A Special Selling of Suits, Coats and Dresses For Saturday That Represents True Hennessy Value

These garments were not purchased to sell at a low price—they are not sale goods. They are selected from our regular stocks of autumn apparel and priced at these figures in order to move them quickly. Up to this week we have had no fall weather—the season is late—and now that the days are growing colder we are anxious to add impetus to the fall buying. Hence these prices, which are true Hennessy values and authentic Hennessy styles. Select your needs today. A visit to the Fashion Salon will satisfy you that these are worth far more than is being asked.

COATS $19.75

Coats of velour and broadcloth and splendid heavy mixtures—and all in the new colors. There are reindeer, taupe and beetroot—most popular of the soft fall shades are these. Some of the coats are full lined—others half lined—many novel big pockets and clever belting effects. They are $25 and $35 garments selling at only $19.75

NEW SUITS $22.50

These are all handsome fall models of cheviot, serge, poplin and soft homespun, showing the popular long coats. Every color that has attained popularity this year is shown—Oxford gray, navy, black and green are prominent. They are cleverly trimmed in braid and fancy buttons; some are plain tailored, others in semi-tailored effects. Truly, this is an opportunity to select a fashionable suit to your own individual taste that does not often present itself so early in the year. They are worth much more. Selling at $22.50

DRESSES $17.50
