When Fanucci stepped out of a box car in the Northern Pacific depot a few nights ago he was arrested by Officer Barney King. When searched a revolver was found on him. lines in attacks which almost invariably are repulsed with heavy German losses. Two attacks by the Germans in the Croune sector, on the Aisne front, last night were repulsed. Efforts by the Germans on two occasions to recapture trenches which they had lost in the Beaumont region, on the Verdun front, also were unsuccessful. Despite the intensity of last night's air raid on England, the official figures show that the four groups of German airmen, making their sixth attack in eight days, inflicted comparatively few casualties by the bombs they dropped.

German Cities Bombed.

While the British are urging reprisals for the German attacks on London, the French are actually conducting such retaliatory enterprises. On Sunday night they bombarded the German city of Stuttgart, 100 miles behind the front, and last night the reprisals were continued on a larger scale. Stuttgart was again visited by French airmen, and the Prussian city of Frankfurt-on-the-Main, with about 200,000 population and more than 125 miles from the French border, also was subjected to aerial attack. The Prussian cities of Treves and Coblenz were

BELEIVE GERMANY WILL MAKE NEW RUSSIAN MOVE

Copenhagen, Oct. 2.—Major Morah, the usually well-informed military critic of the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, predicts further offensive movements with limited objectives against the Russians on the lines of the recent advances in the Riga and Jacobstadt sectors. Apparently he believes that defensive warfare has not been abandoned in the west. He agrees with General von Freytag-Loringhoven, chief of the supplementary general staff, that the general initiative must remain with the entente. Major Morah dismisses reports of American military help for the entente as "imaginary."
