

A BEE IN YOUR BONNET.

Not a Presidential Bee, nor a political bee of any sort, but the bee in your bonnet should be the lesson taught by the little hustler, the bee itself.

The bee is a worker. He is also a scrapper. Ever get acquainted with his business end?

He looks out for his own, stands up for his rights, but above all, he works and saves.

He does not save in an individual pile either. He goes in with others of his kind and BANKS his earnings in the hive. The bee has in all ages been considered a wise old boy—and he is. Put his plan into your bonnet, lid, Panama, or whatever kind of headpiece you may happen to wear.

It will beat the political bee at least ten different ways. Use our Bank for your Hive.

THE TRIALS OF A HONYOCK

The warm, bright spring has come once more, and the Honyok sits by his cabin door. He is thinking hard and thinking fast of things in the future as well as the past. His wife is unhappy and continues to jaw, for she wants to go back to old Arkansas. The game old sport is worried now, for he wants to buy a good milk cow; but his money is nil and so is his note, for the drought last summer got his goat. Sheep men and cow men tear their hair, and it's really a treat to hear them swear. They curse the Honyok night and day, and are mighty glad he has no hay. The Honyok's horses are poor as crows; they looked for a while like they'd turn up their toes. But the good green grass will soon be out, and then these equine will laugh and shout. The most that troubles the Honyok now is the many acres that he must plow. For Mondell said it, (on jest or joke) that eighty acres will have to be broke. But the Honyok's game and is here to stay, in spite of troubles in the way. When the grass is green on the rolling plains, and the ground is soaked with gentle rains, you'll see the Honyok out at dawn; he'll sure be here when the cowman's gone. — Ex.

PHIL'S VIEWS ON COUNTY DIVISION

The town of Ekalaka
Is jonie on de spot,
It lase in Guster County
But soon it vill be not.

Don't dink we burn de city,
Varon ve look mit prid,
No sir! dat vood be a pity;
It is de gounty ve d'wide.

Don't dink ve kanot pool it,
It is not a heavy load,
Ve shou you how to did it,
Shust kome and kast de vote.

Ve certainly are boosters
And vorking vor our town,
Ve know to fight like roosters,
Nock and ure nocked down.

If you are not akvainted,
Ve introduce you to som man,
Som reel vons vit a bacbone,
Who vill and do and can.

De duck sat on a barrell
And barked like a crow,
Kome in and pay for de paper
Vor Dahl needs some do.

I took a ride in a auto,
It made me veel vine,
Ive run out ov vords and
Kannot make dis rime.
