TWO GRAND DUKES
NOW UNDER ARREST

Others Suspected of Complicity in Plot to Restore the Czar.

Petrograd, Sept. 5.—In addition to the arrest of Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the former emperor, and his wife, the Countess Fahlan, the Grand Duke Paul and his morganatic wife have also been taken into custody.

The reported arrest of Grand Duke Dmitri-Paulovitch is as yet unconfirmed. The arrests are the result of revolutionary conspiracy in the counter-revolutionary government concerning which the provisional government obtained evidence during the Moscow conference.

Last night the assistant commander of the Petrograd district, with a detachment of picked soldiers, arrived at Tsarskoe-Celo and read the order for arrest to Grand Duke Paul, who submitted, merely asking the reason. The assistant commander stated that it was by order of Premier Kerensky.

Later the same officer visited Gatchina and arrested Grand Duke Michael and his wife. It appears that several days ago a search was made of the residence of the Grand Duke Michael in Finland, which was occupied by him during his presence there. A Colonel Dietz was also arrested at Gatchina.

The ministry of justice refuses for the present to give out any facts concerning the arrests. According to some of the newspapers, however, the headquarters of the monarchist conspiracy in Crimea, where other grand dukes and duchesses and the dowager empress reside, are under surveillance.
In Crimea, according to the newspapers, there has been recently founded a society under the name of "Forward for the Czar and Holy Russia," which was detected organizing and training "czarist" propagandists with the designation of sending them to the front to revive monarchy in the army.
