SHORT STORIES ABOUT TOWN

Horace Hardy, wife and little daughter left Monday morning for Anoka Minn. where the little child will seek medical aid for rheumatism.

James Hurst and M. P. Rvan of Fremont, Nebr., were callers in town this week. These gentlemen have taken up land on Box, Elder and left yesterday morning for their homes where they will get their families and returne.

E. L. Hains, accountant at the First National Bank of Miles and W. T. Lakin of Lakin Bros, also of Miles City were visitors in town Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Lakin was looking up some piano sales while Mr. Hains was taking a short vacation.

Gus Malmquist wife and two children of Rapid City S. D. arrived on Monday's stage from Baker. Mr. Malmquist purchased the Commercial Hotel some time ago and is this week busy preparing to open this hostelry to the public. Announcement of the opening will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Reno Swift formerly an Ekalaka merchant but now a resident of West Cheshire Conn. was an arrival on Friday evening's stage and spent several days in town visiting with old-time friends. Mr. Swift remarked that he never saw such a great change in a town as had been going on here. He returned home Tuesday morning.
