bread or other bakery products, nor exchange any of them for other bread or bakery products which he has sold."

Specified Weights.

Bread must be made and sold only in the specified weights or multiples of 16-ounce units, which must not run over 17 ounces, and 24-ounce units, which must not run over 25 1/2 ounces. In both cases net weights, unwrapped, 12 hours after baking. Each unit of 16 or 24 ounces must conform to these weight requirements. Rolls must be in units weighing from one to three ounces, but no rolls manufactured or offered for sale shall weigh, unwrapped, 12 hours after baking, less than one ounce or more than three ounces. These standards are to be determined by averaging weights of 25 loaves or five dozen rolls of each unit.

Mixing Dough.

In mixing dough for bread or rolls on the unit basis of 16 pounds or units of flour, meal or mixture, bakers must not use more than three pounds of cane or beet sugar, or in lieu of them, 3 1/2 pounds of corn sugar; nor more than six pounds of fresh milk from which butter fats have been extracted; nor use any shortening except not exceeding two pounds of compounds containing not more than 15 per cent of animal fats, or instead, not more than two pounds of vegetable fats. Where sweetened condensed milk is used its added sugar content shall be deducted from the net sugar allowed. Sugars or fats are not to be added to the dough during the baking process or to the bread or rolls when baked.

Make Your Own Cough Syrup and Save Money

Better than the ready-made kind. Easily prepared at home.

The finest cough syrup that money can buy, costing only about one-fifth as much as ready-made preparations, can easily be made up at home. The way it takes hold and conquers distressing coughs, throat and chest colds will really make you enthusiastic about it. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (60 cents worth). Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with granulated sugar syrup. Shake thoroughly and it is ready for use. The total cost is about 65 cents and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective, pleasant tasting remedy. It keeps perfectly.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the mucus of the chest and heals the inflamed or swollen throat membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough will disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is known the world over for its prompt healing effect on the throat membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions and don't accept anything else. A guarantee absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

POLITICAL MOVES OF FOE OUTLINED BY SEC. BAKER

military drive. In the west, while attempting to sap the fighting strength of the belligerent peoples, the enemy has now been compelled to act on the defensive and is being slowly but surely driven back.

Strengthening in West.

"It should be borne in mind, however, that the further disintegration of the Russian forces will mean that the Germans will be able to thin out their line along this front, which will thus automatically contribute to the stiffening of their defense in the west, as well as render added contingents to take part in the engagements now proceeding in Italy.

"During the week just closed, both the British and French were able to record significant tactical gains, the culmination of a long series of powerfully driven offensives.

"Fasshendale securely in British hands, the first strategic operation begun during the last week of September have been brought to a successful conclusion.

Work of the French.

"The French counterpart of the British success took place north of the Aisne. Here the retreat of the enemy anticipated last week was carried out. The pressure of the French offensive, which has grown slowly and methodically in volume and intensity, reached a climax when by the recent French advance in this sector the Germans were enabled to enfilade the German lines along the crest of the Chemin Des Dames.

"For the past three years the presence of the enemy on this ridge had been a source of anxiety to the principal objective of the repeated offensives developed by General Petain since last April. The sudden forced evacuation of some 40 square miles of most important terrain in this sector of the western front has been the tangible result achieved.

"The importance of this successful French advance must not be overlooked. It means more than a mere gain of so many square miles of territory; it means the penetration of the powerfully fortified Siegfried line hitherto considered by the enemy impregnable, and pushes back his main defensive position to within five miles of the fortress of Lion, the major objective.

In the American Sector.

"In the sector where a small detachment of our troops had taken up their places in the trenches as a part of their training, the enemy (as is customary in trench warfare when fresh troops are believed to have taken places in front line trenches), for reconnaissance purposes executed a well-planned raid and succeeded in temporarily penetrating the short segment of the line held by our forces, inflicting a few casualties and taking prisoners.

"A unit of our artillery also, in the course of its training, came in contact with the enemy and acquitted itself very creditably in this first encounter.

"In Italy the situation is developing as normally as can be expected under the circumstances.

"Along the eastern front no operations of military importance took place.

"The enemy, instead of attacking, has renewed his efforts to fraternize with the Russians. Owing to the involved political situation and the fresh outbreaks of the extremist elements, it is probable that these may have a marked influence on the general strategy of the war, which we must be prepared to meet."

THREE STATES CLAIM REDHEAD GUNNER WHO FIRED THE FIRST SHOT

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—Three states have come forward to claim as their own the red-headed gunner who fired the first American shell into the German trenches.

The first report received from the other side gave South Bend, Ind., the honor of furnishing the gunner who fired the first shot. A second report received said the gunner was an Oregon man.

Today Governor McCall of Massachusetts declared that the war department Secretary Baker had information that the man who fired this famous shot was a warning to Germany of what is to come was not only a New Englander but a resident of Massachusetts.

"The only thing the three states are agreed on," Secretary Baker later said, "is that the gunner was a redhead."

Complaint Almost Gone.

"Foley's Honey and Tar is great," writes L. W. Day, 45 Campbell avenue, East Detroit, Mich. "It relieves bronchitis quickly. My complaint has almost gone and I hope never to have it again." The experience of thousands proves there is no better remedy for coughs, colds or croup. The genuine costs no more than substitutes, and this old reliable family cough medicine should be in every home every winter. Insist on Foley's Honey and Tar—time tried and never failing. Newbro Drug Co.—Adv.

UNFAIR ADVANTAGES.

"Germany, with her submarines and so forth, gains, we must admit, some advantages in this war, but—"

The speaker was Secretary H. J. Russell of the Theological Society. He went on:

"Germany reminds me of a lad who said to his father:

"Father, today I earned two dollars—the first money I ever earned in my life."

"Good!" said the father. "And how, my boy, did you do it?"

"I lost a bet," was the reply, "and refused to pay up."

more attention to it than to rain. The commander of one battalion said that since the men had entered the trenches mumps has caused more of them to go to the hospital than has the enemy's fire. The firing in this battalion's sector has been rather more intense than is usual for several nights.

A heavy shell fell in a machine gun ammunition dump and exploded 50 boxes, bullets flying in all directions. The men nearby threw themselves on the ground and no one was hurt.

AMERICANS BECOMING EXPERT AT PATROL WORK

With the American Army in France, Monday, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—American soldiers are rapidly becoming expert at patrol work and their officers say they carry it on in No Man's land as if they had been at it for years. This is explained partly by the fact that activity in No Man's land along the sector held by the Americans virtually is open warfare, which is distinctly an American custom.

Already stories of the heroism of individual soldiers during trench raids are coming to light. A recent incident involved five privates who rushed from their dugouts as the Germans entered the trenches. Standing, kneeling and lying in front of the entrance, they fired on the enemy so successfully that they prevented the Germans who made several attempts, from entering.

THANKSGIVING DINNER ARRIVES IN FRANCE

With the American Army in France, Monday, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—A large shipment of turkeys, mince-meat, cranberries, nuts, raisins, oranges and sweet potatoes for the Thanksgiving dinner of the American soldiers has arrived in France. It will be distributed among the various instruction centers and villages where the troops are billeted. Other shipments will follow.

EXEMPTION BOARDS ASKED TO COMPILE THE RECORDS

present purpose. History will some day write the record of what you have done, and with all its details. But for the present we shall merely set together the information necessary for learning how the system has worked and how it may be improved for future drafts.

"I call upon you, therefore, to perform this further patriotic task, and as promptly as possible."

Calls for Volunteers.

Lawyers, school officials and teachers, students and professional people are urged by the provost marshal to volunteer for this patriotic work. "Your spare time of evenings for a few days" is what the government asks of such people. The larger the number of volunteers, the quicker the compilation will be finished. The work will begin as soon as Dr. Matthews and Major Maloney return to Butte from Camp Lewis.

The completed compilation in Butte will show the number of men sent to the camp, the date they were sent, their physical records, their exemption claims and action taken thereon, and the date of their certifications; the number and names of claukers and deservants, their given addresses, their appearance or non-appearance for physical examination and whether or not they have been apprehended. Other facts concerning the registration, the cost of the system, the men employed for the work and the time taken in the work will be included in the compiled statistics.

Lawyers Will Help.

In preparation for the new system of classification that board members are looking for orders on every day, a number of persons have volunteered aid. Attorney Enoch Alfrey was the first man of the legal profession to offer his services free of charge to persons in filling out the proposed question lists. The firm of Kremer, Sanders and Kremer, attorneys, through J. Bruce Kremer, offered the entire staff of his office to the government for the war duties, should they be ordered. The boards have, as yet received no definite instructions from the war department, but will separate all registered men into classes as to their liability. George Toole, counselor for the war department, is now arranging everything for the speedy performance of the work if orders are received from the provost marshal.

Declaring that men of Butte who have volunteered for the regular army since June 30 should be credited to the Butte quota, the city board yesterday through their counsel, George Toole, a notice to the governor on the subject. The communication follows:

"Under the compiled rulings of Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder, the local draft boards are entitled to receive credit on their gross quotas under the subsequent call for men who have enlisted in the national army since June 30, 1917.

"As there has been a tremendous drain of young men from this community, both under the selective service law and voluntary enlistments, we urge immediately to the due credit to this board for any future calls for men under the draft law."

The board will make an effort to obtain credit for volunteers at the time of the second draft. Should the credit be allowed, Butte's second draft will be cut in half.

C. C. Burg, a former newspaper man of Livingston, passed through Butte last night on his way to Portland, Ore., to report for military duty with the ordnance department. He stopped off for a short visit with friends here.

CONSTITIATION INVITES DISEASE

A reliable laxative is necessary to the comfort and health of every constipated household, because constipation is a greater or less degree of disease. When the bowels refuse to act the entire system is affected; digestion is impaired, and poisons generated by decomposing matters in the intestines are distributed throughout the body, and often result in serious illness. A prominent French scientist says ninety-five percent of all human disease is directly traceable to inactive bowels.

More than a quarter of a century ago Dr. W. B. Caldwell prepared a combination of simple, natural substances which is now the standard remedy for constipation of all ages. This is a bottle of Druggists for Fifty Cents. Caldwell's Great Peppermint Cure. It is a natural, safe, and pleasant, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, Elkhart, Ind.
