John Oliver returned from a trip to the western part of the state Saturday noon.

Remember the date of the holiday dance, it comes off on the 27th.—sure as pop.

R. Baily of East of Powder river was a visitor in town this week. While in Baker he purchased a Ford auto.

Wm. Nims is having an addition built onto his meat market on Main Street.

What a good thing it would be if some guy blew into town like in olden days and plugged about six-fourths of the dogs.

Don't pass up the Holiday on the 27th. Fina da music and gooda da time.

Dave Barber was over from Baker this week after his auto.

Rube Clark returned to Beach this week with a bunch of horses that he bought here this summer.

Talk about Montana weather, we haint had enough snow to cover a Lincoln penny.
