent the ball through the left field fence for a home run. In the second half of the eighth Butte, with Leifer and McCarl on, old Dave Hilliard landed on the pill and sent it over the right field fence for a home run, making the score 5 to 4 at the end of the eighth in Butte's favor.

Vancouver takes the lead in the ninth, scoring three runs.

PROTESTS AGAINST TAX ON DOMESTIC SUGAR

Washington, June 1.—The senate finance committee today heard protests of its relation of the sugar tax bill. Senator Broussard of Louisiana, protested against the decision to levy a consumption tax of half a cent a pound on sugar. Although some senators thought the tax would be imposed only upon imported sugar, Chairman Simmons said that the committee intended to have the tax apply on all sugar, domestic or imported.

WORK STEADILY ON MILWAUKEE LINES

Beeuwkes in Seattle Superintending Electrification of a New Division.

Considerable progress is being made on the electrification of that part of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway line between Othello and the coast. Poles for trolley and transmission lines are being delivered and contracts have been made for purchase of 4,000 to 5,000 tons of electrolytic copper, and the power on this division, which is generated from hydroelectric development, has been contracted for through the International Electric Power company. R. F. Beeuwkes, the electrical engineer from St. Paul who had his headquarters in Butte during the electrification of the line east and west of Butte, has removed to Seattle, and from that point he is surveying right of way from Tacoma and Seattle to Othello for trolley and transmission lines and estimating wire, supplies and tools for third electrical division.

There will be eight sub-stations between Seattle and Othello. Each will contain about 2,000 kilowatt units. These sub-stations will be of indoor type, like those in use between Avery, Ida, and Harlowton, Mont. Specifications for sub-station machinery and electric locomotives are in the hands of the builders for the bids.

The line between Tacoma and Seattle and extending as far east as Cle Elum, the first section completed, will probably be ready the first of next year, according to advices received here. The whole division, about 225 miles, will be completed by Jan. 1, 1919. In regular road service between Harlowton and Avery at the present time there are about 42 electric locomotives, 12 passenger and 30 freight.

A switch engine is used at the yards at Great Falls and two switch engines are in use in the Rocky Mountain division. The gap between Harlowton and Avery is level country not needing electrification.

F. A. Rizzio, a shoemaker at the Nevers Sweat mine, and John H. Stollard, a clerk of Two Dot, Mont., enlisted yesterday afternoon as third class firemen.

KABYLES IN THE FRENCH CAPITAL

Mountaineers Perform Useful Work in the Streets of Paris.

Paris, June 1.—Sixty tall, Kabyles, mountaineers from Eastern Algeria, descendants from the hardy and redoubtable race of Berbers, have lent a useful hand to the solution of the Paris street cleaning problem. Garbage boxes that are now set out of doors in some quarters as early as 10 o'clock in the evening, to the damage of a great many shins in dimly lighted streets, are encountered in other quarters as late as 3 o'clock in the afternoon, all on account of the lack of help. Paris thus has been enjoying 17 hours of continuous contemplation of city refuse that is stirred, shaken and overturned in the meantime for rags, paper and bones. The Kabyles have done so well toward remedying this situation that 300 more of them will be utilized in the work.

"There are now 20,000 of our people working in France for the national defense," says Si Salah Si Ahmed, said or governor of the Douar Matkas of Tizi-Ouzou in Kabylie. "Neither the climate nor the conflict daunts them," he added. Si Salah was sent by the 3,000 inhabitants of his district to tell the French government it may count upon them for anything it wants.

The experiment of Algerian help in the field and factory in France has been a great success. These men, particularly those from the mountain regions, have wonderful endurance, are very industrious and easily contented. They are working alongside Musulmans from Morocco and Tunis, while a great many others are in the ranks of the Algerian riflemen at the front. They have proven a great deal more effective than the Senegalese in this climate; they have shown quite a taste for farming, have learned quickly the use of machine tools in factories and their appreciation in municipal work has perhaps been the greatest success of all.

The Annamites from the French colony of Indo-China, also unskilled, have been quick to learn and are probably more fastidious in their work than the Kabyles. As gleaners in the harvest field last summer they were said to have never overlooked a speck.

The Moors are better fighters than they are farmers, yet they are taking to agriculture, and French observers who are watching the experiment look to the result of a most beneficial influence upon the future agricultural development of Morocco.

The question was raised in the chamber of deputies recently as to what complications might develop from the presence of so many colonial laborers in France at the end of the war. The general sentiment was that no apprehension need be entertained on this score, and that it was even less menacing than the formidable extension of the use of women in mechanical labor. The Kabyles, Indo-Chinese and Moors, it is held, will, after they have laid up a little money, be glad enough to go back home, where their savings will enable them to play the "nabob."

Nearly every ship arriving from Algeria now brings more of the Kabyles, who are more and more counted upon to solve the question of labor. They are taller than the average Algerian, with features resembling somewhat those of the peasants of Central France. They are not uniform in complexion, some being dark and some light, with fair hair. Their language is the Berber, although they use the Arabian letters. The possibilities of the experiment may be judged from the fact that Kabylie is the most populous part of North Africa, having 158 inhabitants per square mile.

WEDDING EPIDEMIC LEAVES POSTMASTER WITHOUT ASSISTANT

Reading, Pa.—Wyomissing's postmaster, George Reicheneder, wants a girl assistant who won't get married. Four weddings, past or prospective, is Reicheneder's office record in not much more than a year.

His first helper was his sister-in-law, Miss Ruth Wright. Her name is now Mrs. Harper Rettew.

No. 2 was Miss Sara Wetzel, who came to Wyomissing from Milton. She soon married a Montoursville man.

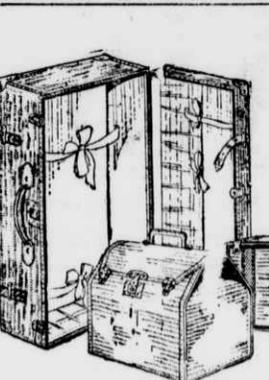

Miss Alice P. Sibson of Wyomissing was the next assistant in Reicheneder's office. Her engagement to Llewellyn G. Miller of Reading has been announced. She has a twin sister, Miss Laura Sibson, who sometimes helped in the postoffice.

She agreed to take her sister's position after her wedding, but changed her mind. Her marriage to William McFarland of Mount Airy, Philadelphia, this week has just been announced.

PLANS FOR INCREASING THE POULTRY SUPPLY

Eugene Ore., June 1.—E. J. McClanahan, president of the Oregon State Poultry Breeders' association, today issued a call for a state-wide convention of poultrymen to be held in connection with the Oregon State fair at Salem, Ore., this fall. Plans for increasing the poultry supply in 1918 as the quickest means of meat production are to be discussed with the view that the problem of feeding the nation as the result of the war is not one of months but of years, the call states. The Oregon association is acting in co-operation with the American Poultry association. Similar meetings will be held in many states.
