ELGIN

The smile has returned to the farmers face, since the rains of last week.

Mrs. Shirk returned to her home in Oregon last week after a 6 weeks visit with her daughter Mrs. Wm. Howder.

The Belle Fourche Booster Club gave a moving picture show and dance at Clark's hall Thursday night. The pictures were views of Belle Fourche. They were fine. A large crowd came out from Ekalaka.

A great many in this vicinity lost stock by the lightning Tuesday afternoon, and a number of dams were taken out by the high water.

The small grain harvest is nearly completed in this section. It will be very light.

The dance at the Fiske Bowery Saturday night was well attended. There will be another one Aug. 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Buckmaster will leave for their home in Creighton, Neb., Tuesday morning. They have been visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood the past two weeks.

Fred Hight had the misfortune to injure his hand quite badly in a threshing machine last week.

Quite a number are making preparations to go to the harvest fields in North Dakota to work.

Mrs. Gen Swcency is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Arpan.

Geo. Sykes made a trip to the county seat Saturday.

LAKESIDE

Threshing is the chief occupation in this neighborhood these days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hubbard spent Sunday in Prairie Dale vicinity as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rice.

Chester Hill and daughter of Mineo, Oklahoma, are here for an extended visit at the Jack and Nelson Hill homes.

Miss Miriam Pangburn helped Mrs. Ege and Mrs. Bourn cook for threshers.

The Sunday school social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rawson's Friday evening wasn't very well attended owing to the threshing season, but those present report a very pleasant time, especially those who took part in the races.

James Myrick came out from Ekalaka and spent a few days on his homestead.

Little Ruby Hamilton who was badly burned about ten days ago by upsetting a pan of hot soap over herself, is improving and able to walk again.
