

MESSAGE SENT TO MUCKIE M'DONALD

He is Directed to Return, as Campbell and the Other Rebels Are Here.

here. He was arrested by the soldiers who were sent to Butte to maintain order. With Joe Bradley, notorious I. W. W. leader and vice president of the new miners' organization, he was found guilty of a violation of the criminal laws and sent to the Deer Lodge penitentiary for three years. Bradley, who was sent up for a longer term, died in prison. McDonald was paroled because of good behavior. He returned to Butte and went to work.

Sent Back to Pen.

Last fall, a few days before the state election campaign closed, McDonald again came into the limelight. From the gallery of the Auditorium during the progress of a crowded meeting held in the interests of the democratic ticket, he interrupted Gov. Sam V. Stewart, who was making an address. McDonald called the governor a liar and otherwise disturbed the meeting. He was immediately placed under arrest and from the city jail taken back to Deer Lodge, where he finished his term.

After completing his term in the pen, McDonald returned to Butte. Later he went to Globe, Ariz. He is a bad actor and thoroughly representative of some of the leaders in the present movement in Butte to close the mines.

His Friend Campbell

The "Campbell" referred to in the telegram as one of the "rebels" already here in Butte is Campbell, who is taking a leading part in the present agitation. Campbell presided at last night's meeting at 4300 Hill and has taken a prominent part in the present movement. He is a recognized I. W. W. and was chairman of the dissemination committee that ran mines out of the camp three years ago. From Denver, where he was expelled from the Western Federation of Miners, Campbell went to Arizona. He figured prominently in the recent invasion in that state.

STATE TREASURER IN CITY

State Treasurer R. L. Beck of Hamilton is expected to arrive in Butte today. He has come over to Butte from the incident on Hamilton. He is well known in the city, where he received a warm welcome. Beck is a Democrat and is making a second round in office.

HIGH SPOTS IN AMERICAN HISTORY: ETHAN ALLEN TAKES FORT TICONDEROGA

BY RALPH COUCH

Eighty-three men, each armed with a Frenchman's hunting rifle, lay concealed in the foliage on the lower east shore of Lake Champlain at sunrise of May 18, 1775.

Above them they could see the towers and redoubts of Fort Ticonderoga, over it flew the ensign of King George III. It was one of the strongest forts in America.

The 83 men were farmers and hill-men. They were there to capture the fortress with its heavy guns and valuable stores of ammunition. Opposed to them would be veteran troops of Europe's first military power.

The farmers and mountaineers were the Green Mountain boys of what is now southern Vermont. Ethan Allen was their leader. They were about to commit the first overt act of the American revolution on the part of the colonies, attack the troops of the King. To lose and be captured, they knew, meant hanging as rebels. But none withdrew when Allen offered the chance.

"It is a desperate attempt," he said, "I do not urge it on anyone contrary to his will. You that will undertake voluntarily, join your brethren."

They bowed and were armed. That is all of the story of the capture of Ticonderoga that is known. The rest is comedy. That Colonel Allen and his men do doubt existed.

No one had ever dreamed of the capture of the fortress they supposed so impregnable. A military party, supposed to be made up of them, then disappeared in a covered way that led into the fortress.

Allen rushed up a staircase at the side of one of the barracks buildings while his soldiers were dismantling the arsenal and sleeping troops of the garrison. "Thundering at the door of Captain de la Place, Allen demanded immediate and unconditional surrender of the fort.

"By what authority?" demanded the commandant, opening the door of his chamber.

"In the name of the Great Jehovah and the continental congress," roared Allen.

The commandant began to pulverize, asking information concerning the congress.

"That I understand you," reported Allen, "and with my drawn sword over his head, knee demanded immediate surrender."

This important feat was by Napoleon, given Arthur's control of Lake Champlain and prevented the colonies from immediate invasion from Canada. Further, it put the American army in possession of the big guns, one 24-inch mortar, a number of other cannon and such powder, which, transported with great difficulty to Boston, enabled Washington to drive the British out of that city.

ELECTRICS EARLY LAND ON THE BALL

Harrington is Derricked in the Second and Hunt Hurried to Rescue.

Great Falls got an early lead in today's game and piled up five scores in the first two frames, while Butte was able to send only one over on a home run by Grant. Hester sent Hall to the mound, while McCarl chose Harrington, a former Tacoma twirler who came to Butte with Bonner, but Harrington had enough in the second and Hunt was sent to the box after the runs had been scored. Shinn, who was recently picked up by the Electric, coming from the Salt Lake team in the Coast league, was in right for the visitors. Garity played third for Butte in place of Roche, who is laid up with a bad leg.

Shinn walked in the first, Hester sacrificed and Messenger singled, sending home Shinn. Hoekel's drive sent Messenger home after he had stolen second. Butte was blanked.

Coltrin was walked in the opening of the second. Hall singled and Shinn doubled, scoring Coltrin. Hester then singled, sending Hall and Shinn home. Grant put the pill over the fence for Butte's score.

There was no scoring in the third, but in the fourth Great Falls added another on singles by Messenger and Hoekel and Kelly's two bawler to the right field fence. Butte came up a little and went two over on hits by Leiter, Hilliard and Garity.

Leiter went to the mound for Butte in the first of the fifth, McCarl taking first and Hoffman going to right. Great Falls was blanked. The score is now 4 to 3 in favor of the visitors.

WAGE BATTLE AGAINST DEHORNING OF CATTLE

San Francisco, Cal., June 13.—The suffering caused thousands of cattle each year as a result of dehorning has led the state humane association of California to make an effort to stop the practice. It is claimed dehorning has been growing in favor, due to a popular belief that dehorned cattle grow heavier more quickly and sell for a higher price than horned cattle. The association's annual report, however, states that the lives of many animals are lost through the operation, as not infrequently infection sets in and, unless attention is given promptly, the results are serious. The horns of a young animal is covered by a scabrous mass of sensitive tissue, the severing of which causes acute pain and, in every case, suffering of intense character.

RED CROSS STILL PREPARING PLANS

Lists of Prospects Being Prepared by Volunteer Workers in the City.

The added burden of the recent disaster in Butte has only stimulated the determination with which the executive committee of the Butte Chapter of the American Red Cross is preparing plans for the monster campaign next week when it is hoped to raise the sum of $100,000 as the contribution from the county of Silver Bow to the work of the Red Cross in army and navy and towards the $200,000,000 proposed to be raised in the United States for that purpose.

The executive committee held a meeting at noon today and received reports of the progress of the work of making out the lists of prospective donors. Volunteer workers throughout the city, clerks, bookkeepers and others are busy arranging the lists in anticipation of having every detail ready for the launching of the campaign at the dinner of Monday evening. The campaign is to last for one week. A. L. Maltre is the chairman of the committee which has the work of preparing the prospective lists on its hands.

Secretary Prober of the Y. M. C. A. was here from Billings today and attended the meeting. He left early this afternoon for Deer Lodge, where he is doing campaign work towards the same end. Mr. Prober says: "The reports which I have been receiving from all parts of the state are very encouraging and when the people learn more fully of the good work, which is being done by the American Red Cross for our soldiers and sailors and for the cause of humanity they will subscribe more liberally and generously."

EDWARD G. KANE GOES BACK TO THE DIAMOND

City Engineer Succeeds Con O'Neill as the Foreman of Anaconda Property.

Edward G. Kane has been appointed foreman of the Diamond-Bell mine by the Anaconda company to succeed the late Con O'Neill, one of the victims of the North Butte disaster. Mr. Kane was for several years assistant foreman under Mr. O'Neill, but resigned to become city engineer. He now gives up this office to return to the mine. Mr. Kane is considered an especially capable and popular mining man.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI TO ENTERTAIN SENIORS

ILL HEALTH CAUSE OF MAN'S SUICIDE

C. Jones, Unable to Endure Mental Torture or Slow Death, Ends All.

Charles Jones, a miner about 40 years of age, who has been in ill health for some time, shot himself through the head and died at 11 o'clock this morning in the emergency hospital. Jones lived at the Grand house on East Park street. The proprietor of that place heard a shot this morning and went to investigate. When he reached Jones' room he thought the man dead and summoned the coroner. Later he discovered that Jones was breathing and called the city hospital. Jones lived for two hours after the shot.

Upon reaching the hospital Jones was attended by Dr. W. C. Mathews. He died without regaining consciousness. "You may think this joke is a riddle," said smart Band Leader Miller. "But, while I'm always beating time, I do not want to kill it."
