NERVOUS FEELING ON THE EXCHANGE

Liquidation in Some Lines is Heavy—The Trading is Light.

New York, July 9.—Today's trading in stocks gave little indication of a definite market trend. At the opening there was a good demand in some lines while others were bearishly inclined. There was no general appreciation of prices.

Stocks were again inclined to react at the opening of today's market, presumably in consequence of embargo on exports. United States Steel and Industrial Alcohol led 2 points and metals, motors and active equipments reacted to a similar extent. Shipings, oils and inactive specialties reacted also.

Those who will make the trip are: Jones and Shea, catchers; Kelly, Coleman, Keltus and Curley, pitchers; Varnadore, Sells, Greenwood and Baker, infielders; Varlien, Nadeau and Primley, outfielders. Chet Luttrell last year with Phil Nadeau on the Sunnyside team, may join the party en route. MARKING TIME IN WHEAT MARKET

Government Embargo Plans and Crop Report Cut Down Trading.

Chicago, July 9.—Owing to President Wilson's embargo plans the food market showed weakness today. Dry, hot weather in the southwest tended to rally corn prices from an initial setback. Wheat ranged from 1/4 to 1/4 lower, with September at $1.55 1/2 to $1.57 1/2, and December at $1.56 1/2 to $1.58 1/2. This was followed by a general upturn. The wheat trade was reduced to next to nothing, pending the outcome of the embargo action.

Depression in oats disappeared when corn turned upward. The embargo will probably act to some extent on the trading in these pits. The bulge in corn met with free selling by holders who anticipated a bearish government crop report. Values declined nervous at 1 to 1 1/2 cents net decline.

MINNEAPOLIS WHEAT. Minneapolis, July 9.—Wheat—July, $2.27; September, $1.90. Corn—Sept., 1.55 1/2; Oct., 1.56 1/2; Nov., 1.57 1/2; Dec., 1.58 1/2.
