

GUARD ATTACKED

MCKINLEY'S VAULT THE SCENE OF A DESPERATE NIGHT ENCOUNTER.

SENTRY FIRES A SHOT AT A MAN

ANOTHER MAN DIVERTS THE SHOT AND TRIES TO STAB THE SENTRY.

MEN MAKE GOOD THEIR ESCAPE

INCENDIARY CONVERSATIONS RECENTLY HEARD AMONG VISITORS.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 1. — A strange story comes from Westlawn cemetery, where a company of regulars from Fort Wayne, Mich., are guarding the vault in which the body of the late President McKinley lies. It is to the effect that a guard on duty on top of the vault fired a shot at one man who refused to heed his challenge; that the shot was diverted by another man who appeared from another direction and that an effort was made to stab the guard. Military regulations prevent either the officers or the men of the post from being quoted on any matter connected with their service, and for this reason Capt. Biddle, who is in command, was obliged to decline to be quoted at the camp last night. He will at once make a full report to his superiors. Reliable authorities made the following statement:

Private Deprend was on guard duty on top of the vault at a point commanding the entrance below and the approach from the rear. Shortly before 7:30 he saw what he took to be peering from behind a tree about forty feet from his post. He watched it for twenty minutes, he says, and at 7:45 saw the man hurry to a tree ten feet nearer. He challenged the man to halt but this was not heeded and the fellow approached nearer. Deprend leveled his gun and aimed to shoot for effect, but just at that instant another man who came toward him from the opposite side, caught the gun, threw it up and the bullet was spent in the air. This same man struck Deprend on the right side of the abdomen with a knife or other sharp weapon, cutting an "L"-shaped gash in his overcoat an inch and a half long each way and a small one in his blouse. The flesh was not broken but was bruised under the cuts in the clothing. Deprend, in the struggle, fell and rolled down the side of the vault. Lieut. Ashbridge, officer of the day, was in front of the vault and rushed to the top on hearing the shot, but the men made good their escape. All members of the company on hearing the shot hurried to the vault, and besides searching the cemetery

The Face of a Man

The Guard Was Increased.

Deprend is a recruit enlisted in New York about four months ago. He is said to be an excellent soldier and to have a fine record with his officers. He says the man who attacked him was masked but that the first one he saw was not masked. He says the latter carried a white package in his right hand and something that glittered in his left. Since the incident stories have been told in camp of some incendiary conversations overheard in the crowds that have visited the cemetery, including one yesterday alleging that some stranger said: "Lots of people would like to see this whole thing blown up."

There are seventy soldiers at the cemetery, twenty of whom are constantly on guard doing duty about the vault and camp.

Stories regarding the incident when they reached the city were connected with the jail delivery that occurred about the same time. While there seems to be no doubt that at least two prowlers attempted to reach the vault there is much difference of opinion as to the object of the intruders who evidently made good their escape.

CARRY LUXURIES.

One Reason British Are So Slow in South Africa.

London, Oct. 1. — Perhaps one of the reasons that the British who are so frequently reported as being in pursuit fail to overtake the Boers in South Africa is found in a remarkable army order recently issued by Lord Kitchener, as follows: "The commander-in-chief in South Africa desires to impress officers in command of mobile columns that the object of such columns is mobility, and that he has learned that such forces carry with them furniture, kitchen ranges, pianos and harmoniums, which nullify that object. These articles must be handed over to the nearest stores."

YELLS IN TERROR

CZOLGOSZ COLLAPSES WHEN TAKEN INTO THE AUBURN PRISON.

DEPUTIES HAD TO CARRY HIM

MADE THE PRISON CORRIDORS ECHO WITH HIS YELLS AND CRIES.

COLLAPSE WAS A BIG SURPRISE

ASSASSIN SAYS HE IS SORRY FOR MRS. MCKINLEY AND HIS FATHER.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 29. — Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, collapsed when he entered the prison. Two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry him. He was placed in a sitting posture on the bench while the handcuffs were being removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unlocked the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners, the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes. During this operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidences of his terror. The prison physician, Dr. John Gerin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in

The Condemned Row. which he will occupy until he is taken to the electric chair. The doctor declared that the man was suffering from fright and terror, but said that he was shamming to some extent. The collapse of the murderer was a surprise to every one. En route from Buffalo he showed no indication of breaking down. He ate heartily of sandwiches and smoked cigars when not eating. He talked some and expressed regret for his crime. He said: "I am especially sorry for Mrs. McKinley." He reiterated his former statement that he had no accomplices. To Jailer Mitchell he sent this message to his father: "Tell him I am sorry I left such a bad name for him." Czolgosz was in normal condition in the afternoon and seemed to have fully recovered from his collapse.

LOCATING STOLEN FUNDS.

Government Officials After the Money Embezzled by Capt. Carter.

Chicago, Sept. 29. — Government officials, says the Chronicle, have learned that $400,000, said to be a part of the money embezzled by Oberlin M. Carter, now serving a five-year sentence at the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary, recently has been taken from Chicago depositories to some Eastern city, and that secret service men have gone to the place to seize the funds.

Last week government authorities located $200,000 in cash and securities in a safety deposit vault at Huntington, W. Va., and during July real estate worth $110,000 conveyed by Carter to a brother and uncle was impounded by appointment of receivers. The present location of the $400,000, which consists of cash and securities, has not been made public. Marion Erwin, special assistant attorney general of the United States, who came here to file proceedings against former Capt. Carter, left suddenly to follow up the whereabouts of $400,000, which, he said, "he had found on deposit in Chicago until recently." United States District Attorney Sol Bethea and Lawyer Whitney, local receiver in the case, in speaking about the matter, said it was expected all the stolen funds would be found in a short time.

Lake City, Minn., Sept. 27. — Wisconsin is the victor in the interstate artillery contest, with a total score of 60 to Minnesota's 21. The last three pairs of the contest were shot off yesterday. Wisconsin added a total of 31 points to the 29 piled up Monday and Tuesday, outshooting Minnesota nearly 3 to 1. Minnesota scored 11 points. The shooting on both sides was ragged. Both teams had reserved their best shots for the last. First Sergeant Frank Barron, Battery A, St. Paul, opened for Minnesota with a hit, scoring 2. That ended the score-getting for two rounds of the four pieces, when Barron found another 2. Then Corporal A. Comstock, Milwaukee, piled up 12 in four shots. Lieut. A. F. Pray, Minneapolis, helped the Minnesota score with 7, and there the scoring for the Gophers stopped. Maj. George C. Lambert closed the shooting for Minnesota, but failed to find the target after his preliminary shots, while Corporal Ebert of Milwaukee, who paired with him, carried off the honors with a total of 19.

The seniors demurred at this and yesterday they discarded their military uniforms and threatened to leave the school in a body if the order was not rescinded. The rector will not recede from his position, and many of the students have telegraphed for funds to take them home.

MONTANA NEWS

SHIPMENTS FALL OFF.

Forty Trains Short of Last Year.

The shipment of stock over the Great Northern has fallen considerably short this year compared with the shipments of last year, and the shipping season is practically over. The local shippers at Havre will load their last consignment in a few days. The railroad officials say shipments are now about forty trains short of last year.

This is evidently due to the unusual rushing of stock to Eastern markets last fall, owing to the scarcity of feed which prevailed then. This year, feed being plentiful, stockmen are holding back somewhat in the number of stock shipped.

The railroad company has met with success this fall, so far, in handling stock, having met with no serious accidents whatever in transportation, and losing no opportunity to show stockmen that satisfactory handling of stock is the chief aim of the railroad company.

William Brown must serve sixty years in the penitentiary for the murder of his wife. He received his sentence from Judge McClernan at Butte. Brown was convicted of murder in the second degree, and the punishment was left to the court. The murder was a most cold-blooded and brutal one. He quarreled with his wife one morning, because she had accompanied her daughter to the theater the night before. They were alone in their bedroom. Brown walked out of the room, went into the kitchen and secured his razor and slashed his wife's throat from ear to ear. Then he attempted to commit suicide. His defense was that his wife cut her own throat, and that he attempted to kill himself, in despair at her deed.
