

mention as a remarkable fact that since Mr. Tibbey took charge, there has not been even a minor accident occur in the Parrot. This proves that the timbering, ventilation and system are excellent, and while the superintendent acknowledges that he has got much to learn, it is safe to say that he has utilized the information he has thus far acquired to the best advantage.

THE RISING STAR.

Another Property Which is Showing up in Fine Condition.

The Rising Star is situated immediately west of the Moulton and between that and the Union Consolidated. A perpendicular, two-compartment shaft has been sunk to a depth of 500 feet, and connection for purposes of ventilation, and for the safety of the men, has been made with the Moulton. On the 500 level the ledge has been opened up for a considerable distance, showing a very handsome vein of high-grade ore, and maintaining about the same width and value as in the upper workings. During the year considerable ore has been worked from the mine, but at present only about ten tons per day of 847-ore is being taken out, which is piled up and saved for future use. The company anticipates building a mill early in the coming summer, and then the Star will speak for itself in better terms than wordy praise.

DOVENSPECK & CO.

N. J. Dovenspeck, Ralph A. Louis and George Lemmenhart,

Butchers and wholesale and retail dealers in beef, mutton and pork. No. 11 East Broadway. As will be seen from the above heading, the gentlemen whose names appear above, are associated as a partnership, under the firm name of Dovenspeck & Co., and do a large business, in the way of supplying mines, hotels, boarding houses and families with meats of all kinds. These gentlemen are full practical business men and butchers, with a thorough knowledge of their business, and with ample facilities for carrying on the same. They buy cattle in large droves, and slaughter only those that are in good, healthy condition, which accounts for the choice beef with which their stalls are laden. This applies equally to the pork and mutton, and they guarantee every pound of meat they sell to be from good healthy cattle, sheep or hogs, as the case may be.

They have a large and commodious slaughter house on the Little Butte, three miles from this city, at which all of their slaughtering is done, and in connection therewith they have a corral covering several acres, in which is kept the cattle, hogs and sheep preparatory to being slaughtered. Those who are desirous of buying choice meats at reasonable prices will do well to give Dovenspeck & Co. a trial.

John Caplice & Co., Grocers and General Merchants.

The excellent standing and commercial credit possessed by the merchants of Butte City has been brought about by the promptness and integrity of the pioneer business houses. The concern of John Caplice & Co. is probably the very best known commercial institution in the Territory, so well that their names and character of their business are household words. Their large stores on the east side of Main, between Granite and Quartz streets, are thronged with purchasing patrons, from the time of their opening in the morning until the doors are closed at night. People are not slow in appreciating superior facilities, rare business ability, and advantages offered by dealers of the magnitude of the above firm and bestow their patronage accordingly. The establishment of the above concern is complete, large and admirably arranged and managed, for the conducting of a large trade. The years of business in this city have been fraught with marvelous success, and to no one has it come in larger or more justly deserved measure than to John Caplice & Co. These gentlemen have in stock the most extensive and complete line of groceries to be found in the city, staple and fancy, produce, provisions, flours of the choicest brands, vegetables and every article that in any way pertains to that trade. They have also a large and well selected stock of boots and shoes, men's and youths' clothing and furnishing goods, all bought expressly to meet the demands of the trade in this camp, and what firm knows the wants of the people here as well? They are doing a large business and richly merit the success with which they are meeting.
