THRIFT—What Is It?

Thrift is all of prudence, frugality, industry, saving and "then some." Thrift is the instinct of the squirrel that knows nutting is out of season in winter. Thrift is the antidote for worry, the most distressing of human emotions. To worry about the future is common to man—but not to animals. They work for the future and plan for it. Thrift avoids the worries of life as no other habit can. Thrift makes for strength, happiness and success. It is the surest foundation upon which a person can build. It is the result of thoughtful choosing.

BOARDS MARKING TIME THIS WEEK

Waiting for Final Entrainment Orders for Last Draft Contingent.

Both the city and county exemption boards are marking time until the final orders arrive that will send the last contingent of drafted men to Camp Lewis. The city board today has been investigating exemption claims that were held up earlier in the week when it appeared that investigation might bring in additional evidence. The county board finished the certification of men who have passed the physical tests and who have not claimed exemption. The city last night issued a call for re-examination to all men who had been examined in the past week and rejected by the physicians. The county board has made public the list of men who have successfully passed the physical tests.

Each day's work at the offices of the two boards brings to notice a few more men who have been arrested as slackers. The men, as fast as arrested, are registered and sent to Camp Lewis as part of the quota of the city or county. No less than 20 such men have been sent to the camp in the past week. The boards have declined to make public the names of these men.

Until final orders arrive from Helena, the boards will not know the exact number of men who will be called upon to make up the final and fourth contingent. It is believed, however, that the county will send between 100 and 120 men, the city between 165 and 180 men.

Clerks in the employ of the exemption boards were carrying with them today a number of tickets for the dance which will be held at the Palladium hall on the night of Nov. 2, the funds to go toward buying athletic equipment for the Silver Bow county and Butte men at Camp Lewis. Many of the tickets already have been sold. The tickets are $1 each. The dance is being arranged by the Neighbors of Woodcraft and the Woodmen of the World.

The city exemption board, at its meeting yesterday, allowed the following exemption claims: John Francis Murphy, Edgar Price, William Thomas McCarthy, James Rogers, John Edgerston Wild, James Philip Thibodeau, Harry A. Seadort, Cornelius Walsh, Kenneth Gardner, Evan Joseph G. Sullivan, William Timothy Brady, John E. Robson, Leo B. Lyons, Neal A. Ward, John Tomich, Richard A. Malloy.

Claims denied were: Philip Sevros, Yakov Yankovich, Radovan Bozovich, Mike Popovce, Sam Smith, Lazar Matich.

THE REAL SPIRIT STILL LIVES ON

Splendid Letter From Traveling Man Who Enlisted in Nation's Work.

R. J. Williams of this city has received the following most interesting and inspiring letter from the J. Jacks, traveling man for the Paraffine Paint company, with headquarters in Los Angeles, Mr. Jacks is very well known in this city and the letter was read full at the meeting of the Rotary club today. It follows and should prove an incentive to all patriotic Americans:

"Dear Sir, many times during my life I have written letters that were hard to write, but I think this one is the most difficult.

"Yesterday I was downtown and saw the boys marching away to prepare themselves to fight for the great country on earth and the thought came to me stronger than ever before why should you, a big, strong, physically perfect specimen of American manhood, stand here and not do your share? I went home last night with that question in my mind and I stayed with me all through the night and I woke up this morning with my mind made up to do the thing that I should have done a long time ago, just as all the Jacks have done for generations back to enlist and do my share.

"You can't imagine what a battle it was to give up a position that holds honors for you in the near future, to leave all the people that you like the most, your home, everything. You have been awfully good to me in the past and I hope you will be good to me in the future, but I have decided that it is my sacred duty to the country that has sheltered me and mine in safety and peace for ages, so today I enlisted in the aviation corps as an aviator in active service. I will not be called for two or three weeks to go into training. I shall see you again and with my work and try to have everything in tip top shape when I leave.

"The question of going into something that is almost sure death is a big thing, Mr. Williams. The death rate in the aviation corps is very high, but I don't regret the fact that I have lived as a carefree life up to this time and I'd hate to have Him think that I would not come to Him at any time before and now that it looks as though I was going to have to meet my Maker, I come to Him like a coward.

"I know that you, as a friend, will feel about all this and will realize that it is up to such fellows as myself to preserve the democracy of the world. I just couldn't wait to be drafted, Mr. Williams. This country never has had to make a Jack go to war and I'd hate to be the one to start it at this late date. I trust that I will be able to see you before I go and personally tell you how I appreciate the many kindnesses shown me.

"Yours most sincerely,
 (Signed) 'R. L. JACKS'

"THE TAR HEEL WARRIOR"

Honor is no empty word below Mason and Dixon's line. For generations men have stood or fallen by the standard of conduct which it measures, and old Colonel Dabney Mills was no exception. An aristocrat "befoah the war, sah!" he valued honor more than life, and when circumstances led him to steal $5,000 there was only one way to clear his name.

MUCH COMFORT FOR CAMP LEWIS BOYS

Barracks Are Very Satisfactory Writes Stanley Coulsey.

The quarters and bedding in the barracks at Camp Lewis, American Lake, Washington, where the Butte contingents have been taken for training in the national army, are very comfortable, according to Stanley Coulsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Coulsey of this city, who was a member of the second contingent. Mr. Coulsey senior is a well known builder and contractor of the city and is now engaged building a school at Bamsay. The young man is also well known in Butte and his many friends will be pleased to hear that he is enjoying the stay at the camp very much and is perfectly satisfied.

His mother, hearing reports that no bedding was provided for the boys, wrote him an inquiry and he responded as follows:

"No, mother, I don't have to sleep on the ground. We have great big comfortable barracks to sleep and eat in and cots with springs on them and two military blankets and one big heavy blanket. So you see we are quite comfortable and warm.

"Mr. Coulsey, Jr. then goes on to tell of attending a football game and how the band of the company was present and of the college cheers that were given and of the entertainments staged by the Y. M. C. A. and of the real fine time the boys are having while being trained for the more serious duties of the war."

A SURE WINNER.

"I've been struck at different times on cotton, tobacco, oranges and corn." "Well?" "Now I think I'll invest in a coal mine. That crop is never a failure, and there's always a demand for the output."—Kansas City Journal.

FIRST CASUALTIES ON AMERICAN WARSHIP

U. S. Destroyer Torpedoed But Makes Port—One Man Killed.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The story of the first casualties of the war aboard an American warship was told today in the published announcement by the navy department of the torpedoing of a United States destroyer in the European war zone by an enemy submarine. The casualties were one killed and five slightly wounded. The destroyer made port in damaged condition.

News of the incident, which occurred Oct. 18, was flashed to the navy department last night by Vice Admiral Sims. A detailed report from Admiral Sims is being awaited by the department.

VON BUELOW TO BE THE SUCCESSOR OF MICHAELIS

prospects that the two branches of the party will be united.

At yesterday's session Hermann Mueller of the executive committee said Alsace-Lorraine under no circumstances could be made a subject of discussion in the peace negotiations and that these provinces could be restored only from a completely defeated Germany.

Dr. Eduard David, reichstag member, declared the war could not be ended by submarines. Germany had not been spared a fourth war winter through the operation of the U-boat, he said, and would not be able to force peace upon England in a few months, as the Pan-Germans claimed, or even in one or two years.

FIRM IN POLICY AGAINST CONQUEST ANNEXATIONS

Amsterdam, Oct. 18.—Speaking of the Russian provinces of Courland and Livonia, Philipp Scheidemann, the socialist leader, said at the Wurzberg conference: "Union of these territories with Germany, which has been demanded repeatedly, cannot be contemplated."

Herr Scheidemann said provisional regulation of the affairs of the provinces had been effected in accordance with the resolution of the reichstag main committee, which declared against annexations. Although Riga had German characteristics, he added, the Germans formed only a small portion of the population. The conference, by a vote of 284 to 26, rejected a motion binding the party to vote against war credits in the reichstag.

A resolution was submitted signed by 118 delegates, demanding the restoration of Belgium and protesting against division of Alsace-Lorraine.

PRUSSIAN FRANCHISE REFORM WILL BE DELAYED

Copenhagen, Oct. 18.—The Prussian diet reassembled yesterday to be met by the news that the franchise reform bill, which the emperor ordered submitted in time so that new elections could be held under the new system, probably would not be ready before December. At best, only the formal first reading is expected before Christmas and there is little chance that the debates can be concluded before the diet expires.

HUNGARIAN PAINTER MUST BE INTERNED

London, Oct. 18.—The Central News says it understands that the appeal of Philip Alexius Laszlo De London, a popular Hungarian painter, well known in the United States, against internment, has failed.

POHL CASE RESTS PROBE CONTINUES

No New Moves by Federal Officials. But All Reports Are Being Searched.

The status quo of the case of Carl Pohl, native Prussian and Canadian citizen who is held by federal authorities on a charge of violation of immigration laws, has not changed in the last 2 hours, except that Pohl has been permitted to engage an attorney.

Attorney A. B. Melner was in conference with Pohl last night, according to members of the sheriff's force, and Mrs. Pohl, wife of the prisoner, will now be allowed to visit him in the county jail. It is expected that Pohl will be moved from the old to the new county jail today or tomorrow.

Pohl still was unwilling today to make a statement in connection with his arrest or his alleged activities in Butte during the past seven months, more than to state that he is sorry that persons other than himself have been dragged into the matter. He still asserts that his arrest is without sufficient reason and intimates that he may have further statements to make following other conferences with attorneys.

The members of the district attorney's force, as well as Immigration Inspector Topping, today gave the same statements as those given yesterday—that Pohl will be prosecuted under an immigration charge. The man's trial will be the time for the bringing out of other important angles of his case, it is hinted. The district attorney's men said today that they are working with all energy in investigating Pohl's activities in Butte and his connection, if any, with the work of German agents here. All rumors and reports in connection with the case are being investigated for what they are worth.

PROHIBITION IN ST. LOUIS.

In St. Louis there is one ward that is full of breweries and Germans. In a recent election the local option question was up. After the election some Germans were counting out the votes. One German was calling off and another taking down the option votes. The first German, running rapidly through the ballots, said: "Vot, vot, vot, yet." Suddenly he stopped. "Mein Gott!" he cried. "Dret!"

Then he went on—"Vot, yet, yet, yet." Presently he stopped again and mopped his brow. "Himmel!" he said. "Der son of a gun repeated."
