GREAT SOCIAL GATHERING

Held at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Stevens Is Big Success.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benj. T.
Stevens, Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Seraphine Labrie.
Fifty-six of the young people of Harlowton enjoyed a very social time. An elegant program was rendered, consisting of recitations, music, songs, and parlor drama, puns, games and "The Boy's Hunt for Happiness." The first number on the program was a Serenade by the Male Quartette, which was received with great applause and was highly appreciated by all.
They also sang several other songs,
"The Sunday Fishing Song" going straight home to every Sunday fisherman; the next number was a recitation by Seraphine Labrie which was delivered in the most-eloquent manner in which she held the audience spellbound. The next was a cornet duet by Rev. Klemme Mr. Dreyer, and Miss Dreyer, accompanist, the selection was beautiful, and would make the dreams of a waiting soul come beautifully true; next a piano selection was rendered by Rev. Klemme which was enjoyed by all; then came the drama entitled "A Little Game of Chance", in which Mr.
Fred Barren as Baron Von Linden was exceptionally fine. Mr. Frank Conwell as Mr. Waldeck was also very good. Miss Delia McMahon as Countess Von Arnim was simply divine and Miss Marie White as Henriette was great. Much credit is due the young people of Harlowton for their ability and one need not look farther for material that can excel them in any way.
In music, song and drama, right in our own midst, in looking around us, we find it all. One needs but the looking and we will find happiness that seems almost unreal, and in our happy fancy we will only awaken to find the "Harvest is Home". The next was a solo by Miss Carrie Holling, entitled "Tired" which was beautiful and was sung in the sweet voice so penetrating to one's very soul. Earl Van Dyke as stage manager was a great help.
After the program came an elaborate lunch which was enjoyed by all, and then "Good Night Ladies" by the Male Quartet and finally the good nights, all declaring that Mrs. Stevens as an entertainer could not be surpassed.
She is noted for her social entertainments and it is only right to say that this excelled all previous entertainments of this kind.

BOOSTER
BAND DANCE

On Last Friday Was Well Attended By the People of Harlow and Twodot.

The Wheatland County Booster Band Dance on last Friday evening was a great success. Several were in attendance from Twodot and vicinity. These dances have been appreciated by the public as they were assured of having good music and a fine social time, as the Band boys did their best to make every one have a good time.
This is about the only way the band has taken in raising money to buy extra musical instruments, music and their suits. They wish to thank all for their liberal patronage, and hope they have pleased everyone attending these dances. They will give another in the near future, per the request of many of the dance lovers.

Before getting a key for the old lock or purchasing a new one, test them by bending a button hook thus:

Place rounded side up in keyhole—lift square up—then throw the bolt out or in, as with key. Every lock in use should be tested in this manner, and if they can be worked with a button hook, replaced with something better.
A sneak thief is to be dreaded more a robber.
Every merchant should know who is carrying a key or a piece of metal which will unlock the lock on his store, shop or house.
A button hook slightly bent makes a master key for nine-tenths of the locks in the country now in use and on the shelves at the hardware stores, and can be operated by a boy 10 years of age.
