E. D. Nash of Helena, deputy state veterinarian, is conferring with local stockmen in regard to the cattle scab situation in this locality. Accompanied by a federal inspector, Dr. Nash proposes making a trip over the range south of this city for the purpose of ascertaining whether the disease is prevalent among cattle on the Shonkin range. It is claimed by stockmen that scab does not exist on the range south of the Missouri river.

Great Falls Leader: Thore Ritland is a prisoner at the county jail, having been arrested at Fort Benton and brought here yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Miller. The charge against him is grand larceny, the complainant being Constable Frank Rush, of Belt. Rush accuses Ritland, who was employed upon an adjoining ranch, of the theft of a horse. Ritland, on the other hand, claims that he bought the animal of a third party, another rancher. Involved in the case is a dispute between Rush and the third party over the right to use a certain brand.

A dispatch from New York announces the death of Orange J. Salisbury at a hospital in that city, from heart disease. As a member of the firm of Gilmore, Salisbury & Co., which operated several stage routes and conducted a large express business in Montana and other western states in the seventies, Mr. Salisbury was well known among old-time residents of Montana. His firm at one time ran a stage from this city to Helena, and had other routes that connected Montana points with Salt Lake and other cities where railroad facilities were available at that time.

Congressman Charles N. Pray, who has just returned from a visit to St. Paul and Minneapolis, made the trip of over 2,000 miles for the purpose of interviewing Secretary Taft in regard to the proposed abandonment of Fort Assiniboine, the secretary having arranged to be at the Twin cities last week. Mr. Pray succeeded in placing the matter before Secretary Taft, and also had an extended interview with General J. Franklin Bell, chief of the general staff of the army, upon whose recommendation the secretary generally acts. The situation was presented to General Bell in the most convincing manner possible, and it is believed the result of the interview will be satisfactory to those who desire to have Fort Assiniboine retained as a military post.

Will Sue Labor Union. SEATTLE, June 19.—Papers are being prepared by the restaurant owners for a suit for damages to be brought against the Cooks and Waiters' union, which ordered a strike against eating houses which failed to grant a six-day week and an advance in wages on June 1. These restaurant men claim the waiters have been picketing their houses and have been picketing their houses warning the public that the restaurants holding out against the waiters are unfair.

All the restaurants in the newly organized Restaurant Owners' association are encouraging the suit, but only those whose places have been boycotted will attempt to recover damages.

Notice—Public Buck Herds. The last legislature enacted a law regarding public buck herds, and it will therefore be necessary for parties wishing to conduct public buck herds to make application to the state veterinary surgeon at Helena, for full particulars, and for a permit to conduct such public buck herds.

State board of sheep commissioners. GEO. J. JOYCE, Secretary.

MONTANA NEWS BRIEFLETS.

A Budget of Readable Short Items From Various Parts of the State.

BUTTE, June 18.—Michael Golding was killed in the Minnie Healy mine this morning by falling from the 800 level to the 1300 level. Golding was a station tender, and according to the statement of a person who was near by when the accident happened, he reached out to pull the bell cord at the 800 level, and, losing his balance, fell into the sump. He was instantly killed. As soon as possible the body was taken to the surface and Coroner Stevens notified.

HELENA, June 12.—George Martindale, who stole a horse from the Broadwater hotel last Sunday night, was caught at a ranch near Craig Monday night, after a steady chase by Shoemaker and the pack of bloodhounds the county recently purchased. The chase became so warm the man left the horse near Wolf creek and took to the hills. While the trail was cold, the dogs worked well and greatly assisted in Martindale's capture.

TWIN BRIDGES, June 18.—J. E. Hamble of Butte, representing Jeremiah Williams & Co. of Boston, has purchased a large portion of the wool in this locality. The prices paid have not in all cases been made public. E. J. Gillis received 20¢ cents for his clip of 35,000 pounds and Max Lauterbach received a figure slightly in advance of this for about 75,000 pounds. Several other growers received between 20 and 22 cents.

GREAT FALLS, June 18.—In the district court today Sarah E. Prewitt, widow of F. E. Prewitt, who, with two others, was killed in a wreck on the Nelhart branch of the Montana Central August 26 last, began suit against the railway company for damages of $25,000. She alleges that her husband, who was a musician residing at Belt, was 33 years of age, capable of earning $100 a month, and that by his death she has been damaged in the amount for which she sues.

BUTTE, June 18.—County Recorder Stromme and Sheriff Henderson have come to the conclusion that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad is an institution decidedly expensive to Butte and the county of Silver Bow. The crimes of the road graders have kept the sheriff and his office staff on the jump for the past two or three months, and Recorder Stromme and his deputies have been busy sending sick and disabled graders to the poor farm and hospital. The recorder and his men are firmly of the opinion that the county assessor should assess all the property of the railroad in the county at the highest figure, and then they believe the county will be a bad loser. The sheriff and his deputies say that a law to prevent the sale of weapons of any kind to the graders would save much crime on the part of the latter in the future.

ANACONDA, June 19.—Sheriff Fleming received word of the arrest at Vancouver today of Clyde B. Ackley, formerly manager of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, of this city, who left here suddenly. It is charged he is $600 short in his accounts.

HELENA, June 19.—James Black and Archie Marlotte, trappers, had a quarrel on Sunday, near Lincoln, when Marlotte slashed Black across the abdomen with his knife, inflicting a serious although perhaps not a fatal wound. Marlotte is in jail here. The men were drunk, and both are said to have drawn their knives.

FORSYTH, June 19.—Sheriff R. J. Guy and James Anderson have returned from the south end of the county, where they were in pursuit of the two horse thieves who stole three horses from Anderson. One of the thieves was killed at the OW ranch and the other was captured near Arvada, Wyo., and was brought to Forsyth by Sheriff Guy. The thief killed was buried near the OW ranch, after an inquest had been held by Coroner C. R. Dick, of this city.

GREAT FALLS, June 19.—Jacob Hansen, a boy of 17, who did not know it was loaded, accidentally shot a killed a fellow workman, Joe Sauer, aged 35 years, at Monarch yesterday afternoon. The boy and the man were in the store of Mrs. John Gonsior, and the former took up a rifle which he thought belonged to the stock of the store, and snapped it at Sauer. The bullet struck the latter in the temple, and dented the skull, but did not penetrate it, the shock evidently causing death.

BILLINGS, June 19.—Two brothers, John and Roy Stull, of this city, aged 17 and 15, have been arrested at their home on the charge of stealing bicycles. The lads would hide the stolen wheels, take them apart and put them together again so that there was only a part of the original wheel in the newly made one. Then they would run them into the country and sell to any one who wanted a wheel. They were very successful, but they sold one to a bicycle dealer and he saw a tire on the wheel he knew belonged to one of the wheels that had been stolen. He notified the authorities and the boys were arrested. They confessed, and went with the officers and showed them where they had sold some of the wheels.

Big Floods in Northwest.

EDMONTON, N. W. T., June 18.—Floods are sweeping over the valley of the Great Saskatchewan over an area of 500 square miles, damaging the lumber rafts for a distance of 1,000 miles along the North Saskatchewan and causing immense damage. The floods are increasing and the damage will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.
