GIVES HIS PROOF

PEARY GIVES HIS EVIDENCE TO THE WORLD THAT COOK DID NOT REACH POLE

SIMPLY AN ARCTIC OUTING

Two Eskimo Lads That Accompanied Cook Claim That He Never Left Sight of Land According to Peary.

New York, Oct. 13.—The carefully prepared evidence which Commander Peary has been compiling ever since his return from the north and with which he hopes to annihilate Dr. Cook's claims to having reached the pole, was made public here today. The statement and a map have been copyrighted by the Peary Arctic club.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 13.—Dr. F. A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, arrived here this morning from Cleveland. In the midst of a heavy storm he went directly to his hotel.

"I can only say that the actual living human witnesses of my journey to the pole will themselves be able to disprove the distorted declarations put into their mouths by the statements issued by Commander Peary," said Dr. Cook today to the Associated Press.

"There could not be better testimony than that given by the men themselves before an unbiased body of inquirers. Commander Peary evidently regards their evidence as of the most profound importance and so do I. It seems to me that he might have brought them along with him if he was so confident that they would corroborate his story. He, however, chose not to do so. I will therefore send for them as soon as possible and place them at the disposal of any scientific or other body that may desire to examine them with the aid of any competent interpreter, whom the examining body may appoint."

CELEBRATE N. D. BATTLE.

Beautiful Shaft is Unveiled at White-stone.

Monango, N. D., Oct. 13.—The beautiful granite shaft, commemorating the great battle of Whitestone, fought Sept. 3, 1863, by General Sully and his little frontier army against the murderous Sioux hordes who had been trailed from the horrible massacre at New Ulm, Minn., and vicinity, was unveiled at Whitestone battlefield today.

A great crowd gathered at the battle field early this morning, coming from all the surrounding towns and the country districts of this neighborhood and many coming from a distance to witness the historical event. The statue was unveiled by a daughter of Colonel Wilson of the Sixth Iowa volunteers, one of the officers of Sully's army.

Gov. John Burke was the principal speaker of the day. He reviewed the historical event which the statue commemorated and paid a tribute to the bravery and loyalty of the soldiers who gave their lives in the terrible White-stone battle. Pres. J. H. Worst of the North Dakota A. C. and a number of others also delivered addresses.

A number of the surviving members of General Sully's army were present on the spot where over forty-six years ago they fought the redskins and where they left twenty of their comrades dead on the field.

News of Montana

GIRL LEADS LABOR WAR.

Pretty Socialist Baffles Missoula Police by Passive Resistance Policy.

Missoula.—Headed by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, a pretty little socialist of New York, East Side, and now an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, a mob of 2,000 threatened the Missoula county jail demanding the release of twenty-five members of the order who had been arrested while conducting a demonstration on the streets.

An unexpected show of strength on the part of the police and the deputies of the sheriff prevented serious trouble, although many speeches were made in the jail yard and from the steps of the prison.

Gurley Flynn, as her adherents call their girl leader, was discharged from the police court today after spending two nights and days in the city prison in a charge of creating a disturbance. She contends that she will fill the jails of the city and county to overflowing with I. W. W. men, and every train is bringing volunteers for prison from Spokane, Seattle and San Francisco in which cities Gurley Flynn has formed strong organizations.

Thirty-two persons who were arrested on a charge of creating a disturbance on the streets declined to leave their cells when informed that they were at liberty today. They demanded that they be fed and given a trial.

The authorities are puzzled over the new developments in the controversy, as it is announced that the labor organization will have at least 100 speakers on the streets.

HEINZE FOES SEEK PROXIES.

Appeal Made to Shareholders in Davis-Daley Co.

Butte.—A new request for proxies for the adjourned annual meeting of the Davis-Daley Copper Co. will be sent to stockholders in behalf of interests contesting the Heinze management.

It is alleged that included in the 340,000 shares, claimed by Mr. Heinze as favorable to him, are 92,188 shares of treasury stock which does not carry a vote.

In their new appeal, the Erb-Jarvis faction will ask stockholders for their proxies that the Davis-Daley property may be taken from the unrestricted control of F. A. Heinze and H. M. Raborg. They also state that there will be no deposits in institutions where directors of the company have a personal interest; neither will favorites be retained in company's employ; and in equipping the property, there will be no second hand machinery purchased.

FIND MURDER VICTIM.

Body Was in Shallow Grave Beside Railway Track.

Billings.—The body of an unknown man, buried in a shallow grave, was found near the Burlington railroad tracks in the vicinity of Peritsa, about 50 miles from here.

The loose earth attracted the attention of a passerby and as the result of an investigation by Deputy Bateman, of Hardin, to whom the find was reported, resulted in the body of a man being found at the depth of about 18 inches. No coffin or box of any description enclosed the remains, which to all appearances had been hastily interred. The body is believed to be that of a stranger, who in all probability was a victim of foul play.

CLAIMED TO BE MURDERER.

Dying Chinaman Gave Impression He Was Elsie Siegel's Slayer.

Billings.—Hoo Sue Quong, the Chinaman who was wounded by the police and died at the city hospital, stated that he might be Leon Ling, the alleged murderer of Elsie Siegel. A comparison of the face of the dead man with a photograph of Ling was made, and although there was a resemblance there is no doubt Quong is not the man sought.

Washington, Oct. 14.—All doubt as to what action the president would take with respect to the resignation of Charles R. Crane, minister designate to China, was dispelled by the receipt this morning of a dispatch from President Taft addressed to his secretary, Mr. Carpenter, directing him to convey to Mr. Crane the announcement of the fact that the resignation had been accepted.

The telegram was dated Prescott, Ariz., Oct. 13, and reads as follows: "Convey to Mr. Crane the following communication:

Many Victims of Storm Destitute in City of Key West.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 14.—Immediate assistance from the outside world is necessary to carry on the work of cleaning up the city and caring for the victims of the hurricane of last Monday. Mayor Fogarty today announced that the city was forced to suspend work because of lack of funds.

MAY NOT BE TRIED.

Sheriff Says Mrs. Arbogast is Mentally Unbalanced.

St. Paul, Oct. 14.—Sheriff William A. Gerber doubts whether Mrs. Louis Arbogast ever will be placed on trial for the murder of her husband, Louis Arbogast, the West Seventh street putcher, who was found dead in his bed last spring. Her mental condition, the sheriff thinks, will preclude the possibility of a trial.

Sheriff Gerber says: "Physically, Mrs. Arbogast is in fine condition, but mentally she is almost a wreck. I do not believe when the court sees her real condition, it will permit her to stand trial. I believe that Mrs. Arbogast has been in practically the same mental condition for at least twenty years, and I am informed that for several years, callers at the Arbogast home have not been permitted to see her."
