The Terry Tribune and The Ismay have changed hands, this time E. H. Dowell of Fargo, taking charge. The papers have improved a great deal under the new management and we hope Mr. Dowell every success possible.

Jack Schneider is now at Ismay where he is running his new 36 horse power traction engine. He is pulling 18 plows and from reports is breaking all kinds of land in that neighborhood and expects to do the same here before long.

Dan Harris has again started his stage line and hopes to continue its operation all winter.

While anchored in mid-ocean the brakeman on the steamboat was surprised to see a young lady approach on horseback. "Please Mr. Brakeman," she said, "Stop your machine until I get my dog Wobbles off the track". "With pleasure" replied the brakie as he brought the vessel to a sudden halt which exploded a tire. "And why do you wish to save the dog" asked the brakeman. "Oh! He's going to be given away to the best looking gentleman at the Hallow' eve dance on Oct. 29th," responded the young lady as she ascended to the earth below in the wind-less parachute.

Strayed.
