

TETON COMMERCIAL COMPANY

Good Things To Eat—Good Things To Wear

We buy for cash and sell for cash, thereby saving you money. Look over this list and see if it doesn't mean dollars and cents to every home in this section

Big F Flour, per cwt.	$3.00
Belle of Flathead Flour	3.00
Bran, per hundred	1.35
Ground Feed, per cwt.	1.50
12 pounds Sugar	1.00
A-No.-1 Bulk Coffee	25c
Ham, per pound	20c
Bacon, per pound	22c
Tomatoes, per case	$2.75
Corn, per case	2.25
Peas, per case	2.50
6 bars Laundry Soap	25c
Milk, per can	10c
50c Wool Socks	35c

10 Per Cent Discount on Shoes

33 1-3 Per Cent Discount on Men's Suits

25 Per Cent Discount on Boys' Suits

Car of Wenatchee Apples

We have just received a carload of fine big Wenatchee Winter Apples. These apples are packed in 60-pound boxes and are equal in weight to a box and a half of the regular size

A 60-Pound Box For $1.75

Pioneer Press
Publicity Pays

Household Goods For Sale . . .

Full Bedroom Set
Large Range and Heater
Kitchen Cabinet
Dining Room Set, Including
China Closet
Sectional Bookcase
Rocking Chairs, Rugs
Davenport
Large Center Table and other articles too numerous to mention.

All the above will be sold at private sale on or before January 10. Call and select what you need at once.

C. R. JACKSON

NOTICE

I beg to advise the public that I am now prepared to do Custom Feed Grinding in the Case Bldg., Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week.

GEO. POOR

Money to loan on farms around Cut Bank. Bruce R. McNamer.

Attorney Torrison is in Great Falls on business.

16-inch dried pine wood for sale. Call at the Harness Shop.

Miss Ida Mohandro returned Sunday from her home at Kalispell.

Mrs. R. Chasse was a business visitor at Glacier Park last Monday.

R. C. Rasmussen left early in the week for his big ranch near Trego, Mont.

WANTED—500,000 pounds good oats. Will pay 90c to $1.00 f. o. b. our elevator. Cut Bank Grain Co.

Fred Neidhart has succeeded Romeo Narducci as Jim Hill's confidential secretary at the local station.

Dr. S. R. Turner, who recently sold his dental business here, has opened an office at Three Forks, Montana.

The Cut Bank Telephone Company has issued a new directory, which is a great convenience to subscribers.

Lost—Black auto gauntlet, last Monday in Cut Bank. Name inside gauntlet, T. J. Sollom. Finder leave at Pioneer Press.

Henry O. Peterson of Headlight and Miss May Blythe, who has been teaching in Pleasant Valley, were married at Great Falls this week.

Old General Winter showed his ability to come back Tuesday night. Judge Thomas, the local weather man, reported a temperature of 34 degrees below zero.

"The Merchant of Venice," presented here recently by our high school students, will be presented tonight in Browning with the same cast. The players departed last evening.

The Sweet Grass Advocate states that sixty-eight carloads of grain have been shipped in bond over the C. P. R. from that point and that ten cars were shipped south over the Great Northern.

Postmaster Rigney reports that the money order business at the local office amounted to nearly ten thousand dollars in the month of November. This, with other business of the office, kept our hustling postmaster extremely busy.

Readers of the Pioneer Press this week receive the complete report of the county commissioners' proceedings at the December term. This service is supplied free to our readers and as the December term is a very important one, this feature should be of interest to every taxpayer in this section.

S. E. Albin, president emeritus of the Pioneer Press chapel, is spending a few days in town, having recently returned, with his son Harold, from a short visit in California. Mr. Albin cannot resist the smell of printer's ink and has been holding down a "case" in the shop during his spare moments, greatly to the delight of the force.

"Judy Forgot," featuring the celebrated actress, Marie Cahill, shown at the Electric theatre Wednesday evening, was one of the best films seen here for some time. Manager Iverson is showing these Broadway Features every Wednesday and a Fox Feature on Sundays. Next Sunday's feature will be "Children of the Ghettos," Israel Zangwill's masterpiece, in five reels, played by Wilton Lackaye.

Meet me this evening at Bob's Smoke house.

Andy Hoiland is visiting with his family at Kalispell.

Don't miss the big Leap Year Dance at Brown's Hall tomorrow night.

Earl Baillie returned Monday from a short visit at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. McNamer are visiting relatives in Great Falls this week.

Miss Gladys Furey of St. Paul arrived here Monday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. A. R. Foote.

Frank Stufft returned Tuesday from the Flathead country, where he spent the Holidays with his father.

LOST—Bunch of keys. Tag with name of Anna Leo. Finder return to this office and get liberal reward.

Harold Albin is operating the picture machine at the Electric theatre, during the illness of Manager Iverson.

Miss Celia Nicholas of Seattle, arrived Monday to take charge of the switchboard at the telephone office. Hello!

On account of a breakdown to the engine at the Electric theatre, power is being supplied from George Poor's feed mill.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Margaret's Church will give a card party at Electric hall, January 27. Everybody invited. Lunch will be served.

Mrs. Alfred Klein and little son, and mother returned last week after a visit of several months at their old home in Baltimore, Md. While there Mrs. Klein underwent medical treatment and returns much improved in health.

The New Year's dance last Friday evening at Brown's hall was a very successful affair, and a large number of local dance lovers were in attendance. The music was good and the young folks danced the old year out "and then some."

Two Medicine Lodge No. 94, I. O. O. F., installed officers and exemplified the Initiatory degree at their hall last evening. All members present report a splendid meeting. The following officers were installed: John Erickson, N. G. Alfred Klein, V. G. H. G. Putt, Secretary. P. A. Davis, Fin. Secretary. H. Halvorson, Treasurer.

The Secretary requests all members to attend the meetings, which are held on Thursday evening of each week.

The young people's service at the Presbyterian Church Sunday evening was well attended and was enjoyed by all present. The main feature of the program was an address on "The Christian Call to the Young People of Today" by Martin E. VanDemark. Martin is studying for the ministry and he made a good job of his address Sunday evening, leaving many things for his young hearers to consider. A cornet solo by Robert Rasmussen was one of the special numbers.

LOST—6 head horses, all branded on left stifle.

2 bukskins—mare and gelding
1 bay mare
1 brown leggy horse
1 brown filly
1 half-breed Shetland pony, bay.

$25 reward for return to Hagerty ranch. Mike Stubblefield 12-31-3t Cut Bank, Mont.

Put On Storm Doors and Windows

and reduce your coal bills.
This yard has a good assortment of storm doors and windows, for all the standard sizes.

Let us fill your bin with high quality coal.

THE BIG RED SHED

COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON

§

MAY THE COMING YEAR BE THE BEST YOU HAVE EVER SEEN AND THE WORST YOU WILL EVER SEE

§

CUT BANK HARDWARE COMPANY

LEAP YEAR DANCE

Under the Auspices of
The Lady Maccabees
FRIDAY, JAN. 14th
BROWN'S HALL
ORCHESTRA MUSIC

HIDES, Furs, Pelts, Wool
Realize highest market price by shipping to
WALKER & ANDERSCH
P. O. BOX 226 GREAT FALLS, MONT. PHONE 6206

JOB PRINTING—THE KIND THAT PLEASES—AT THE PIONEER PRESS OFFICE