

MY DAUGHTER WAS CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"I send you here with the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Alice, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was pale, with dark circles under her eyes, weak and irritable. Two different doctors treated her and called it Green Sickness, but she grew worse all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it for all female troubles."—Mrs. L. A. CORRAN, 1103 Rutland Street, Baltimore, Md.

Hundreds of such letters from mothers expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

"Where will you reside?" asked the reporter of the young bride couple. "At the Old Manse," replied the erstwhile Miss Millions.
And this is the way the item appeared:
"Mr. Hardup and his bride, who was the former Miss Millions, have returned from their honeymoon. They will live at the old man's."

WORK OF GEN. BOOTH'S ARMY

Salvationists Give an Impressive Exhibit in London, Depicting Scenes From Life.

London.—Ten thousand people attended the demonstration given recently by the Salvation Army at the Albert hall. Old, white haired and almost blind, General Booth presided in person. "Only with my inner sight have I been able to witness these transformations and miracles that the love of God has wrought," he said after patiently sitting through the different scenes that were played before an attentive and interested audience.

First was depicted a night on the Thames embankment at one of the army's shelters. Gradually the great arena in the hall filled with hundreds of destitute and homeless men, to whom food and encouragement were given by the officers present, in illustration of their nightly task in various cities. The same men were seen later busily sorting out great sacks of waste paper, showing how employment of some description was found for even the most unpromising material.

Work among the little ones was demonstrated by a parade of forty gray gowned, white capped nurses, carrying in their arms tiny babies, some only a week or two old and many of them prison born. A crowd of hungry, ragged children followed, dancing round an Italian hardy-gurdy and fighting and playing with each other. Food and coffee were distributed to the boys and girls, who had been brought up from the slums that very afternoon as actual specimens of the raw material upon which the army is working.

Then came the children of "The Nest," as the girls' home at Clapton is called. As the neatly dressed brigade, consisting of about fifty little girls—all of whom have been rescued from drunken and brutal parents—trooped into the hall, where they danced and formed themselves into a zebra, loud applause resounded throughout the building. A number of woman officers followed, visiting woman prisoners in jail—realistic demonstrations being given of refractory cases who refused to go back to their cells.

The industrial and land colony at Hadleigh, Essex, where more than 1,000 acres of land is being farmed and intensive garden culture is carried on, was represented by a procession of gardeners, beekeepers, shepherds, poultry and dairy farmers, carrying poultry or dairy produce, fruits or vegetables or the implements of their labor. The farm proper carries more than 1,000 head of horses, cattle, sheep and lambs and pigs, grows large quantities of grain and roots and will soon be busy haymaking and harvesting.

The work of the emigration department was also indicated by means of tableaux and statistics were given showing that the army now carries on its social agencies in fifty-six countries and preaches salvation in thirty-nine languages, while it possesses 954 social institutions, 621 day schools and twelve military and naval homes, in addition to more than 100,000 officers of all ranks.

JAIL IS A SURE ENOUGH JUG

Bastie at Mansfield, Mo., Needs Only a Handle to Be the Real Thing.

Mansfield, Mo.—"Jug" as used to describe the city jail at Mansfield, scarcely could be considered a word of slang. For the Mansfield jail, built of solid concrete in the proportions of a huge jug, needs only a handle and the change from a door to a neck and cork to make it a jug in fact. Perhaps it doesn't matter a great deal, anyway, for the jail isn't often used, and it was just as well to put a little sense of humor in the structure.

THROUGHS COME TO SEE MUNYON

SURPRISING NUMBER OF VISITORS SHOWS INTEREST IN EXPERT.

Local Folk Testify—Stomach Trouble Conquered and Rheumatism Pangs Overcome.

One of the most remarkable features about Prof. J. M. Munyon is the extraordinary amount of attention he has attracted. Here and all over the country, the immense crowds that have been flocking to see him, and the large quantity of mail he receives daily at his headquarters, Munyon's Laboratories, 53d and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia. He receives mail and visitors from every city in the United States and Canada. Most notable is the fact that rich and poor come to him alike, and a few hours spent at the side of the physician is a most interesting study in human nature.

Many remarkable cases of relief secured were related at the store this week.

One was that of a man who had suffered from indigestion and stomach trouble for more than ten years. He said:
"I think I had one of the worst cases of stomach trouble on record. I could not digest anything I ate. Food fermented in my stomach and formed gas, which passed out in the abdomen and up under my heart, and at times made me suffer so badly I expected to die. I had intense headaches and frequent attacks of dizziness, and I grew short of breath when I attempted to walk up stairs. I was also much constipated. I came here a short while ago and took Munyon's full course of stomach treatment. Now I must admit I feel like a new man. I can eat anything I want with no distress afterward, and all of the other symptoms of my trouble have disappeared. I notice particularly that my head is much clearer and my brain works better. I am full of ambition and energy and enjoy life hugely. I can never tell how glad I am that I had the good sense to try this Munyon treatment."

Another enthusiastic visitor was a woman who declared that her mother had been relieved of rheumatism in a most remarkable manner. She said:
"My mother was flat on her back in bed with rheumatism, sciatic, muscular and inflammatory. Doctors had pronounced her case almost incurable and we had about given up hope of her ever being able to walk again. I procured a treatment for her from one of these Munyon doctors, and today she is able to get about the house with perfect ease and can go outdoors, and in fact, do anything that a woman of her age might be expected to do. The rheumatic pains and inflammation have entirely disappeared. I think this Munyon treatment is a positive wonder-worker."

Letters addressed to Prof. J. M. Munyon Personally, Munyon's Laboratories, 53d and Jefferson Sts., Philadelphia, Pa., or callers who apply at that address, will receive free medical advice. There is not a penny to pay for the fullest and most painstaking medical examination. You are made to feel, whether by personal interview, or letter, that the advice is absolutely free and you are not under any obligation to follow it.

Participation by American capitalists in the new Chinese loans is causing closer study to be made into the prospects for railway building in that empire. Consul General George E. Anderson of Hongkong has just contributed a comprehensive report on this subject, which has been published by the bureau of manufactures of the department of commerce and labor as special consular report No. 48, with the title, "Railway Situation in China." Copies can be secured from the bureau.

There has been no single greater obstacle to the development of central China than the lack of facilities for communication. The recent imperial decree, issued with a view to nationalizing the trunk lines of the empire and the $30,000,000 Hukuang railway, by which it is expected to rush to completion most of the important railway lines of central China, augur well for the extension of foreign trade into the remote interior. Americans are not only taking part of the Hukuang loan, but also of the $50,000,000 government loan just agreed on at Peking, and will probably participate in a further loan of $20,000,000 to be made in case certain railroad plans are carried out. All these lines proposed, from Manchuria to Tibet.

One day a grocer addicted to stuttering, but who had also a sense of humor, met a friend on the street and asked:
"Hi-a-llo, Ned, e-a-n you g-give m-me f-f-fifteen m-m-minutes?"
"Certainly," replied the friend.
"What is it?"
"I w-w-want to have f-f-five m-m-minutes' t-t-talk with you."

Substitutes for Rubber.

Rubber consumption has kept so close on the heels of rubber production and price of the gum has risen so rapidly in the last few years that nothing could be more welcome to the manufacturers of rubber goods and the motor car people than the discovery of a synthetic rubber or some practicable substitute for rubber.

From time to time announcement is made that such substitute has been found, but the manufacturers and others interested are always skeptical.

Some time ago considerable interest was aroused by the report that the British scientist, Weichmann, had made a rubber from the seed of a South American palm known as taqua nuts. He extracted the vegetable albumen, compounded it with an animal albumen and a suitable solvent, producing, it was claimed, a hard rubber which has all the tensile strength and other good qualities of rubber except that it will not stand the action of water and chemical agents.

This difficulty, in turn, has, it is asserted, been overcome by compounding it again with a condensed product of phenol and formaldehyde. This material again may be compounded with as many substances as native rubber.

Another substitute is proposed in Germany. Five hundred parts of erythrene are dissolved in benzene and the solution is heated for 10 hours at a temperature of 150 degrees centigrade. A steam distillation then removes the solvent and the elastic substance that remains closely resembles rubber.

An Irishman with one side of his face badly swollen stepped into Dr. Wicket's office and inquired if the dentist was in.

"I am the dentist," said the doctor. "Well, then, I want ye to see what the matter wid me tooth."
The doctor examined the offending molar, and explained:
"The nerve is dead; that's what's the matter."
"Thin, be the powers!" the Irishman exclaimed, "the other teeth must be houldin' a wake over it!"

A slight cold is not taken seriously enough and too often neglected. Isn't it better to cure that cold right up with Hamlin's Wizard Oil than to let it run into Pneumonia or Consumption?

"Is this the newspaper office?" inquired Mr. Timmons.
"It is," responded the man at the desk.
"Didn't this paper say I was a liar?"
"It did not."
"Didn't it say I was a scoundrel?"
"It did not."
"Well, some paper said it."
"Possibly it was our contemporary down the street," suggested the editor, as he picked up a paper weight. "This paper never prints stale news."

"It is," replied Mr. Tipples.
"You gave me such a shock. I thought at first there was a man in the house."

Housework Drudgery

Housework is drudgery for the weak woman. She brushes, dusts and scrubs, or is on her feet all day attending to the many details of the household, her back aching, her temples throbbing, nerves quivering under the stress of pain, possibly dizzy feelings. Sometimes rest in bed is not refreshing, because the poor tired nerves do not permit of refreshing sleep. The real need of weak, nervous women is satisfied by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It Makes Weak Women Strong and Sick Women Well.

This "Prescription" removes the cause of women's weaknesses, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures those weaknesses so peculiar to women. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite and induces restful sleep.

Dr. Pierce is perfectly willing to let every one know what his "Favorite Prescription" contains, a complete list of ingredients on the bottle-wrapper. Do not let any unscrupulous druggist persuade you that his substitute of unknown composition is "just as good" in order that he may make a bigger profit. Just smile and shake your head!
