

The Harlowton News

The Continuation of The Musselshell News

Vol. 4

HARLOWTON, MEAGHER COUNTY, MONTANA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1909

No. 18

CHICAGO MAN BREAKS LEG

W. C. Reuss of Chicago Breaks His Leg in Runaway Last Week Saturday.

W. C. Reuss a real estate man from Chicago was the victim of a sad misfortune Saturday, while out driving on the Shaw Ranch looking over the land. The team was frightened while passing through a gate and became uncontrollable. The frightened team dashed forward passing another team, in doing so the wheels of the buggies got caught, causing a bad breakup. The parties in both rigs were thrown to the ground, but Mr. Reuss was the only one that was hurt. He had his left leg broken above the knee and his right knee sprained. Dr. Ross was called, who left immediately with the Urner auto. The unfortunate man was brought to Harlowton and placed in the Ross Rooming House where he was given proper attention, and at present is getting along as well as can be expected.

M. E. Services.

Rev. McMahon will fill the pulpit on Sunday Evening October 31st. All are cordially invited to attend. The services will be held in the old school house.

Don't forget the Hollow'en party tomorrow night (Saturday).

If you have a sweet tooth, then you want good candies. Always a fresh line at the Bon Bon. 18-1f

A. T. Anderson, Ward Beley, B. T. Stevens, B. L. Moody and Ben Urner drove over in the latter's machine Sunday from Harlowton to secure a setting at Landlord Bain's big dinner. —Judith Gap Journal.

CUTS THROAT WITH RAZOR

Ed. Mackin a Sheep Header Near Beccall Tries to Commit Suicide—Will Not Recover.

Last week Saturday Ed. Mackin a sheep header near Beccall tried to take his life by cutting his throat. He was found in his wagon by one of the ranchers shortly after the attempt had been made. Dr. Campbell of this place was sent for at once. When Dr. Campbell arrived he found Mr. Mackin in a very low condition, and that he had very small chances to recover. Up to this time there has no news arrived of his death. It is thought that Mr. Mackin was some what mentally deranged, therefore causing him to commit the rash act.

MIDLAND SINGERS

Will Be Here Saturday Oct. 30th—Already a Big Demand for Reserved Seats.

The Midland Jubilee Singers are the next number on the Lyceum Entertainment Course, Saturday evening, October 30th. This number will prove one of the best of the entire course. The heavy demand of tickets shows that the Midland Jubilee Singers are thought to be a troop of high class entertainers. Don't forget the date.

He's Coming

W. T. Groom, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Montana will be in Harlowton Monday, November 1st. Rev. Groom is an interesting speaker. His message voices public sentiment of today. All are invited to hear him at the M. E. Church Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

BIG AUCTION SALE

J. J. Hall to Sell His Horses Next Friday, Nov. 5th—Farmers Institute Day.

Mr. J. J. Hall will close up his livery business here and go into the coal business this winter. Next spring he intends to get another auto and start a mobile livery. On Nov. 5th Mr. Hall will sell his horses, buggies and many other articles. An add pertaining to the auction sale will be found on another page.

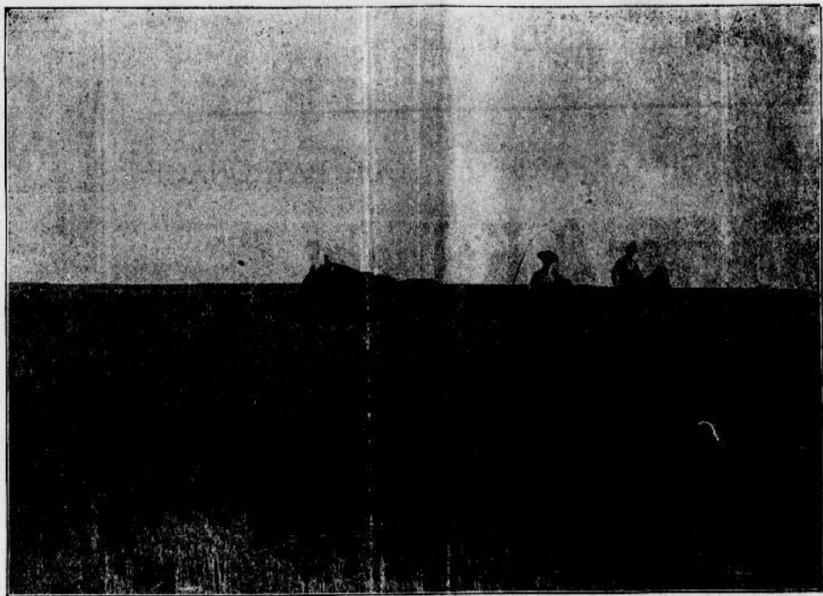

"There is no profit in selling a man his first suit, if it turns out to be his last," is the apt phrase of Mr. Urner, of the Urner Mercantile Co. Its good logic in keeping with the reputation of this store. 18-1f

J. A. Smith of Pomeroy, Ohio was in town a few days the forepart of this week.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH 1909.

ARRANGEMENTS are now being completed for the big Farmer's Institute to be held at Harlowton, Friday, November 5th. The Harlowton Opera House has been secured for the afternoon session, and the I. O. O. F. Hall for the evening. Both halls will be decorated with specimens of grain and vegetables raised by scientific methods of farming. The arrangement Committee is making preparations to have the Majestic Orchestra furnish music at both sessions and at the Banquet in evening—a banquet will be given at the Hotel Graves at 10:30 p. m., all are invited to attend this banquet—$1.00 per plate. This Institute will be the best ever held in Montana.

Winter Wheat Raised by Dr. W. X. Sudduth, Who Will Speak Here November 5th.

HOLLOW'EN PARTY

To Be Given Tomorrow Evening at the Home of Mrs. R. A. Good.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. R. A. Good of the M. E. Church are making elaborate arrangements for a brilliant Hollow'en party, which will be given at the home of Mrs. Good. All the young folks are requested to attire themselves in white gossamer garments, and make a noise like a spirit. Plenty of good ghost stories will be told to make the affair more "spooky". This Sunday School class has taken it upon themselves to pay for the stove in the M. E. Church, which cost about $40.00, and by giving this Hollow'en party they expect to raise part of this fund. A free-will offering will be taken.

When other remedies fail talk with Swanson, "The practical mechanic."

Mr. O. M. Rader, made a business trip to White Sulphur Springs last Monday.

Mrs. O. M. Rader and Mrs. Wm. Van Dyke who have been in Roundup the past week visiting with friends returned Tuesday.

The OSHKOSH anti-freezing pump will furnish water in cold weather by just working the handle, if you doubt it talk with Swanson, "The practical mechanic."

Noel Boyer, a passenger brakeman on the Montana railroad, had a narrow escape from death Sunday morning while doing some switching at the Lewistown yards says the Fergus County Democrat. Noel got in between a couple of cars just as they jammed together and was rather seriously mashed up about the body although he escaped injuries which might incapacitate him for any great length of time. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and Doctor Attix attended him.

F. W. Smith a representative of the American Type Foundry Co. visited with the News man Monday and Tuesday of this week.

L. W. Curtis, of Harlowton, was a visitor in town the first of the week. Mr. Curtis was looking over the city with a view of establishing a plumbing shop here. He has not definitely decided as to whether he will locate here or not, although he was highly pleased with our city and its future prospects.—Roundup Record.

R. N. Chamber of Three Forks spent Monday in Harlowton.

OVERFLOW LOCALS

Don't forget the auction sale Nov. 5th.

H. F. O'Hanlon, who visited with his brother Joe at this place a few days left for Omaha Tuesday.

L. M. Law from Roundup was in our city yesterday.

A party of deer hunters left for the Belt Mountains last Saturday and returned Monday evening. M. H. Graham was the only one in the party that was lucky, he shot one buck deer.

The following are the names of a party from Chicago who were here last week: W. C. Reuss, J. E. Seiwert, Wm. Eisfeld, Ed. J. Birk and J. Siffert. J. E. Seiwert is one of the party that bought the Shaw Ranch, and the others were here to look over land propositions.

Father Phelan is getting up a home talent play for the benefit of the new Catholic Church, which is to be built at this place in a short time. The name of the play that will be put on is "When a Man's Single." It is a comedy in three acts and is taken from rural society. The full details will be published in a subsequent issue, as soon as Father Phelan gets the play lined up proper.

When your appetite craves, for the best of fruits, you can buy it at the Bon Bon. 18-1f

Father Phelan will hold services on Sunday and Monday at Judith Gap at 10 and 5 a. m.

The Sunday School of the Wilson Memorial Methodist Episcopal church has been recently reorganized. The officers and teachers are as follows:

Supt. A. H. Eiselein
Ass't Supt. Mrs. J. Foster
Secretary Miss Alice Johnson
Treasurer Mr. R. A. Good
Organist Mr. E. E. Pitney

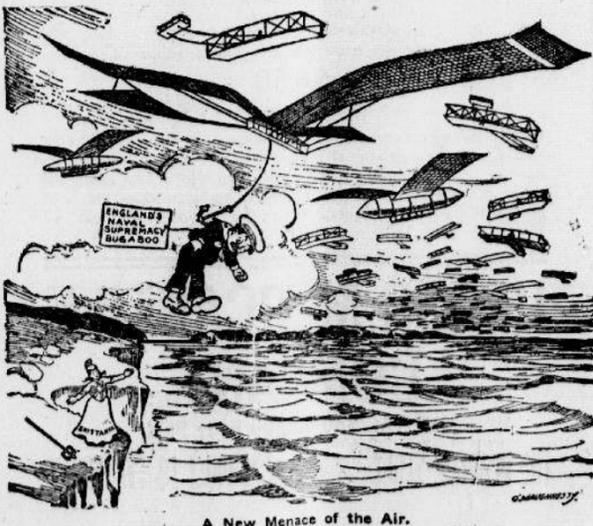

1 Infants class, A Mrs. S. E. Clark
2 Infants class, B Mrs. E. E. Pitney
3 Class for girls Mrs. R. A. Good
4 Class for boys Mr. E. E. Pitney
5 Class for young ladies J. Freeman
6 Class for young men W. C. Husband
7 Adult Bible class Silas E. Clark

The ceiling, plastered, and heating have added brightness and comfort to the rooms. We urge all to attend Sunday School. There are classes for the "Seven stages of man" from babe, to gray haired man—we need you. You need God's Word for "The Voyage of Life."

Rev. Percy R. McMahon, Pastor.

KIDNAPED

(Copyright, 1909.)

A New Menace of the Air.

IS DEALING OUT JUSTICE

Two Preliminary Hearings—Two Petty Larceny Cases—Atty. W. C. Husband for State.

Monday evening two preliminary hearings were held before Justice of the Peace Righenour. Jessie Langston and his partner, whose name is Page, were brought in here by the state deputy game warden, charged with killing antelope. L. D. Glenn and E. P. Conwell were the attorneys for the defendants and W. C. Husband appeared for the state. In both cases Justice Righenour found that a crime had been committed and that he had reasons to believe that the defendants committed the crime, so both were bound over to the district court.

Tuesday afternoon the hand of justice was again dealing out its "goods." Jason Jewel pleaded guilty to two charges of petty larceny for stealing a buggy pole, and one for the theft of buggy wheels. In the first case he was fined $50.00 dollars and costs and in the second $15.00 and costs. Jesse Lanston one of the parties that had been bound over to the district court Monday, charged with killing antelope, plead "not guilty" to a charge of petty larceny for the theft of a plow. He was given a jury trial, and was found guilty and fined $50.00 and costs. Atty. L. D. Glenn appeared for the defendants in both cases, and Atty. W. C. Husband appeared on the part of the state. The reason Mr. Husband appeared on the part of the state was that County Attorney Ford was unable to be present on account of being sick, and therefore appointed Mr. Husband.

All the defendants reside at Melville.

MILL BUILDING NEARLY COMPLETED

New Mill Will Soon be Ready For Machinery—L. Swanson is Putting on Roof.

L. Swanson, the practical mechanic, has got a crew of six men working on the new mill, putting on a galvanized roof, when this is completed the new structure will soon be ready for the machinery. This new building is a credit to Harlowton, in fact it would be a credit to any city in the state. By next fall the management of this new enterprise expects to be shipping out car after car of as good a flour as can be manufactured anywhere.

Read Marshalls add.

REDUCED RATES

Milwaukee Gives Reduced Rates to Harlowton From Nearby Towns on November 5th.

A letter was received here this week from Geo. B. Haynes the immigration agent on the Milwaukee, stating that reduced rates will be given from nearby towns to the different points at which meetings of the Farmers' Institute will be held next week. Anyone wishing to come to Harlowton on November 5th can secure reduced rates upon application to the Milwaukee agent. This will give all the people as far west as Lennep a good chance to take in the meeting and also those as far east as Ryegate. Judith Gap should also avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the "Pride of the Musselshell" and at the same time take in this instructive meeting.

Mrs. Van Cleve Reduces Price on Lots in Her Addition.

About half of the lots in the Van Cleve Addition have been sold since the same were put on the market. 16 lots have been sold in the last ten days. Balance of these lots will be on the market at 10 per cent discount for cash for the next thirty days. See me at once if you want desirable residence property cheap. L. D. Glenn Agent Harlowton, Montana. 18-1f

Leo Stevens who a short time ago was employed by the Stevens-Dreyer Hardware Co. at this place, but now traveling on the road for a paint Co. stopped off at this place Sunday. He went up to Moore Monday.

E. C. Baxter, passed through here Monday on his way up to Lewistown. He returned Tuesday morning.

Father Muller, the Catholic Priest from Roundup was shaking hands with his many friends here, while on his way home from Lewistown.

BUYS OFFICE

Attorney Husband Takes Over S. L. Hodge's Insurance and Real Estate Business.

Last week Saturday W. C. Husband moved from his former office located above the State Bank into S. L. Hodge's office on lower Central avenue, having bought same. Atty. W. C. Husband also takes over all of Mr. Hodge's insurance business, and assures all those who have insurance in the companies he is now handling, that the same good care and attention will be given to this work as before. Mr. Husband hopes that all will see fit to continue to keep their insurance in these companies.

One of the elevators at Moore was destroyed by fire last week Saturday. Miss Daisy Prehede of Lewistown is here this week assisting Mr. G. L. Sorenson in getting new members for the Fraternal Order of Mountaineers.

Mel Stevens returned from Maine the latter part of last week. Mr. Stevens and his family have been visiting with relatives at Unity, Maine the past several months. Mel says he is glad to get back to Old Montana.

When you are out of coal, you look for the coal-man. When you have a tooth-ach, you consult the dentist, when you need mechanical work done, you should talk with Swanson, "The practical mechanic."

The stockholders of the Montana Woolgrowers' association have determined to dissolve the corporation, the purpose for which it was organized, the thwarting of the eastern wool pool, having been accomplished and the National Woolgrowers' and Storage Warehouse company of Chicago having taken the place of the Montana organization. In a letter to the stockholders, announcing the action, Secretary Penwell says the total paid-in capital stock of the company amounts to $10,145 or 1,013 1-2 shares. The net earnings to date are $2,889.45, or a net of 28.48 per cent on the capital invested. There being no debts, the assets amount to $13,034.95, being equal to the capital plus net earnings. The company was in existence two years, but it handled a part of the clip in 1908. It sold that year 2,000,000 pounds of wool at a small cost to the members of the association.

Mrs. J. W. Freeman left last week for a few weeks visit with her parents in Washington, D.C.