The new book-keeper at the Com'l bank is arousing a good deal of interest among local business men. It is nothing but a machine "brains in a box" they call it but it was sold on a life contract to do all the adding and "figuring" required by the bank every day. Its real name is the Burroughs Adding and Listing machine and it will put down figures in long columns and add them up faster than six expert book-keepers. Moreover the makers guarantee that it cannot make a mistake as the best book-keeper will sometimes do. This makes it an insurance of the accuracy of the bank's accounts with its patrons, and shows the progressiveness of the bank officials. The cashier of the bank is greatly pleased with his new book-keeper and extends an invitation to business men to call at the bank and see how it works.

DOGS POISONED

A dog poisoner has been busy in our little town of late and as the result of his work, several pet dogs are now lying lifeless in different parts of the town.
Among those who had the misfortune to lose a pet dog through the work of this despicable uneducated person or persons, which ever it may be, are R. H.
Ferguson, Fred King and the undersigned. That a person can decend to such a low level in life seems almost an impossibility and for one to lower himself to this disgraceful and debased stage in life, it can only be true in my belief that he was spawned in a "nigger" graveyard, suckled by a sow and educated by an idiot. "Wiggles" was a harmless dog and a good companion and to know who has done and is doing this work I offer a reward of ten dollars.

A. E. Dague,
