

A Perpetual War of Germs

In every human body there is continual strife between the forces of health and disease, while headaches, nervousness and frequent colds mean weakness and forerun sickness.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

to increase the red corpuscles of the blood and create that resistive power which thwarts colds, tonsillitis, throat troubles and rheumatism.

Scott's is high-powered medicinal-foed without drugs or alcohol. One bottle now may prevent a sickness.

The Imported Norwegian cod liver oil used in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which guarantees it free from impurities.

JEAN JORDAN WILL PASS HERE TONIGHT

Former Butte Newspaper Man on Way to Report on West Coast.

Jordan was one of the first volunteers from the city. He was placed with the coast artillery and has been rapidly advanced in the service. He is proving as good a soldier as he was formerly a newspaper man and no doubt there will be a large delegation of his friends on hand to give him a real hearty Butte greeting.

PUTTING HIM RIGHT.

Two brothers were being entertained by a rich friend. As ill-luck would have it the talk drifted away from ordinary topics.

"Do you like Omar Khayyam?" thoughtlessly asked the host, trying to make conversation. The elder brother plunged heroically into the breach.

"Pretty well," he said, "but I prefer Chianti."

Nothing more was said on this subject until the brothers were on their way home.

"Bill," said the younger brother, breaking a painful silence, "why can't you leave things that you don't understand to me? Omar Khayyam ain't a wine, you chump; it's a cheese."

UNLESS.

"Do you think, since I have promised to be Will's wife, that I ought to confess to him that I was once kissed by another—many years ago?"

"Oh, no, I don't believe it is necessary for you to tell him anything about it—unless, of course, you desire to boast."

FAIL IN PROPER COURTESY OF FLAG

Lieut. T. O. Nash Explains Obligation Concerning National Colors.

Officers of the Washington Coast Artillery troops now stationed in Butte point out that many people throughout the country fail to give the proper recognition and respect due the national flag and anthem. Many Butte persons, unfamiliar with military rules concerning the colors, have called up the coast artillery headquarters to make inquiries concerning their obligations when the national anthem is played and when the national colors are carried past them.

Lieut. T. O. Nash, adjutant of the provisional battalion now in Butte, in an interview today, explained some of the points of national courtesy that are misunderstood by many persons. "In the first place," said the adjutant, "it must be declared that many people fail in proper courtesy to the flag and anthem because of the cheapening influences that have surrounded their use. When some stage performer who can get applause no other way waves an American flag before the audience, many applaud, while usually lose respect for the showing of the colors.

"Again: when pictures are showing at some theater or when some act or other performance uses the national anthem to create a false enthusiasm, people feel that they should rise out of respect to the national anthem, yet feel a sensation of unwillingness to parade their patriotism at the whim of every actor they see. The use of the national flag and the national anthem without cause in theaters is a regrettable habit.

Not as Part of Medley.

"The national anthem should not be played except on occasions of some importance. It should never be played as a part of a medley. We have noticed orchestras and bands in Butte playing a medley of national airs and ending up with the national anthem. This is wrong. The anthem should be played by itself, simply and without variations or synopses. During such a rendition all Americans should stand with their heads uncovered. Sometimes the playing of the anthem marks the close of some program, patriotic or otherwise. As it is played many persons begin to hunt for wraps or move into the aisles. This also is discourtesy to the song of the American flag. Persons hearing the anthem should stand straight and stand still until the playing is ended.

"The playing of the anthem should be limited to the following conditions: it should be rendered only when persons who hear it are obviously able to give it the proper respect. The soldier seldom hears the anthem except at 'retreat,' when the colors are reverently lowered for the night. To the soldier the song represents the American flag in music. He stands at attention, knowing that he may hear it played under conditions where the thunder of battle demands his life and all. He learns to give the song, as well as the flag, a reverence that civilians often cannot understand."

Courtesy to Flag.

People of Butte, or at least many of them, fail to give the proper courtesy to the flag, the artillery officers believe. It was noticed yesterday, during the time that the soldiers were breaking a painful silence, "why can't you leave things that you don't understand to me? Omar Khayyam ain't a wine, you chump; it's a cheese."

"Do you think, since I have promised to be Will's wife, that I ought to confess to him that I was once kissed by another—many years ago?"

"Oh, no, I don't believe it is necessary for you to tell him anything about it—unless, of course, you desire to boast."

MY I LIKE THAT NEW DISH CALLED "CROP SUEY"

HIS BLACK EYE.

A Jersey man of a benevolent turn of mind encountered a small boy in his neighborhood, who gave evidence of having emerged but lately from a severe battle.

"I am sorry," said the man, "to see that you have a black eye, Sammy." Whereupon Sammy retorted: "You go home and be sorry for your own little boy—he's got two." Everybody's Magazine.

"LAND OF THE NILE" EXQUISITELY PORTRAYED IN "THE PRICE MARK"

Photographically speaking, "The Price Mark" in which clever Dorothy Dalton is appearing at the Rialto, tonight and tomorrow only, is one of the supreme achievements of photography.

Effects that have hitherto been impossible of achievement in photography and scenes that rival in sheer beauty the grandeur of a master's painting are seen in abundance throughout the film. The director, Roy Neill, who worked under the direct supervision of Thomas H. Ince, has spent several years of his life in Egypt, and from his own experience, as well as from numerous photographs and plans, the details of the picture were carried to a perfecting, seldom equaled.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Nature warns you when the track of health is not clear. Kidney and bladder troubles cause many annoying symptoms and great inconvenience both day and night.

Unhealthy kidneys may cause lumbago, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headaches or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffiness or dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and lose flesh.

If such conditions are permitted to continue, serious results may be expected; Kidney Trouble in its very worst form may steal upon you.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the common diseases that afflict people, are almost the last recognized by patients, who usually continue to suffer with doctoring themselves while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your aching, swollen condition, try taking a course of Swamp-Root, the famous, liver and bladder medicine, as soon as your kidneys prove, they will help the kidneys to health.

If you are already convinced that you have kidney trouble, you can purchase the regular and large size bottles at all stores. Don't make any mistake. Remember the name, Dr. Williams' Swamp-Root, and the address, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, Smallville, N. Y., which you can see on every bottle.

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out"? Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out" sensation feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Bilious? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or burning in the legs, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? All these indicate gravel or stones in the bladder, or that the poisonous microbes, which are always in your system, have attacked your kidneys.

You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the little poisonous animal germs, which are causing the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

Do not delay a minute. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In 14 hours you will feel renewed health and vigor. After you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two Capsules each day so as to keep in first-class condition, and ward off the danger of future attacks. Money refunded if they do not help you. Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand.
