THE R. C. CHARTERS COMPANY

A marriage license was issued this week to Floyd Clark of Ekalaka and Hallie Redmon, of Midland. The marriage took place last evening presumably at the home of the bride, but further particulars at this time are not obtainable. Our star reporter, together with detectives and photographers, are on the job however, and we can assure our readers a more complete account of the affair next week.

EWALT

Clifton Sherill was visiting in Camp Crook last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmack and son Jimmie were visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Johnstone Sunday.

Mrs. Thompson and children visited at Cash Aldrich's Saturday.

Steve Brower and mother, and Thos. Johnstone and family spent Sunday with Grandma and Mrs. H. W. Ewalt.

J. E. Buchanan left this vicinity Sunday enroute for Baker.

Chas. Johnstone and wife visited Mrs. Johnstone's mother near the Chalk Buttes Saturday and Sunday.

The dance at Wm. Johnstone's last Thursday night was well attended and all report a good time.

A bunch of men in our vicinity got industrious last Saturday and moved the McCarty school house to Ewalt Draw.

Last week it was deep snow, this week it is deep gumbo and water. Rob. Burch says "It takes four vehicles to carry the mail these days, sled, wheels, boat and aeroplane, and yet Uncle Sam rejected all bids for the service. Adios Uncle."
