

DOZEN CRIMINALS BEFORE THE COURT

Hassan Mehmet Charged With Murder—Given Time to Get Attorney.

There were an even dozen persons in Judge Dwyer's court this morning, charged with various crimes, such as murder, burglary, robbery, first degree assault and statutory offenses. County Attorney Joseph R. Jackson filed an information against Hassan Mehmet, charging him with the murder of Hasan Galmbags on the night of Sept. 4. In reply to questions of the judge Mehmet stated that he did not have an attorney nor any money to engage one, but he did have some friends and if given a week he might be able through his friends to secure one. He was allowed until next Saturday to secure an attorney.

The following other cases were taken up:

John Mallay, charged with burglary; pleaded not guilty.

Martin Ferriter, charged with first degree assault, said that his true name was Martin Phelan. After being arraigned he pleaded not guilty; bond $5,000.

James L. Byers, charged with robbery; to plead next Saturday.

Floreno Mareno, charged with burglary; given a week to employ an attorney.

Claude Sanders, charged with a statutory offense; plea not guilty.

Joseph Gorch, charged with burglary; given a week in which to plead.

D. J. Wilcox, charged with robbery; plea not guilty.

Alf Hendrickson, charged with burglary; given a week to get an attorney.

William Bryan, charged with first degree assault; plea not guilty.

Roy Togus, charged with attempted robbery by force; plea not guilty; bond $2,000.

The motion for new trial in the case of Dominick Martin was denied.

The application of County Attorney Jackson for leave not to file an information against E. S. Robinson, charged with grand larceny, was granted. The county attorney explained that the man had a preliminary hearing in a justice court and was bound over to the district court, but a careful examination of the evidence showed that it would not justify putting the man on trial.

The hearing on the motion for a new trial in the case of H. J. Schumacher against the Murray hospital was continued until Oct. 6.

GIVEN PERMIT TO SHOOT OWLS AT HIS RESIDENCE

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 22.—"Permission is hereby given R. C. Wilson of No. 2719 Sunset Boulevard to shoot owls at that address." The foregoing is a transcript of a document issued from Chief Butler's office recently that caused deep anxiety among local clubmen and late leaving suitors who have dainty interests in the neighborhood of Mr. Wilson's game preserves. For many months an insolent owl has hooted at Mr. Wilson. To add to the offense the bird has taken up lodgings in one of Mr. Wilson's lawn trees. Thinking to discourage the bird, Mr. Wilson tried hooting back at him, but the owl seemed pleased and hooted with a new and joyous note. Because shooting is not done in well regulated neighborhoods, Mr. Wilson set out to make it official. He obtained from Chief Butler written permission, good until Sept. 30. By that time he hopes to be able to hit the owl, or at least enjoy the impression that his home is not an aviary.

SWELLING THE POPULATION OF AMERICAN LAKE

More Montana Boys Arrive at Camp Lewis Today—Officers Transferred.

Camp Lewis, Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 22.—Utah, Montana, Idaho and California contribute quotas of troops today, rolling into Camp Lewis at various hours of the day and night. Second Lieut. Robert H. Chamlee, Q. M. C. N. A., has been ordered to San Francisco to report to the department's quartermaster. Lieut. Col. Archie T. Harris has been transferred from the 32nd to the 36th infantry.

"You can't say too much for the Red Cross," said N. J. MacMillan, a member of the Oakland, Cal. rifles. "They gave us lunches when we left and we were fed by the Red Cross at various points along the line. The boys certainly appreciate their kindness."

Officers Transferred.

In order to allow officers to go to commands from their own states the following transfers from Camp Lewis have been authorized by Maj. Gen. H. A. Greene.

Second Lieut. Alexander R. Wheeler and Edward E. Hughes, to Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J.; Second Lieut. Reuel W. Elton and Edward A. Dunne, to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va.; Second Lieut. George M. Hahn and John H. Wakefield, to Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky.; Second Lieut. Fred W. Fickett, Jr., Joseph W. Getzinger, John F. Runyan and Thomas M. McClure, to Camp Funston, Fort Riley, Kans.; First Lieut. Edmund Ellverbrand, to Camp Upton, Yaphank, N. Y.; Second Lieut. David T. Friedman, to Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.; Second Lieut. Archibald E. Lovett, to Camp Travis, San Antonio, Tex., and Second Lieut. R. B. Holloman, to Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga.

Fill Militia Companies.

Orders for the sending of a sufficient number of selective draft men of the states of Utah and California to fill the militia organizations of those states, received by Maj. Gen. H. A. Greene, commanding Camp Lewis, made it clear that the inadequacy of the contingent to handle the 4,145 men ordered to report there is to be met with a reduction of the force rather than an increase in the number of buildings, as expected recently.

While the exact number of men needed to fill up the militia units of the two states named is not being given out, it is stated that it will be such a material reduction of the Camp Lewis quota as to allow the housing of the remainder in the barracks now

The California men are to be sent direct to Charlotte, N. C., for training with the militia being mobilized there as a part of the forty-first division, national army. The Utah men will be sent to Linda Vista, California, to the militia training camp there, where the Utah militiamen are to gather. Men from both California and Utah must first report to Camp Lewis for muster, but it is probable that they will stay there but a short time. Little extra transportation expense is involved in bringing the California men to the Tacoma camp, as the Northern Pacific, being a grant railroad, must transport soldiers free of charge over its lines 1,990 miles, or nearly to Chicago, on the way to Charlotte, N. C.

Give Up Good Jobs.

Out of the 12 men of the first draft quota from Billings, Mont., who came to camp, at least eight of them were receiving salaries above $125 a month and the incomes ranged as high as $1,000 a month. Benjamin F. Sherer, formerly of the Rialto Theater Supply company of Billings, had a guaranteed salary of $240 a month and commissions ran his monthly stipend up to $1,000. C. G. Kelsey was receiving $300 a month as manager of the Strand moving picture theater. He is a married man but not only waived his exemption but made a personal request of the governor to be one of the first quotas, to be sure of the honor. J. W. Crosby sold automobiles in Billings and made $175 a month. The Montana men are in Company D, 362nd infantry.

THAT TROUBLESOME H.

A certain English foreman in one of the Kensington textile factories is in the habit of having an appetizer sent him for lunch. "I didn't eat it," he called a new name, "ordered the foreman." "Where's my lunch?" he demanded. "You told me to eat it up—and I ate it," he stated. "Well, I didn't eat it up," roared the irate foreman. "I told you to eat it up." "Well, I didn't eat it up," maintained the youngster, stoutly. "I ate it cold."—Youth's Companion.

MONSTER PARADE HEARTY FAREWELL

All Butte Will Turn Out Tomorrow to Give Boys a Sendoff.

The parade will be of such magnitude that people must observe the rules prepared in order to make the affair go through without confusion," said Colonel Donohue, in charge of the recruits, at the conference today. It must be remembered that the governor and mayor at the courthouse will address the drafted men, and not the public at large. A part of Granite street will be roped off and soldiers and police will see that the crowd does not block the rest of the line of march. We earnestly ask that the relatives and close friends of the drafted men do not crowd into the district about the courthouse while the addresses are being made.

Nine From One Union.

At a meeting on Thursday night the Butchers' union voted $50 to the nine men who are drafted from their union, passed a resolution to furnish the three Butte daily papers to the men as long as they are in the army service, bound themselves to care for any needs of the men while in the army and decided to fine any member of the union $2 upon his failure to answer roll call for the parade. The nine men who go from this union are: Jack Deebie, Joe Wright, Leslie Ives, Joe Simmons, Robert Bagley, Paul Hubert, Ernest Dazzie, Joe Parko and William T. Cotton. The union committee in charge of the parade arrangements consists of Wilfred Russell, Ed Markwell and Carl G. Orter.

Retail clerks also will turn out in a body to honor the 21 men who go from that union with the drafted men. Stage hands of Butte will have their labor union out in a body with a fine for members who do not march. Carpenters will honor carpenters who are turning soldiers, and practically every recognized labor body in the city will take its share in the demonstration. Butte organized labor will demonstrate for all time that it is patriotically inclined and behind the conscription act of congress.

Must Observe Rules.

"The parade will be of such magnitude that people must observe the rules prepared in order to make the affair go through without confusion," said Colonel Donohue, in charge of the recruits, at the conference today. It must be remembered that the governor and mayor at the courthouse will address the drafted men, and not the public at large. A part of Granite street will be roped off and soldiers and police will see that the crowd does not block the rest of the line of march. We earnestly ask that the relatives and close friends of the drafted men do not crowd into the district about the courthouse while the addresses are being made.

Farewells at Station.

"Ample opportunity will be given for farewells at the station. Soldiers and police will keep the crowds back from the special train and allow friends and relatives the hour between 8 and 9 o'clock for farewells. This much time makes it imperative that the friends and relatives do not either gather along the line of march or join the parade. The last hour at the depot will be theirs exclusively."

Major Williams has designated a squad of soldiers to keep the depot platform clear. The drafted men will be led to their train in the yards, will answer to final roll call, and then the train will be backed up to the depot, where relatives and friends will be allowed to visit with the men. "The less interference that is made with the orderly movement of the parade the more time will be allowed at the depot for farewells of relatives and friends," said Major Williams today. Marshal Galloway announces that an aide will be stationed every 50 feet along the right side of the parade to keep up an orderly movement.

Badges for Drafted Men.

All drafted men of the city of Butte will tonight be given white badges with the inscription: "Butte Contingent, National Army, 317." Theaters are asked to honor the white badges tonight and tomorrow, although arrangements have already been made for special theatrical performances to-night and tomorrow for the drafted men. The county will issue badges to its drafted men tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, when the men report for roll call.

Colonel Donohue, in charge of the drafted men in the parade, has arranged for the numbering of all coaches in the special train and for the numbering of each man. By their numbers the men will find their own special car and berth, thus avoiding the confusion of arbitrarily choosing their position in the train. "Every citizen who marches in the parade should provide himself with an American flag," said Mr. Galloway today. "We have asked that business houses and homes along the line of march be decorated in honor of the men, and that motor cars in the parade be decorated."

For Drafted Men.

All drafted men of Butte and Silver Bow county were guests at the Pantages vaudeville show, at the Ansonia theater, this afternoon.

All drafted men are invited to attend a dance given in their honor to-night at the School of Mines gymnasium. The dance is being given by the soldiers of the two companies stationed in Butte.

Special services for drafted men will be held in the various churches of the city and county tomorrow morning. Members of the county draft quota will be guests of the board tomorrow afternoon at the People's theater. The Red Cross has finished the preparation of comfort kits for the members of the draft quotas.

Members of the committees in charge of the arrangements for Sunday night's demonstration, have raised enough tobacco supplies and other small luxuries to take the drafted men for at least two weeks. The material is being gathered and boxed this afternoon. In the boxes will be more than 40,000 cigarettes.

Members of patriotic, labor and fraternal organizations have arranged for special gifts and donations of money to men who go from their organizations.

DENIES PETITION TO MODIFY DECREE

Many Divorce Matters Heard by Judge McClernan Today.

Judge McClernan heard many divorce matters this morning at his session of court. In the case of Eulah Haskins against Henry A. Haskins the court denied the petition of the defendant to modify the decree as to the custody of the children and also denied the petition as to the attorney's fee and the application for the annulment of the decree providing for the payment of $100 a month alimony. The court ordered that the decree be modified to provide for the payment of $50 a month for the support of the children and added: "In view of the financial condition of the defendant the order should not be found guilty of contempt in failing to pay alimony is denied without prejudice to the right to renew the same in case defendant does not comply with the provisions of the decree as modified."

Burton J. White was found guilty of contempt of court in failing to pay alimony to his wife, Mabel E. White, and ordered committed to the county jail until the amount due is paid. In order to give White a chance to pay, the money the execution of judgment was stayed for one week. Attorney George V. Le Sage appeared for the defendant and Attorney W. E. Carroll for the plaintiff.

Bertie Kelly had Harry Kelly cited into court to show cause why he should not pay alimony and an attorney fee of $50 and contribute such necessities as his means would justify for the support of the minor children. Attorney G. L. Tyler appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney W. E. Carroll for the defendant.

M. A. Evisizer was granted a divorce from R. J. Evisizer on the ground of failure to provide. The couple were married in Denver, Aug. 5, 1912. Attorney L. F. Lovell appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney James M. Hinkle for the defendant.

Viola Billow was given a divorce from Thomas J. Billow on the ground of failure to provide. The couple were married in Helena, Feb. 21, 1910. Attorneys Barta and Barta appeared for the plaintiff.

H. W. Grayson was given a divorce from Zella Grayson on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney J. J. McCaffery. Susan Snavely in applying for a divorce from Claude E. Snavely said that her husband and that she had not lived with him since 1911. The couple were married in Missouri, Dec. 12, 1906.
