A dance was held in the hall Friday evening where, for the first time to our knowledge the young ladies outnumbered the gentlemen. Come now boys, make up for it at the Hallow' eve dance, Sept. 29th.

"A Bank of Strength and Character."

Camp Crook, S. D., Sept. 29, 1909.
It is with pleasure that we submit to you the foregoing statement of the financial condition of this bank at the close of business September 29, 1909.

That this bank has the confidence of the general public is shown by the liberal patronage it has enjoyed from year to year, until its resources have attained a total of almost two hundred thousand dollars. That the management is satisfied is shown by the appreciation they have shown to all patronage, whether large or small, by attending to all business entrusted to them promptly and considerately.

A satisfied banking connection is one where both parties profit by the alliance, a combination of interests where mutual benefit is attained. Business relations established on this basis are lasting.

Other schemes may seem rosier—promise more—but none of them include the services of the more conservative, experienced and careful banker, and none of them have accomplished more for their stockholders and customers than has THE LITTLE MISSOURI BANK of Camp Crook, S. D.

We wish to thank the general public for their continued patronage, and solicit new business, promising careful attention in every detail.

Respectfully,

A. R. McDERMOTT, Cashier.
