

LOCAL NEWS

Read Marshalls add.
P. J. Moore came down from Twodot Monday.
H. L. Wilcox of Chicago was in town Sunday.
Men's fur coats, at the right price at Marshalls.
E. B. Cornwell from Ryegate was in town Tuesday.
"Gold Seal" rubbers and over shoes at Marshalls.
J. E. Allen of Lewistown visited in our city over Sunday.
D. R. Smith from Salt Lake City registered at the Hotel Graves Monday.
Ask for "Snow White Flour," Harlowton Grocery Co.
When your pipe don't work call at the Bon Bon.
Alfred Mitchell from Twodot registered at the Hotel Graves Tuesday.
Chas. Newman of Delpine, Montana transacted business in Harlowton Tuesday.
Geo. Lyons came down from Twodot Tuesday and stayed here until Wednesday.
The passenger trains have been from four to six hours late the past several days.
The inside of the Montana Lumber Company office is being painted by T. E. Kirby this week.
The Harlowton Grocery company received a car load of canned goods from Chicago this week.
Roy Ayers, one of the prominent attorneys of Lewistown, was in Harlowton on professional business Monday.
T. R. Porter received a large shipment of all kinds of fancy china ware, which will make beautiful Christmas gifts.
Several bankers from some of the larger eastern cities passed through here Wednesday looking over the country.
Lony Sanderson from Irene, one of the prosperous ranchers from that place, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in our city.
Montana gold rings, at Robertson's Jewelry store.
Ceretana flour—none better at Marshalls.
The officers and teachers of the M. E. Sunday School are making elaborate preparations for a big program to be given Christmas Eve.
Miss Viola Fisher from Judith Gap made her usual visit to Harlowton to instruct some of the young folks in the art of dancing this week.
Some of the merchants are complaining that they have several shipments of Christmas goods tied up on the road on account of the strike.
"Home Brand" Can Goods, the world's best, at Marshalls.
The Masquerade, which was to have been held here last Thursday evening, but was postponed on account of the bad weather, will be pulled off here tonight (Friday).
The News is now working on a large pamphlet for the Broadwater County Mining Co. This company has taken over some of the J. J. Fisher property near Townsend.
Mel Stevens returned on Tuesday of this week from a several days visit near Big Timber and other places along the N. P. Ry. Mr. Stevens says that the outlook for a boomer of a year is very bright.

Do your Christmas shopping early. Don't wait until the final rush.
Christmas goods at Porter's Confectionery.
A. F. Robinson of Twodot was in town Wednesday.
Guy H. Davis and wife went back to Illinois for a few days visit with relatives.
The school children, as well as the teachers will have a two week's vacation, starting December 17th.
Snow White flour the only genuine hardwheat flour sold in Harlowton. Harlowton Grocery Co.
Deputy Sheriff Johnson was up to Twodot to serve some papers Thursday.
It is reported that considerable snow fell at Twodot, and that the ranchers are using their sleighs.
A pleased customer is a walking advertisement. Richellen goods please Harlowton Grocery Co.
Mrs. Mary Wilson of Twodot was a business visitor Thursday afternoon, she staying in town over night and returned on Friday morning's train.
The County Commissioners granted Oscar Rader a license to open up a saloon at the new town of Hedges on the B. & N.
Richellen goods are rich in goodness. Harlowton Grocery Co.
Andrew Anderson of Dorsey was here Thursday with a bad tooth. He says the cold weather doesn't help the tooth-ache.

Notice To Children Of the M. E. Sunday School.

Dear Children,
Dec. 15, 1909.
This is to notify you of our intended visit to you on Christmas Eve.
Signed,
Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus.
P. S. Kindly reserve the date. We desire to see you.

M. I. Caine and family will leave in a week or so for a several weeks visit with relatives and friends in Wisconsin and other eastern states.

Try the Richelleu "Dollar" package of coffee. Harlowton Grocery Co.

Two Japanese boys have taken up school work in our schools here. One is only 7 years old and the other 9. Both are said to be very bright. Their parents are employed by the railroad here.

W. Ruess expects to build an eight room two story stone house on his homestead six miles east of town. Mr. Ruess has all kinds of faith in this section of Montana and sees a great future for it.

Richellen goods are several degrees better than any pure food law requires. Harlowton Grocery Co.

Mrs. R. W. Glenn and son left for Ohio this week. She will visit with relatives for a short time. She will also meet a sister of hers who is coming to this country from Germany, and who will come out to this state to live.

Mack Van Buskirk was tended a farewell surprise party by a large number of his little friends Wednesday evening. A most pleasant evening was whiled away by the young folks, playing games and many other amusements.

For results try the News Want Column.

Charles Baldwin from Barber was in town Wednesday and Thursday.

Useful Xmas. gifts, silverware and hand painted Chinaware at Marshalls.
For presents of tobacco or a good box of cigars, try the Bon Bon.

Turn out Friday night and laugh for all you are worth.
Men's warm winter caps at Marshalls.

Two houses for sale. Will sell cheap. See W. C. Husband.
Montana gold rings at Robertson's Jewelry store.

Father Phalen will hold services next Sunday at the usual hour 10:30 a. m.
Have you seen the Montana gold rings, at the Robertson's Jewelry store.

All kinds of hardware at Marshalls. A crew were at work Thursday, getting the snow out of the stock yards, prior to making a shipment of sheep at Shawmut.

Guns and ammunition at Marshalls.
E. G. Worden, lawyer First National Bank Block, Lewistown, Mont. 15-17

Candies for Christmas, a large assortment in bulk and in fancy boxes at the Bon Bon.
Help your town, don't be a knocker, but join the gay throng that goes laughing along and come to see "When a Man is Single."

If you wish to sell your house, lots or anything else, list them with W. C. Husband. 15-17

Roundup Coal, $6.00 per ton cash. Delivered to any part of the city. J. J. Hall, exclusive agent. 12-17

Piano and vocal lessons by Mrs. E. J. North. $1.00 per lesson. 22-17

Diamond rings, from $10 up to $130 at Robertson's Jewelry store.

The Fraternal Order of Mountaineers held their annual election Thursday evening. Practically all the old officers were re-elected.

Miss Schaefer is now ready to give lessons in music on the mandolin piano and guitar. $1.00 per lesson. Studio at Robertson's Jewelry Store. 10-17

Get the habit of ordering your meat at the Graves Market. Mr. Graves guarantees equal satisfaction whether you order in person or over the telephone. "Where Cleanliness is Paramount." 14-17

Don C. Olsen the Photographer has at last arrived from St. Paul and has taken charge of the Johnson Studio which he has leased for a number of years. As a photographer of ability he stands very high.

"There is no profit in selling a man his first suit, if it turns out to be his last." Is the apt phrase of Mr. Urner, of the Urner Mercantile Co. Its good logic in keeping with the reputation of this store. 18-17

Shawmut Items

Plenty of snow here now but as it is something unusual, there are no sleighs and therefore it can not be properly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis went east Sunday night.

Wallace Giles left for Maine Sunday night.

Carl Giles spent Sunday at the Crawford ranch.

Mrs. Collyer made a trip to Harlowton Wednesday returning Thursday.

Tom Marquis, the pumper, has been having some trouble this cold weather with pipes freezing.

EARLY Xmas. Shopping

Five men who have been working for four years to influence early Xmas. Shopping. This is the fourth year that a committee consisting of Mark Twain, Jacob A. Riis, the late Richard Watson Gilder, Edward Feline, and Edward T. Devine has been endeavoring to get Americans to do their Christmas shopping earlier.

This store has always suggested the mutual convenience and satisfaction resulting from shopping earlier in the Christmas season. We are glad to record that there has been a marked tendency in this direction, and we thank you for the past and for what you will do this season. This store is ready for Christmas well equipped with

USEFUL XMAS. GIFTS

JACK FROST IS HERE!—Are you Prepared for him?

Remember warm underclothes gives comfort and saves dollar bills. We have the best in underwear that money can buy for Men, Women and Children.

A SNAP

Girl's Boy's & Children's Wool Underwear. 2 piece suits AT COST AND LESS

Call and get one of our Mackinaw or Sheepskin Lined Coats.

We have a complete line of Comforts, Blankets, Ovenshoes, Socks and Mittens and everything that will make you comfortable in cold weather

THE PEOPLES STORE
You can feel at home at Marshalls

MARSHALLS

THE BUSY STORE

THE PLACE WHERE Your $$$
Buy the most goods

I hope the hereafter will be one long looking-glass for the grouch.

Foreordained.

"Yes, dear," says the beautiful young widow after the helpless-appearing man has proposed and has been accepted. "Yes, dear, from the very first time I just knew we were made for each other and that fate had destined us to marry. Did not you have some such presentiment?" "Something like that," agrees the mere man. "It wasn't a day after you had come here that four of my best friends at the club told me they'd bet ten to one you landed me before the year was out."

The short cut to success is hard work. A pleasant road, too, when you once get acquainted with it.—Book-keeper.

MISS ANNA P. CAHALL.

Miss Anna P. Cahall, who was selected to christen the battleship Detawara, is one of the leading young society women of the state for which the ship was named. She is a niece of Governor Fennewill.

BUSINESS MAN'S MAXIMS

Enthusiasm is the best shortening for any job; it makes heavy work light.

The lady on the dollar is the only woman who hasn't any sentiment in her make-up.

A tactful man can pull the stinger from a bee without getting stung.

When a fellow knows his business, he doesn't have to explain to people that he does.

Stock up your brain so that when the demand comes you will have the goods to offer.

An appeal to reason is oftentimes less effective than an appeal to the pocket.

Hot air can take up a balloon a long ways, but it can't keep it there.

A man who does big things is too busy to talk about them.

Nothing so Beautiful & Useful as
SILVER WARE & CUT GLASS FOR XMAS GIFTS

WHEN buying silverware one should do so with caution, for there are so many different grades that a person who is not an expert is very liable to be deceived. We have just received a fine line of HIGH GRADE Silverware such as tea sets, nut bowls, cake baskets, Fruit sets, ect, ect. In buying these goods I have done so with the determination to maintain a high Standard of design, Dyework, Finish ect. I have picked out the finest grade of metal adapted for plated ware and handle but ONE GRADE or QUALITY of PLATE and THAT the VERY BEST. Each and every piece is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction. Come in and look my stock over it will save you money.

FAIR TREATMENT

A. F. ROBERTSON
JEWELRY AND WATCH HOUSE

C. M. & P. S. Ry. Watch Inspector.

PROMPT SERVICE