

To our Customers

WE respectfully ask your consideration of the following:

A Good Kitchen Range Ranks First in the heart of the home. Your wife will walk right out of the "Heart of the Home" into your arms if you will put a "Sunlight Range" into her kitchen for Christmas.

Have it there Christmas eve and you will spend the most joyous Christmas of your life. And the joy will last the whole life, for joy is a permanent guest where you find a contented wife and meals well cooked. Why should the man of the house ask his wife to labor over a small, imperfect stove in her everlasting and faithful effort to please her husband? Christmas time now and we are willing to make the burden much lighter for the provider by putting the prices on our ranges down to a point easily within reach of the most conservative purchaser. We have the largest stock of ranges to pick from, each one carrying our "Absolute Guarantee" at the following prices for

The Exhibit Car.

Omaha, Nebr. Dec. 11, 1900.

Mr. Eiselen, Harlowton, Montana. Dear Sir:—When visiting your city last July and August making arrangements for grains, grasses and vegetables for the C. M. St. P. & C. M. & P. S. Ry's exhibit car, I at that time promised to write you.

The exhibit car was decorated with the grains and grasses, vegetables and other products from your state at the Milwaukee shops at Milwaukee, Wis. The car opened its doors to visitors at Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 13th during the Wisconsin State Fair from there the car was at Sioux City, Iowa, week of Sept. 20th, during the Inter-State Fair week and at Mitchell, S. D., week of Sept. 27th, at Corn Palace. Since leaving Mitchell we have been in the southern part of S. D., Southern Minnesota and in Iowa.

The car creates a great deal of interest in the towns that we visit and surely will be a forerunner for a large immigration to your section of Montana. I am inclosing you itinerary of the car for the next six weeks. If you see fit to publish it you may do so and respectfully inviting any of your subscribers in calling their attention to the car to pay it a visit at their home town in the east. I remain, Yours Very Resp'y,

O. D. TIBBETTS.
