

..THE CITY..

Did you see the Christmas goods at the Busy Bee.

Mr. Eklund, of Barber, and his daughter Edith were Harlowton visitors today.

Judge Cheadle will hold court in white Sulphur Springs on the 11th of December.

Attorney W. C. Husband took a short business trip to Helena the fore part of the week.

Marshall sells the big 3 Vacuum washing machine. Call and see them—a child can do the work.

Mrs. E. M. Jenizen has for her guest this week, her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Farr, of Lavina.

C. C. Musselman is having a house built in the Milwaukee Land Co. addition to Harlowton.

A. E. Hollister, of the Toggery, transacted business at Lewistown and Big Timber the first of the week.

If you have a Hoosier kitchen cabinet you will save one-half of your work. Call at Marshall's and see them.

Mr. French, state agent of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Co., called on local agent L. D. Glenn this week.

Dr. J. S. Myers gave a pleasing talk to the High School students at the school Thursday morning, on the subject "Making Good."

Special bargains in ladies wadded sweaters. Colors white grey and brown. Your choice at $1.65. See them at Marshall's.

Miss Elizabeth Weber left for New York City last week. Before returning will visit relatives and friends in Chicago, and Wisconsin cities.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Ole Fingerson, of Harlowton, at the Deconess hospital at Great Falls, Montana, Monday, Dec. 4th—a daughter.

Mrs. W. C. Jenizen, of Barber, Mont., and niece Mrs. McCWhirter of LaCrosse, Wis., and Miss Jeannette Cole, of St. Paul, Minn., were Harlowton visitors this week.

S. M. Fitzgerald, formerly of Gardner, Mont., but now of Carbon county this state, is visiting his daughter Mrs. Chas. Rader and numerous old time friends here. Mr. Fitzgerald tells some interesting accounts of his experiences in the cattle business in the Musselshell valley 25 years ago.

Dr. J. S. Myers, who lectured in the Opera house Thursday evening, gave a very entertaining and educating address. The hall was comfortable for the patrons, and in the future those attending the numbers of the Lyceum course will experience a warm hall. The attendance fell short of the average number, due to the inclemency of the weather and the report that the hall was cold. The next number will be a spirited entertaining lecture on the subject "Grapes of Gold" by Dr. H. V. Adams, on Jan. 2nd. Don't forget the date.

Our grocery lines are of the very best, fresh, clean stock to select from. Good service and prompt delivery at Marshall's.

Dr. P. E. Thompson, Resident Dentist Harlowton

Special and regular meeting of Yeoman's, Monday Dec. 11. Please come.

If you really wish to preserve that picture as well as have it look right, take it to Marshall's and have it framed. All work guaranteed.

The Catholic ladies will give another card party on Thursday night, Dec. 14th. Prizes will be given and refreshments served. Admission 25 cents.

W. N. Husband, father of attorney W. C. Husband left for his home at Hensel, N. Dak., on the Olympian Sunday evening. Mr. Husband was very much impressed with Harlowton and vicinity.

Marshall's new addition is one of the most important of all. We have added to our business one of the most up-to-date mail order departments. You will find our catalog has all others underpriced.

Mrs. Donald Thompson, mother of Dr. P. Thompson left Sunday for Montgomery Alabama, where she will visit her daughter. She was accompanied by Miss Helen Thompson, little daughter of the dentist.

Special agent Paul B. Sommers of the Scottish Mion and National Fire Insurance Co. visited his local agent, L. D. Glenn this week. The Scottish is the second largest company in the world and it would take $89,000,000.00 to put them out of business.

Judgement was rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the case of D. C. Haven, plaintiff, vs. Robert Denney and J. T. Denney, defendants, last week. The court held that plaintiff was entitled to $6.00 per day for forty-seven days work for which he was not paid for in full.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul VanCleve Jr. of Melville, Montana, arrived in Harlowton Wednesday night on their return from the New York Land Show. Mr. VanCleve reports that the Land Show was a big success—there being large crowds in attendance, and the exhibits from the western states were something marvelous and were a great surprise to the eastern people. Mr. VanCleve expressed the opinion that there would be a great number of eastern people out through the west next spring as a result of this show. The last day of the show there were 36,000 people passed through Madison Square Garden—the largest number of people that have ever been in the Garden in its history.

Piano Contest Closes Dec. 23

The piano contest will close on Saturday, December 23rd. Now is the time for contestants to get busy. The News is now giving 5,000 votes for every new subscriber and 3,000 votes for every renewal and in arrears. We will not raise the votes again, and will continue to give the above number until the close of the contest. Those securing new subscribers, or renewals and arrears, should not hold them, but turn them in at once.
