Ernest Guy has started to school again.
 The seventh grade are studying the civil war.

Irene Sorenson is absent on account of sickness.

The fourth grade will begin reading Robinson Crusoe next week.

The thermometer in the grammar department registered 56 at noon Tuesday.

Mayme Hammond was absent from school Tuesday on account of sickness.

Edna Guy returned to school Monday. We are all glad to see her looking so well.

Owing to the illness of Miss Jackson Mr. Beeman took charge of her room Monday afternoon.

Perry Guy entered school Monday afternoon after an absence of six weeks on account of smallpox.

The sixth grade finished the study of "Evangiline," February 18th. This coming week they will take up the study of "Incus."

The sixth grade are making a study of the Incas and will continue the study of Peruvian tribes as a part of their work in history.

Owing to the extreme cold weather on last Monday morning it was necessary to dismiss the pupils of the grammar department and the high school.

The following program will be rendered at the high school literary, Friday, February 19th: Music, duet, "The Burning of the Iroquois," Olive Marcys and Mayme Hammond; debate: "Resolved that the jury system should be abolished," affirmative Frank Shaw and Mabel Davis; negative, Fern Clark and Ella Peterson; recitation, Hazel Guy; essay, Josephine McHugh; music, instrumental solo, Mrs. Johnson.

The regular meeting of the Parents' club was held in the high school room last Friday afternoon. The following program was rendered: Chorus, pupils of Miss Smith's room; violin and piano duet, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson; paper on grading and promotion of pupils, Mrs. Lyndes; paper on methods of teaching arithmetic in some of the city schools of our country, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Kilpatrick. All of the papers were quite thoroughly discussed and upon the whole the meeting was one of the most interesting held this year.

The girls of the tenth and eleventh grades have organized a club under the kind supervision of Mrs. W. E. Johnson. The members are Misses Olive Marcys, Mayme Hammond, Lucy McIntosh, Maggie Snook, Fern and Zola Clark and Mrs. Johnson who is an honorary member. The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Johnson on Saturday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Olive Marcys; vice president, Mayme Hammond; secretary, Lucy McIntosh. The name chosen for the club was "Sigma chi." A meeting will be held every other Saturday afternoon from three to four o'clock, at the several homes of the members. Many topics of interest will be talked on at the different meetings. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Mayme Hammond on the afternoon of February 27.
