

Editorial Comment

Bryan butts, Wilson tuts.
 Watchful waiting maketh woeful wanting.
 Candidate Hughes doesn't talk like a tut-tutter.
 Hughes is hammering and the Democrats are jammering.
 The Wilson Administration stands for taxes, and more taxes.
 The Hughes trail will be cold by the time the Democrats strike it.
 As a party leader, would it be fair to refer to J. Ham Lewis as J. "Pork" Lewis?
 Bryan says Mr. Hughes' talks aren't judicial. No. The people can understand 'em perfectly.
 Can the folks on the Democratic band wagon continue to play by the President's notes?
 Hughes says the country can't be saved by letting it drift. That's where he and W. Wilson differ.
 Washington reports that a new apology has been sent to First Chief Caranza. Looks like a habit.
 Mr. Bryan is mistaken when he says Hughes is "vitrilic." The candidate is merely applying the acid test.
 A messenger of President Wilson found out that Colorado women were for the administration. No messenger, of course, can be blamed for making good.
 Political opponents are beginning to find that why Mr. Hughes kept silence so long wasn't because he had lost his tongue.
 Another encouraging feature about our new navy is that when it is completed, Mr. Daniels will not be Secretary of it.
 Having discovered that the Democrats don't like what he is saying, Mr. Hughes doubtless is convinced that he is on the right track.

Political Jottings

Mr. McCormick follows the same method in claiming credit for legislation he does in his predictions. He includes several acts of the Taft Administration.
 The Democratic press is convinced that it is the duty of Mr. Hughes to say something that will hurt his chance of being elected.
 President Wilson in his acceptance speech may reply to Mr. Hughes' charges, but he will not answer them. That is an entirely different matter.
 It is reported from Washington that the Administration will ignore most of Mr. Hughes' charges. That is very much the easiest way for it to answer them.
 Governor Hughes announces in one of his speeches that he is a constructionist. But we are willing to admit that so far as Democratic policies are concerned he is a destructionist.
 Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy announces that he will retire after the campaign. It is believed that many other more or less distinguished Democrats will follow his example.
 Grover Cleveland was the last Democratic President. He was also the last President to issue bonds to secure money to defray the running expenses of the government. But Wilson will tie him in this.
 President Wilson will be notified of the Democratic nomination at Shadow Lawn. This seems a most appropriate place for letting him know that he will shortly have to give up his place in the sun.
 President Wilson will not make any speaking dates, we are told, but only separate engagements for addresses, considering a "speaking tour" undignified. "Too proud to fight."
 What Josephine Daniels, the well-known nautical millitant, can't understand is why men should waste time, Plattsburging at sea when they might just as well learn how to become sailors in three lessons in any good, reliable correspondence school.

The Great Falls Tribune is in many respects an excellent daily newspaper. It is, in fact, the only daily paper published in this part of Montana that has any degree of popularity or prestige. It is boss of the newspaper field of northern Montana; that fact will be generally conceded. The other Great Falls daily is a sort of dim constellation that revolves about the Tribune by the good graces of that publication—for the very good reason that the Tribune has a financial interest in its contemporary, the directorate of the papers being interlocking, so we understand. This relation of the Great Falls papers is dwelt upon to make a point. That point is that since the Tribune controls the northern Montana newspaper field, an enviable position indeed, it would seem that a more temperate and just political policy would be adopted, for the reason that its reading clientele, people of all political parties, are almost compelled to purchase it. The alternative offered being the Tribune's weaker sister auxiliary.

We have stated that the Tribune is in many respects an excellent newspaper: This is viewing it from a purely non-political standpoint. Its political policy is narrow, parochial and pettifogging. Both editorially and in its news pages it deliberately garbles, twists and distorts. It plays up the most inconsequential matters that it believes will redound to the advantage of its party on first page and other matters of great moment that might be of advantage to the republican party are shoved off into an obscure corner of the paper. This is pettifogging in its truest sense.

Some time ago the Tribune jumped all over its meek auxiliary for referring to Senator Myers as "Mr. Myers," contending that it was undignified. For more than a month it (the Tribune) has been referring to Mr. Hughes, the republican presidential candidate, as "Charley." Isn't this consistency of purest ray serener?

It is to be deplored that a paper occupying the proud place of the Tribune, in a great and growing field and patronized by a class whose intelligence is nowhere surpassed, should indulge in rancorous political bigotry, specious argument and "doctoring" of its news pages in a desire to further the fortunes of the party to which it professes adherence. It is not in keeping with the policies or traditions of the biggest and best dailies of this country. We doubt that it will further the ends desired. And even though it should, will the political gain compensate for prestige lost? If the Tribune is to continue to serve its present field it must change its tactics. A daily or weekly newspaper that takes a fair and firm stand on political issues is respected and admired by those who do not hold to the same political views. But the public expects fair discussion and an unbiased news service. The control of a weak republican contemporary and its franchise will not suffice unless it adopts a more tolerant attitude on political questions.

The elimination of those political parasites, the deputy game wardens, as advocated in the republican state platform, will meet with approval. Has any one in "these parts" ever seen a flesh and blood warden, or has anyone ever heard of a violator of the game laws being caught up by one?

Tommy Busey, commenting on the republican committee meeting at Conrad last week, gave a perfect imitation of Niobe in Tears. Tommy's tears for the republican party are closely akin to those of a crocodile that has spied a fat "nigger" emerging from the cane brakes.

That fellow out near the boundary who didn't know about the European war is compensated in at least one respect for his blissful ignorance. He hasn't heard that knitting-party slogan. "He has kept us out of war."

If prohibition sentiment weren't so strong in this section the editor might be tempted to mention the Full Harvest Moon.

Act Quickly

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Cut Bank.
 Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective. Plenty of evidence of their worth. Mrs. D. F. McClelland, 241 E. Railroad St., Minto, Mont., says: "For several years I had kidney trouble and everything I tried failed to help me. My kidneys acted too freely and lumbago played havoc with my back. The kidney secretions were distressing in passage and my whole system was affected. Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief from the first, seven boxes curing me." (Statement given December 18, 1907.)
 OVER FOUR YEARS LATER, Mrs. McClelland said: "Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of kidney trouble and I have had no return attacks."
 Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. McClelland has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
