SCHOOL IN SESSION

Enrollment Small--Many Families Moving to the City in Order to Put Children in School.

The Harlowton public schools opened Tuesday with an enrollment of 90. This is but a small enrollment. Many children have not entered at this time. A number of families are moving to this city in order to have children in school this winter. The number ought to double by October first.

There are many more children of school age who have not yet entered and who should be taking advantage of the school opportunities. There are a number however who have expressed their sentiments favorably on entering soon.

This year the second year's high school work was added and work has been planned in order that the boys and girls will not have to go to the surrounding towns for their school work at a great expense and at the same time their parents paying taxes to run the home school.

The new building has not been completed but it is expected to be ready in about six weeks.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Mrs. Thomas L. Halbert an Old Resident of Careless Creek Dies of Heart Disease.

Last Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, Mrs. Thomas L. Halbert was seized with an attack of heart disease and expired very suddenly. While her friends had been expecting something like this might happen for some time, nevertheless the blow was severely felt. For several years Mrs. Halbert has been receiving treatment for the heart and has consulted some of the most eminent specialists.

For several months past Mrs. Halbert has been making her home in Hedgesville so as to be near medical aid, she being subject to sudden attacks of heart trouble. For several days before her death she had been very busy fixing and otherwise repairing the new home that she had but recently purchased, and from appearances looked to be in better health than for some time.

In the passing away of Mrs. Halbert this section loses one of its pioneers, for she has been a resident of Careless creek ever since her marriage to Mr. Halbert. She was possessed of the indomitable courage that was characteristic among pioneer women, a true character and steadfast disposition, and a heart full of hospitality.

Miss Alice Anna Cameron was born at Evaness, Scotland, in December, 1855. She was married to Thomas L. Halbert about 20 years ago, about five years after her arrival in America. She is survived by her husband, five brothers and one sister, Frank J., John, Louis and Thomas Cameron and Mrs. John Grant of Roundup.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in the Episcopal chapel at White Sulphur Springs, Rev. J. Phillip Anshutz officiating, after which interment took place in the city cemetery.--Hedges Herald.

RAIN WELL RECEIVED

The Rains of the Past Week are Well Received--Soil is Now Ready for Plowing.

This section of the state was visited by a number of heavy rains during the past week. At times the atmosphere was cold enough to cover the ground with a thin layer of snow.

The past summer has been exceptionally dry with the result that many of the farmers have found it impossible to do their fall plowing on account of the ground being so hard. The hot sun and little rain has baked the ground so hard in places that it was impossible to break new ground. During the past week the farmers were busy between storms with their plowing outfits. Many acres surrounding this city are being sowed in winter wheat.

This year has demonstrated beyond a doubt that this is a great winter wheat section. Notwithstanding the exceptionally dry year the yields in this section were good.

FLOUR MILL OPENS

The Harlowton Flour Mill Began Grinding Wheat Thursday--Montana Wheat is Used Exclusively.

Thursday the local flour mill began grinding out flour. For the past week the mill has been getting the wheat in readiness for grinding.

The mill has a capacity of 1200 barrels a day but at the present time only one-half of the mill will be in operation. The equipment is the best money can buy. In addition to the regular machinery, the mill is equipped with a washing and drying plant. The old method and the one in use by the majority of mills is scouring the wheat without washing. The new method is to wash and scour the wheat thereby cleaning the wheat perfectly before it is made into flour. Without the washing process, clean flour cannot be had. The dirt is not noticeable but nevertheless it is present.

The mill is in charge of old time millers that have spent their lives in the manufacture of flour. The flour will be manufactured out of Montana wheat exclusively and will be the best product that can be had.

Few people realize what the mill means to this section. At the present rate of 600 barrels a day it takes 2800 bushels of wheat for a days grind. This ought to be a stimulant for the raising of more winter wheat in this locality.

A warehouse for the storage of flour is under construction and will be completed in a short time. At the present time the mill has steel storage tanks for 30,000 bushels of wheat and is building more.

The mill is an example of expert workmanship and the management will be glad to show visitors through the mill and explain how the wheat is made into flour.
