Rev. Hamilton Wile, Pastor of the Zion Methodist Church, Winnipeg, Canada, says: The Swiss Hand Bell Ringers played in my church last night to the largest audience we have had at any entertainment since the Church was dedicated. There was universal appreciation of the artists and before the evening closed the Ladies Aid requested me to engage them for another entertainment as soon as possible. Their masterful manipulation of instruments, new and old, makes us feel like calling them the modern musical wizards. I may say also that we have never had anything so completely filled the bill as entertainers as they did last night. Don't forget the Musical Eckardts appear here on Tuesday, April 20, at the Opera House.

Pat McLaughlin was in town Monday from up the Muddy and put his name on the Searchlight honor roll.
