FEW REGRETS FOR PAINLEVE CABINET

But the Ministerial Crisis in France is Regarded as Grave.

Paris, Nov. 14.—The Painleve ministry goes without many regrets after having dragged out its existence for two months. Its fall had been discounted for the past two weeks, but the abrupt manner of its passing came as a surprise. The feeling of the public and the press is voiced fairly but bluntly by Gustave Herve in La Victoire. He says:

"The consistent enemy of ministerial crises in war time, this is the first occasion upon which this journal has rejoiced at the fall of a cabinet. I admit that I experienced the same anxiety that passengers on a liner feel when they see that the captain has lost his head during a storm."

In view of the present situation at home and abroad, the ministerial crisis is regarded as of exceptional gravity. All the morning newspapers agree that what is needed imperatively is a real leader, but they say also that President Poincare will find it a most difficult task to hit upon such a man. According to tradition, the president, in choosing the new administration, should be guided in the composition of the vote which overthrew the cabinet, but Premier Painleve was defeated by a coalition of the extreme right and the extreme left, so it is manifestly impossible to follow precedent in this instance and attempt to draw a ministry from such elements. The same motif frequently mentioned is that of former Premier Clemenceau. Former Premiers Viviani and Barthou and Jules Poin, former minister of agriculture, also are spoken of in connection with the premiership. As for former Premier Briand, his friends feel it would be better to try a new man before appealing to him.

Strong dissatisfaction with the government's handling of the Hale Pasha affair is believed to be the motive which changed the passive discontent to active opposition. The ministerial crisis comes on the eve of the interallied conference and every effort will be made to settle it quickly. President Poincare will begin consultations with political leaders tomorrow morning.

MURRAY DISPOSES OF TACOMA BANK INTERESTS

Butte Banker and Mining Man Withdraws From Washington Institution.

Special to the Post. Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 14.—James A. Murray of Butte today sold the controlling interest in the Bankers Trust company of Tacoma to the Scandinavian American bank of the city. The amount involved in the sale was not disclosed. Mr. Murray has been interested in the Bankers Trust company for a number of years. M. M. Murray, now of Butte, was formerly in charge of the institution, and E. E. Hansen, at one time manager of the M. J. Connel company store of Butte, was a director during the time Mr. Murray was actively in charge of the institution. Attorney James E. Murray, counsel for his uncle, also devoted much of his time to its affairs.

Attorney James E. Murray, who has been attending to the details of the transfer, is on his way from Tacoma and is expected to reach Butte tonight. James A. Murray was recently in Tacoma, but is at present in Arizona.

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION AGAINST BOTH HOUSES

At the instance of County Attorney Joseph E. Jackson this afternoon Judge Dwyer issued a temporary injunction and restraining order directed against George Heller, J. Ross Clark and the Clark-Montana Realty company, prohibiting the carrying on of certain alleged business contrary to the provisions of the abatement act passed at the last session of the legislature. Heller is the proprietor of a bathhouse in a building at the corner of Main and Broadway and J. Ross Clark and the Clark-Montana Realty company are the owners of the building.

TO RECOVER $304.06 FOR DAMAGE TO AUTO

The Maryland Casualty company today brought suit against Will D. Crowley and Mrs. Will D. Crowley to recover $304.06 for damage to an automobile owned by Frank Boucher and insured in the company of the plaintiff. The collision between the two automobiles occurred on the Bain Creek road and it is alleged in the complaint that Mrs. Crowley was responsible for the collision. Attorneys James E. Murray and J. F. Emigh represent the plaintiff company.

He'll never make good, I'll agree, speak of Mr. Manning. He has an aim in life, but he spends too much time in aiming.

FEARS FOR SAFETY OF CANNERY TENDER

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 14.—Fears are entertained here for the safety of the cannery tender Minnie H. of the Kodiak Packing company which left Kodiak Island in the state of Alaska Oct. 27 for Seattle, and which has not been heard from since. Eight men are aboard the boat. Soon after she left a storm swept the gulf. Yesterday a wireless message was sent to the steamer Admiral Evans, now en route from the north for Seattle, asking if anything had been seen of the Minnie H.

P. B. Foley, general claim agent for the Great Northern, with headquarters in Great Falls, is among the business visitors to the city today.

COMING TO THE AMERICAN

is a "flapper." That is American for an engaging youngster of one year before the debutante age—"coming out," you know.
Marguerite Clark plays Mary Roberts Rinehart's wonderful character of "Saturday Evening Post" fame to perfection. She is the popular ideal of young and old America—an engaging, sweetly feminine—not to say cute—little girl.
"Bab's Diary" will be the first of the "Sub-Deb Story" pictures.

PHARMACY TAKES LEAD IN THE U. S.

War Teaches Lesson Which Means for Independence in Drug Supplies.

The drug and chemical industry, which previous to the great world war had relied much upon the output of the laboratories of Germany, is now developing faster in the United States than any other industry, according to passages in the recent number of the National Association of Retail Drug-ists' Journal, which has been received by members of the association in Butte. The following passages are very interesting, not alone to the local druggists and chemists but to every one else:
"Drug, chemical and dye companies having a capital of $50,000 or over, were organized in August to the extent of $10,215,000. From Jan. 1, 1915, to Aug. 31, 1917, incorporations of drug and chemical companies have totalled $20,670,000. For the most part these concerns will manufacture dyes, stuffs and other chemicals formerly imported from Europe."
"Authoritative statistics show that the drug and chemical industry is developing faster than any other in the United States. It is confidently predicted that within two or three years this country will not only be independent of any other country for supplies, but that it will have a very large export trade. With all our natural resources and the necessary capital and enterprise there is no reason why this country should not take the lead in drug and chemical production."

ASKING FOR LETTERS.

Michael Peters with the consent of relatives today filed a petition asking for letters of administration of the estate of Daniel Gettings. The estate, consisting of real and personal property, is valued at $3,525. Gettings was suffocated in a fire in his house at Walkerville on the morning of Nov. 3 last.

IS CITED TO APPEAR.

Nick Tinchinsky has been cited to appear before Judge McClernan on Nov. 24 at the instance of his wife to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to pay alimony.

ATKINSON IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Prof. Alfred Atkinson of Bonanza, food administrator for Montana, is here attending a conference of food administrators with Herbert C. Hoover. Every phase of conservation will be discussed, also profiteering.

DR. WITHERSPOON TO BIG MEETING

Will Have Charge of Hospitals in Northwest for War Purposes.

Dr. Thomas Casey Witherspoon, chief surgeon at the Murray hospital, left last night for Washington, D. C., for another conference in connection with the American College of Surgeons on the work which is to be done by physicians throughout the country during the war.
It is understood that Dr. Witherspoon will be asked to take charge of the hospital work in this and probably in other northwestern states and will be invited to make inspections of the various hospitals at stated times to see that every hospital is maintained at maximum efficiency.
Dr. Witherspoon attended a meeting of the American College of Surgeons and at that time some hint was given of the vast work which would be undertaken by the doctors of the United States, not alone during the war in caring for soldiers, but after the war
