COUNTY BOARD BEGINS EXAMINATION OF MEN

Three Hundred Registered Men Called Up in the Latest Batch. City Board Has Definitely Decided to Summon 1,500 Additional Men From Its Lists to Fill Its Quota for Draft Army. Hunt for Slackers Will Be Continued Regardless of the War Situation.

Silver Bow county's exemption board this morning began the examining of an additional 300 men to fill up their quota of 145 men for next Wednesday night. The board summoned 150 men to report for examination this morning. More than 100 appeared at the board's offices and it is known that many others failed to report only because they have not yet received notification. The county believes that at least 85 or 90 per cent of the 300 men will appear for examination.

"The men who appeared this morning seem the finest physical squad we have called yet," said Dr. Peter Potter of the county board. "In eyesight and hearing the men made an unusual record, and most of them appeared to be men who will easily pass the other physical tests this afternoon." Final examination is to be given at the Murray hospital this afternoon. Board members say that not one man was suspected of trying to "fake" today.

It is definitely decided that the city will make another call for men, the number being undetermined, but it is expected to be in the neighborhood of 1,500. Order numbers up to 2,742 already have been summoned for examination. From this third call of about 1,500 men the city expects to get more than enough men to fill its complete first quota of 791. Enough men have been notified by the board to fill the contingent of 317 next Wednesday. Red cards will probably be sent to these men on Saturday. The last contingent of the first draft quota, 117 men, representing the final 15 per cent, will probably be sent to Camp Lewis in the middle of October.

The county was short 19 men and the city short four men on their quotas last Sunday. Slackers arrested this week and turned over to military authorities for transportation to Camp Lewis will cut down this shortage, and the remaining number short will be made up in next week's contingent.

"The slackers will be rounded up," said a county board member today. "Even should the present conscript men fail to reach the trenches and be discharged from further service, before leaving the country, we will continue to hunt out and arrest those men who have been derelict in their national duty. It is a duty owed to the men who have been patriotic enough to go into the national army without protest and without holding back."

68 MORE BUILDINGS TO GO UP AT CAMP

Among Soldiers to Be Accommodated Are 3,700 Colored Troops.

Camp Lewis, Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 27.—Lieut. Col. C. H. Miller, inspector general, has reported to Major General Greene and by general orders has been assigned as camp inspector at Camp Lewis.

First Lieut. Karl J. Zineck, O. R. C., 11th engineers, has been ordered to remain at Camp Lewis for the commanding general at Camp Rockford, Ill.

One hundred and twelve men from Oakland, Cal., arrived late last night. Sergts. Hugo Callenberg, Jr., and Arthur Rhode, members of Bakers company No. 37, Camp Lewis, have been ordered to Camp Fremont at Palo Alto.

Nine men have been named to direct athletic activities in the 347th field artillery, with Capt. G. R. Hellevor having general supervision.

Orders for further building construction at Camp Lewis have been amended that 68 new buildings will be erected. With the new buildings and remodeling of others, provision will be made for the accommodation of 11,000 men at the camp. The additional buildings will mean that at least 50,000 more feet of sewers will be laid. The number of colored troops to be trained at Camp Lewis will be approximately 3,700.

STATEMENT BY CITY BOARD

The city exemption board today gave out the following statement regarding the departure of the Butte contingent last Sunday:

"Apropos the statement in a Spokane paper that Butte and Silver Bow county contingents reached that city in a drunken condition, we can only say that we believe the statement is more exaggeration than truth. There may have been occasional cases of drunkenness among the conscripts from this city, but it must be remembered that such men were under the influence of liquor as a matter of their own choosing.

"The mayor, who is a member of the city exemption board, told the conscripts, at the time they answered to roll call at the City Auditorium on Saturday, that the freedom of the city was theirs, but at the same time he cautioned them that they must be careful and enjoy this freedom as gentlemen chosen to the highest honors in the American nation—that of American soldiers.

"The last 24 hours that these conscripts were in the city, they were virtually in charge of their relatives and friends. We felt that this last 24 hours was due to the men if they wanted to be with relatives and other dear ones. We could not, and would not, attempt to put these conscripts in a guard house, guard them as felons, and taken them like convicts, under guard, to the train that was to bear them to the training camp. They were their own masters during that time, although it was explained to them that they were subject to the high obligations of an American soldier. If some of them got

WALSH'S BILL TO CONTROL EXPLOSIVES

The Post's Washington Bureau. Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—Senator Walsh of Montana today presented to congress his bill to control the manufacture and sale of all explosives.

By the provision of Senator Walsh's bill the government would be able to keep a direct account of all explosives manufactured and sold in the United States and would be able, through the provisions of the bill, to check up the origin of explosives used for criminal or other purposes.

And Now—Riccardo Stracciari!

Europe has placed Stracciari's magnificent voice first among living baritones. South America, unerring in musical judgment, turned his last year's tour into a veritable triumphal procession.

His rôle for October is that of Figaro—the gay figure who struts through Rossini's immortal "Barbiere di Siviglia." He sings the classic baritone aria—"Largo al Factotum" (Make Way for the Factotum).

And how Stracciari does sing it! His robust vigor and amazing range are at their dramatic best. He puts a lustre, a dashing gaiety, a glittering brilliance into this scintillating air that surely never gleamed there before.

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff
 The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
 Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
 You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
 You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.
