G. E. SHAWLER - - Business Mgr.

Entered as second-class matter August 17, 1911, at the postoffice at Libby, Montana, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY, NOV. 9, 1911.

Judge Erickson will convene court in Libby Nov. 15.

Henry Wegner is down from his ranch in the Yahk basin.

Charley Young of Gateway was here this week on a business trip.

Teachers' examinations will be held at Eureka and Libby Nov. 24 and 25.

J. G. Van Dyke, the pioneer market gardener of Troy, was in Libby Saturday.

Julius Neils of Cass Lake, Minn., is in Libby inspecting his large property interests in this section.

Thos. Handley of Rexford is in the city to qualify as administrator of the estate of the late J. C. Sullivan.

Edw. Gay, secretary of the Kalispell Brewing company, was calling on Libby customers and friends last Saturday.

It is reported the Great Northern has a couple of miners at Kootenai Falls with sluice boxes to test the ground for placers.

A. E. Boorman, secretary of the Montana Larch and Pine Manufacturers' association, was transacting business in Libby this week.

S. H. Dennis, of the Kootenai Land & Investment company, has sold the Richards ranch, just above town, to R. J. Murray of Butte, for $7,500 cash.

Those weather sharks down at Washington certainly had the right dope in their weather forecast for the week that a cold wave would swoop down upon the Pacific northwest the middle of the week and travel eastward. It swooped, all right, and at last accounts hadn't traveled away from the Kootenai banana belt.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Nash of Red Lodge, Mont., are in the city. Mr. Nash is the contractor who put in the extensive system of paved walks for the city.

The report comes from Troy that McCaffrey, who has a bond on the Big Eight for $50,000, has been offered a bonus of $15,000 to relinquish, but has declined.

A short note from Heine Gass to Dan Welsh stated that the writer was laid up in a hospital at Pasco, Wash., with a dislocated shoulder, but no particulars were given.

The Kootenai Land & Investment company has located Dave Moffatt of Butte on a forest homestead north of Troy, on the bench west of beautiful Lake Kilbrannon.

Fred Berger, the pioneer butcher of Eureka, was at the county seat Wednesday, paying taxes and attending to other business. He stopped off a day at Warland, while enroute here.

Lew Butterfield of bridge crew No. 1 came in from the west Tuesday with the car, for a day here before going to the east end on the reservation, where they will be stationed for the winter.

B. M. Thomas has been appointed a delegate from this county by Governor Norris to attend the Irrigation congress, which will meet at Chicago Dec. 5 to 9. Ben says he expects to be present at the session.

Geo. Moore of Troy was a business visitor in Libby Monday and Tuesday. George was one of the pioneers in the road and bridge movement which culminated so successfully in the bond issue—in fact, the inception of the present movement may be said to date back to a meeting held in the Herald office in Troy about a year and a half ago by the Commercial club, at which George was one of the most vigorous champions of the proposition. Today, George does not conceal his satisfaction and pleasure at the outcome and looks forward to the rapid development of the entire county as a consequence of the improvements about to be made.

A party of hunters from Fort Benton, this state, returned to Libby the latter part of last week from a successful hunt in the Fisher country. They brought in with them nine deer which they shipped to their homes, after having had a group photo taken of their "quarry." The party consisted of C. W. Morrison, J. S. Brown and A. E. McLeish.

Speaking of deer stories, Fred Lowrey, who has been considerably annoyed by the depredations of deer at his ranch at Ripley, last Saturday night took his lantern and went out to his cabbage patch and shot a deer by the flickering rays of his light. He was probably ten minutes in pulling off the stunt, which is a heap better than tramping all over the hills for a chance shot, and then maybe miss.

Lenia correspondent and others interested are no doubt now in a happier frame of mind, as they have probably heard of the action of the commissioners who last Monday authorized Henry Schreiber to build a ferryboat for the crossing at Lenia, on the plan of the Libby boat—this county to co-operate with Bonner county in the cost and maintenance.

Friends of Major Clyde Ford were shocked to read in the current news of his prostration by an attack of appendicitis at Columbus, O., while enroute to attend the funeral of his brother at Wheeling, W. Va. His illness occurred last Thursday and was so severe that his life was despaired of. The major was in Libby about two weeks ago, with Genl. Greenan and Lieut. Fravel, on a deer hunt.

Before persons can take hunting parties into the mountains for hire, they must have guides' licenses, and the state game warden says he is going to see that this provision is enforced. In Teton county a few days ago Frances LaFranz was convicted of taking parties out without a guide's license and was fined $50.

Cutting Fracas.

In an altercation last Friday night, on Mineral avenue near Second, Frank Gagnon assaulted Jack Stewart with a knife and inflicted two ugly, but not fatal, wounds. Gagnon then hurried to the jail building and surrendered, and was locked up.

Stewart was attended by Dr. Auld. One cut was made in the left breast, which, had not the blade struck a rib and glanced downward, would have pierced the heart; the other wound was in the back of the neck, cutting an artery. Stewart has been unable to appear, and the hearing before Judge Hoffman has been twice postponed.

The school census of Great Falls shows the boys and girls to be evenly divided, just 1414 boys and 1414 girls.

The last Thursday, Thanksgiving day, comes this year on the last day of the month.
