The Long Pine sheep shearing crew started out Sunday, commencing at Chas. Dumonts'.

L. H. Turberville is hauling logs for his new house on Wagon creek where he has taken up a homestead.

M. Gullickson of Sheep Mountain was seen at the Midland post-office Saturday with an extra saddle horse.

Joe McFillen, the wool buyer from Wibeau was through these parts the last week buying wool. Before leaving he purchased the clips of D. M. Tarter, Wm. Mains Jerry Gleason and Wm. Mowbray.

Wm. Mowbray found quite a freak in the shape of a lamb last Sunday morning. The head of the animal is natural but the nose comes down to a point and the mouth is back next to the throat, with an ear at each side and the eyes just in front on the under side.

While at the post-office the other day we ran across a bill which read "Grand Free Show! A Piece of Bolonia. Beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Midland Barn Loft. Everybody come. Free to All." The play was well rendered by the Redmon & Peck Dramatic Co. (HARDSCRABBLE.)
