FOREST FIRE OVER AREA OF 300 MILES

M. J. Hutchens of Missoula Tells of Conditions in Fire Belt.

The six forest fires which are now raging in western Montana from Kalspell to the Coeur d'Alene country cover an area of approximately 300 miles, according to M. J. Hutchens, one of the owners of the Missoulian and the Missoula Sentinel of Montana, who was among the business visitors in the city today. Mr. Hutchens said: "The fact that six forest fires broke out at the one time over an extended area gives credence to the belief that these fires were incendiary. The farming sections are not threatened but there will be a great loss of timber. There has been a fall of rain on only two occasions in the past two months and the forests are like kindling wood, and the work of preventing the spread of the fires is a most difficult one."

"District Supervisor F. A. Silcox of Missoula has taken 1,200 men to the Coeur d'Alene country, where the fire is most severe. Even with this force of men much difficulty is being found in confining the blaze. Last night the fire was raging at Nine Mile, west of Missoula. The sky was brightened by the glow and the smoke and smell of smoke could be felt in Missoula. In the Fourth of July canyon off from Wallace the fire is raging. Every effort is being made by the use of firebreaks to control the danger and the belief is that there will be no serious loss of life from the flames. "Business conditions in Missoula are very good at the present time. While there is labor trouble over the construction of the new beet sugar factory, it is believed that the building will be ready by Oct. 1 and that 600 families will be brought to Missoula as a result of the starting of the new industry. There was some I. W. W. trouble at the timber mills of the Anaconda Copper Mining company at Donner and the mills were shut down for a few weeks. They are working again."

MORMONS MARK SACRED ANNIVERSARY IN BUTTE

Outing at Gardens in Memory of Foundation of Mormon Capital.

With a program of games and contests for the young people and a reunion for the older people and the seventieth anniversary of the day on which Brigham Young started to build Zion, later Salt Lake, is being observed at Columbia Gardens this afternoon. The celebrants left town on special cars at 2 o'clock. Throughout the world today, but more especially in Salt Lake and other points in Utah, the advent of the Mormons into the fertile valley which was to be their promised land is being observed. With Brigham Young on that memorable occasion were 147 pioneers. As he lay on a sick pallet and gazed down the valley from the height of Emigrant Pass the Mormon leader located the site of what turned out to be one of the most beautiful and progressive cities of the west. In Utah the anniversary is a state holiday. The local celebration is under the direction of Elder Bell of the Church of Latter-Day Saints.

INJURED ON GARDEN CAR WANTS $6,200 DAMAGES

Gertrude Lynch Says She is a Nervous Wreck as Result of Crowding.

Gertrude Lynch wants $6,200 from the Butte Electric Railway company for injuries she alleges she received through the overcrowding of the car platform at Columbia Gardens on July 15, 1917. The plaintiff in her complaint says that she paid her fare and passed through the gate by the consent of the gatekeeper at the gardens to await a position on the platform to await a car for the city. The plaintiff says that while she was standing there the gatekeeper allowed a large number of people to pass through the gate and take positions on the platform to await a car for the city. EXPECT CONTRACT TO BE RATIFIED

The Anaconda and Great Falls Unions Strongly Favor Adoption.

While Butte locals continue to oppose the contract offered by the Anaconda Copper Mining company to the metals trades craftsmen, sentiment among the Anaconda and Great Falls unions is in favor of the agreement. As a result, international officers in Butte today expressed the opinion that the new contract will be ratified. Today the vote stands as follows: For ratification, 8; against ratification, 7. After a careful review of the situation this morning an international officer ventured the opinion that the eight Anaconda unions will ratify the agreement by a vote of 5 to 2. The eight Great Falls unions will also ratify the agreement by the same vote, according to latest indications. The engineers have postponed their vote pending an interpretation of the contract. They are seeking to have all their men specified in the contract and they want a provision for one set of others which, through inadvertence, has been overlooked. As there is no wage scale involved these differences will be adjusted probably before the day is over. Committees representing the Anaconda and Great Falls smelters' union will hold a conference in Butte for the purpose of discussing wage increases. A committee of the Great Falls smelters, composed of Thomas Kelly, H. E. Gallaher and Hugh Cameron, is already here and a committee from Anaconda is expected tonight or tomorrow morning. Each of those unions affiliated with the International Mine, Mill and Smelters' union. Alfred Borden and William Davidson, members of the executive board of the Moyer organization, will meet with these committees in their conference. "The committees will go over the entire situation and will discuss increased wage demands," declared Mr. Borden today. "If they reach a conclusion that the smelters should have more wages they will make a demand upon the mining companies. The committees will attempt to arrive at some concrete decision."

FIGHT AGAINST POSTAL COMPANY IS RENEWED

More Poles Are Cut Down on Mining Claims Beyond Rocker.

The dissolving of the injunction in the suit of the Postal Telegraph company against Joseph P. Nolan and others has resulted in more poles being cut down and wires cut on mining claims owned by different citizens just beyond Rocker. The telegraph company had erected poles and strung wires on a mining claim owned by John H. and George Curtis. According to one report the poles were cut down on the Curtis property. On the mining claim owned by Nolan and others it was discovered that poles which had been cut down had been replaced, and they were again cut down yesterday. It was also discovered that some wires had been placed under ground, and it is stated that some one with a pair of nippers cut the wires in several places.

A Bad Spring for Women.

The late, cold and damp spring seems to have been particularly severe on the health of women, and many are suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, aches and pains in sides, joints and muscles, lumbago and other ailments caused by overwork or disordered kidneys or bladder. Mrs. T. J. Bucknell, Hardy, Neb., writes: "I am recovering from an attack of lumbago by the aid of Foley-Kidney Pills. They surely help me." Women seem peculiarly liable to kidney trouble and no symptom should be neglected. New-Bro Drug Co.—Adv.
